EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Scottish Parliament (Elections etc.) Order 2015 ("the 2015 Order") and the Representation of the People (Scotland) Regulations 2001 ("the 2001 Regulations").

The 2015 Order sets out provisions relating to the conduct of elections for, and the return of members to, the Scottish Parliament. It applies where a postal or proxy vote is being or has been sought for an indefinite period or for a particular period, either solely in respect of Scottish parliamentary elections or jointly in respect of both Scottish parliamentary and local government elections in Scotland. The Order also applies where a postal or proxy vote is being or has been sought for a particular Scottish parliamentary election.

The 2001 Regulations apply to elections for membership of the House of Commons and to local government elections in Scotland. Part 4 of the 2001 Regulations supplements the provisions on absent voting contained in Schedule 4 of the Representation of the People Act 2000. The Regulations apply where a postal or proxy vote is being sought or has been sought in respect of UK parliamentary elections or for a particular UK parliamentary election. They also apply where a postal or proxy vote is being sought or has been sought in respect of UK parliamentary elections alongside local government elections in Scotland.

Article 2 of this Order inserts a new regulation 60AA into the 2001 Regulations. This temporarily disapplies the requirement in regulation 60A(1) of those Regulations for registration officers to send a notice requesting a fresh signature from any person entitled to vote by post or by proxy at local government elections in Scotland whose signature on record is more than 5 years old. This requirement is temporarily disapplied where the notice would otherwise require to be sent by 31 January 2026. The registration officer will instead be required to send the notice by 31 January 2027.

Article 3 inserts a new paragraph 14A into schedule 3 of the 2015 Order. This temporarily disapplies the requirement in paragraph 14(1) of that schedule for electoral registration officers to send a notice requesting a fresh signature from any person entitled to vote by post or proxy at Scottish parliamentary elections or at local government and Scottish parliamentary elections whose signature on record is more than 5 years old. This requirement is temporarily disapplied where the notice would otherwise require to be sent by 31 January 2026. The electoral registration officer will instead be required to send the notice by 31 January 2027.
