The Adoption of Children (Summary Jurisdiction) Rules, 1949

1949 No. 2397 (L. 32)

Made - - - - 21*st December*, 1949
Coming into Operation 1*st January*, 1950

I, William Allen, Viscount Jowitt, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, by virtue of section 8 of the Adoption of Children Act, 1926(a), and section 14 of the Adoption of Children Act, 1949(b), and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, hereby make the following rules for carrying those Acts into effect so far as they confer jurisdiction upon courts of summary jurisdiction :—

Commencement of proceedings

1. An application for an adoption order shall be made to the juvenile court for the place where the applicant resides, and shall be made by means of a statement in the form numbered 1 in the First Schedule to these rules, presented to the court by the applicant together with all documents referred to in that statement as attached thereto.

2. If any person proposing to apply to a juvenile court for an adoption order desires that his identity should be kept confidential, he may, before presenting a statement of application, apply to the clerk to the justices for the place for which the court acts for a serial number to be assigned to him for the purposes of the proposed application, and the clerk shall assign such a number to him accordingly.

(a) 16 & 17 Geo. 5. c. 29. (b) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 98.

3. Any document signifying the consent of any person which is attached to a statement of application in accordance with these rules shall be in the form numbered 2 in the First Schedule to these rules.

4. Unless the applicant has previously made an application to any court for an adoption order in respect of the same infant, or unless the court otherwise directs in any particular case, it shall not be necessary for the applicant to attend in person for the purpose of presenting the statement of application.

5. If it appears that the applicant has previously made an application for an adoption order in respect of the same infant to any court other than a court of summary jurisdiction, the court shall not entertain the application; and if it appears that the applicant has previously made an application for such an order to a court of summary jurisdiction, the court shall not entertain the application unless it is satisfied that there has been a substantial change in the circumstances since the previous application.

Appointment and functions of guardian ad litem

6. Subject to the provisions of rule 5, where an application is made to a court of summary jurisdiction for an adoption order, the court shall as soon as practicable appoint a guardian of the infant for the purposes of the application (in these rules referred to as a guardian ad litem) and shall furnish him with a copy of the statement of application, together with the documents attached thereto.

7. It shall be the duty of the guardian ad litem to investigate as fully as possible all circumstances relevant to the proposed adoption with a view to safeguarding the interests of the infant before the court, and to make a report to the court for that purpose; and in particular it shall be his duty—

(a) to make inquiries as to all matters alleged in the statement of application, and as to the additional matters specified in the Second Schedule to these rules, and to report to the court upon them;

(b) to interview (either by himself or by an agent appointed by him for the purpose) every individual being an applicant for the order or a respondent or mentioned in the statement of application as a person to whom reference may be made, and the appropriate officer of any local authority or other body being a respondent;

(c) to attend the court whenever required for the purposes of the application.

8. The guardian ad litem, any agent of his, and, where a local authority or other body is appointed as guardian ad litem, every officer of that authority or body, shall treat as confidential all information obtained in the course of the investigation, and shall not divulge any part of it to any other person except so far as may be necessary for the proper execution of his duty.

9. At the time of appointing a guardian ad litem, the court shall fix a date and time for the hearing of the application, and shall issue a notice in the form numbered 3 in the First Schedule to these rules to the following persons (in these rules referred to as respondents):—

(a) every person whose consent to the order is required under subsection (1) of section three of the Adoption of Children Act, 1949, or subsection (4) of section two of the Adoption of Children Act, 1926;

(b) the welfare authority;

(c) any adoption society by whom arrangements for the adoption have been made; and

(d) unless the court is of opinion that he is not of an age to understand the effect of an adoption order, the infant.

Attendance of parties and hearing of application

10. Subject to rule 11, the court shall not make an adoption order or an interim order except after the personal attendance before the court of the applicant, the infant (if a respondent) and the guardian ad litem; but except as aforesaid, the personal attendance of a respondent shall not be required unless it appears to the court that there are special circumstances which render his attendance necessary.

11. Where the application is made jointly, the court may dispense with the personal attendance of one of the applicants if the notice of application is verified by a declaration made by that applicant and attested by a justice of the peace (or, if made outside the United Kingdom, attested by a person of any class prescribed by rule 33).

12. Unless it appears from the statement of application, or is otherwise shown to the satisfaction of the court, that the applicant does not desire that his identity should be kept confidential, the proceedings shall be conducted with a view to securing that he is not seen by or made known to any individual being a respondent (other than the infant or the spouse of the applicant); and in particular the court shall direct that the applicant (unless his attendance is dispensed with under rule 11) shall attend and be heard and examined separately and apart from any such respondent.

13. Notwithstanding anything in section 47 of the Children and Young Persons Act, 1933(a), every application for an adoption order shall be heard and determined in camera.

