The Rules also make some procedural amendments, the most important of which are—

(1) Provision for the taxation and enforcement of costs awarded by an Agricultural Land Tribunal under the Agriculture (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1954 (Rule 13 (a)).

(2) An amendment to the procedure on the acceptance of an offer made by the hirer of goods in a case to which the Hire-Purchase Act, 1938, s. 12, applies (Rule 13 (b)).

Consequential amendments are made to a number of Forms (Rules 16 to 33).

These Rules differ from those submitted to the Lord Chancellor by the County Court Rule Committee, having been altered by the Lord Chancellor by virtue of the power contained in the County Courts Act, 1934, s. 99 (7), in two respects: a drafting alteration in Rule 3, and in paragraph (f) of Rule 14 the addition of the words "or the parties consent" at the end.
