CHAPTER li.

An Act to incorporate a Company for establishing and holding Markets and Fairs and Slaughter-houses, and building a Town Hall in the Town of Aberdare, in the County of Glamorgan, and to authorise the Company to purchase the Undertaking of the Aberdare Market Company; and for other purposes. [9th July 1880.] A.D. 1880.

WHEREAS the Aberdare Market Company, incorporated by the Aberdare Market Act, 1852 (in this Act called the Act of 1852), have provided a market house and slaughter-houses, and now hold a market in the town of Aberdare, in the county of Glamorgan: 15 & 16 Vict. c. xxviii.

And whereas the population of the town of Aberdare has greatly increased since the passing of the Act of 1852, and the market and slaughter-houses established and provided under that Act are insufficient to meet the requirements of the district, and it would be of great public and local advantage that the market should be enlarged and improved, and other markets established, and that the slaughter-houses should be removed from the centre of the town to the suburbs thereof:

And whereas the erection of a Town Hall with public offices and other buildings and conveniences within the town of Aberdare would also be of public and local advantage:

And whereas the persons herein-after mentioned, with others, are willing to effect the objects aforesaid, and it is expedient to incorporate them into a Company, and to confer upon the Company the powers necessary for the purposes and objects aforesaid:

And whereas the Company so to be incorporated as aforesaid have agreed with the Aberdare Market Company for the purchase of their undertaking upon the terms and conditions herein-after specified,

A.D. 1880.
