

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO OCTAVO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

****

CAP. CVI.

An Act to remedy the Inconvenience which has arisen, and may arise, from the Expiration of Acts, before the passing of Acts to continue the same. [25th June 1808.]

WHEREAS Bills for the continuing of Acts in force only for a limited Time have sometimes not passed before the Expiration of the Act intended to be continued; and great Inconvenience may arise therefrom; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where any Bill may have been or shall be introduced into this present or any future Session of Parliament, for the Continuance of any Act which would expire in such Sessions, and such Act shall have expired before the Bill for continuing the same shall have received the Royal Assent, such continuing Act shall be deemed and taken to have Effect from the Date of the Expiration of the Act intended to be continued, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such continuing Act had actually passed before the Expiration of such Act, except it shall be otherwise especially provided in such continuing Act: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect any Person or Persons with any Punishment, Penalty,

When Bills for continuing Expiring Acts shall not pass before the Acts expire, such Acts shall be continued from their Expiration.

Penalty, or Forfeiture whatſoever, by reaſon of any Thing done or omitted to be done by any ſuch Perſon or Perſons contrary to the Proviſions of the Act ſo continued, between the Expiration of the ſame and the Date at which the Act continuing the ſame may have received or ſhall receive the Royal Aſſent.
