The Export of Goods (North Korea) Order, 1950

1950 No. 1117

Made - - - -	6th July, 1950
Coming into Operation	6th July, 1950

The Board of Trade, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by Section I of the Import, Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act, 1939(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, do hereby order as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Export of Goods (Control) (Consolidation) Order, 1949(b), as amended from time to time(c), all goods are prohibited to be exported from the United Kingdom or shipped as ships' stores to any port or destination in North Korea.

2.—(1) The Interpretation Act, 1889(d), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(2) This Order may be cited as the Export of Goods (North Korea) Order, 1950, and shall come into operation on the 6th day of July, 1950.

Dated this 6th day of July, 1950.

Harold Wilson,
President of the Board of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order prohibits the export, or the shipping as ships' stores, of all goods to North Korea.

IMPORT DUTIES (ADDITIONAL)

The Additional Import Duties (No. 1) Order, 1950

1950 No. 843

Made - - - -	25th May, 1950
Laid before the House of Commons	30th May, 1950
Coming into Operation	2nd June, 1950

Whereas by virtue of the Import Duties (Consolidation) Order, 1949(e), (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") an additional duty of customs is chargeable under section three of the Import Duties Act, 1932(f), on goods of the class or description specified in sub-paragraph (iii) of paragraph (3) of Group XIV in the Second Schedule to that Order:

(a) 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 69. (b) S.I. 1949 (No. 2466) I, p. 1272.
(c) The relevant Order at the date of this Order is S.I. 1950 No. 426.
(d) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.
(e) S.I. 1949 (No. 2355) I, p. 1298. (f) 22 & 23 Geo. 5. c. 8.

And whereas the Treasury, after consultation with the appropriate department, are of opinion that it is expedient that barium manganate and cobalt arsenate should be excluded from the charge of additional duty under that sub-paragraph and that the principal Order should be varied accordingly:

Now, therefore, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers conferred on them by subsection (5) of section nineteen of the Import Duties Act, 1932, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Order:—

1.—(1) The additional duty chargeable by virtue of the principal Order on barium manganate and cobalt arsenate by reason of their falling within the class or description specified in sub-paragraph (iii) of paragraph (3) of Group XIV in the Second Schedule to the Order shall not be chargeable.

(2) Accordingly in that part of the sub-paragraph which follows the words "other than the following" there shall be inserted, after the word "graphite", the words "barium manganate, cobalt arsenate".

2. This Order may be cited as the Additional Import Duties (No. 1) Order, 1950.

3. This Order shall come into operation on the 2nd day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty.

Dated this 25th day of May, 1950.

R. J. Taylor,
Wm. Hannan,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order provides that the additional duty chargeable on certain pigments, namely barium manganate and cobalt arsenate, by virtue of the Import Duties (Consolidation) Order, 1949, shall not be chargeable.