14. If owing to special circumstances any case appears to the court to be more fit to be dealt with by the High Court, the court may, on that ground expressly, refuse to make any order upon the application.

15. Notwithstanding anything in the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, the hearing of the application shall not be adjourned at the instance of the applicant unless the court is satisfied that there are special circumstances which render the adjournment necessary or expedient.

Form and transmission of orders

16. An adoption order shall be drawn up in the form numbered 4 in the First Schedule to these rules, and an interim order in the form numbered 5 in that Schedule.

17. Within 7 days after the making of an adoption order, the clerk of the court shall send a duplicate or a certified copy of the order to the Registrar General, and shall also, subject to the payment by the applicant of the fee prescribed by law, deliver or send a duplicate or certified copy to the applicant.

18. An adoption order, and any copy of such an order sent to the Registrar General, shall be drawn up on paper of foolscap folio size, 13 inches by 8 inches, and shall have a margin to be left blank, not less than 1 inch wide, on the left side of the face of the paper and a similar margin on the right side of the reverse, if any.

19. Any copy of an order which is sent by post in accordance with rule 17 shall be sent by registered post.

20. No duplicate or copy of an adoption order or interim order shall be given to or served upon any person other than the Registrar General or the applicant except by special direction of the High Court or of a juvenile court for the place in which the order was made.

(a) 23 & 24 Geo. 5. c. 12.

21. Where an adoption order is made or refused or an interim order made, the court shall, subject to rules 12 and 20, issue a notice to that effect to all parties who were not present when the order was made or refused.

Restoration of proceedings after interim order

22. Where the determination of an application is postponed and an interim order made—

(a) the applicant shall, at least two months before the expiration of the period specified in the interim order, apply to a juvenile court for the place in which the order was made to proceed to the final determination of the application;

(b) the court shall thereupon fix a time for the further hearing of the application, and shall issue to every respondent a notice in the form numbered 6 in the First Schedule to these rules.

23. If no such application as is mentioned in paragraph (a) of rule 22 is made within the time required by that paragraph, an application for the purposes of that rule may be made at any time thereafter by the guardian ad litem or any respondent, and the provisions of that rule shall have effect accordingly.

Costs

24. On the determination of an application for an adoption order, and on the making of an interim order, the court may make such order as to costs as it thinks just, and in particular may order the applicant to pay—

(a) the out of pocket expenses incurred by the guardian ad litem,

(b) the expenses incurred in attending the court by any respondent, or such part of those expenses as the court thinks proper; and any sums ordered to be paid under this rule shall be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.

Amendment of adoption orders

25. An order under subsection (8) of section 12 of the Adoption of Children Act, 1949(a), for the amendment of an adoption order, may be made ex parte.

26. Where an order for the amendment of an adoption order is made under subsection (8) of section 12 of the Adoption of Children Act, 1949, the clerk of the court shall send to the Registrar General a notice specifying the date of the adoption order and the names of the adopter and of the adopted person (as described in the Schedule to the adoption order) and stating what amendments are to be made in the particulars specified in that order.

Application of Summary Jurisdiction Acts

27. Such part of the register kept in pursuance of the Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1879 (b), as relates to proceedings under the Adoption of Children Acts, 1926 to 1949(c), shall be kept in a separate book, and shall contain the particulars shown in the form numbered 7 in the First Schedule to these rules.

28. The book kept in pursuance of rule 27, and all other documents relating to the proceedings mentioned in that rule, shall be kept in a place of special security.

(a) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 98. (b) 42 & 43 Vict. c. 49.
(c) 16 & 17 Geo. 5. c. 29; 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 27 and 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 98.

29. Subject to these rules, the Summary Jurisdiction Acts and the rules made thereunder shall apply to proceedings under the Adoption of Children Acts, 1926 to 1949, as if the statement of application for an adoption order were a complaint, as if the respondents were defendants, and as if any notice issued under these rules to a respondent were a summons: but nothing in this rule shall be construed as enabling a warrant to be issued for failure to appear in answer to any such notice.

Proceedings of local authorities, etc.

30. Where a local authority or other body is appointed under these rules as guardian ad litem, or is a respondent to an application for an adoption order, anything required or authorised by these rules to be done by the guardian or respondent may be done by any officer of the authority or body duly authorised in that behalf.

Service of notices

31. Any notice issued under these rules may be served—

(a) where the notice is addressed to an individual, by delivering it to him personally, or by leaving it with some person for him at his last known or usual place of abode (whether in England or elsewhere) or by sending it to him by registered post at that place;

(b) where the notice is addressed to a local authority, a registered adoption society or any other body of persons, by delivering it at or sending it by registered post to the principal office of the authority, or the registered or principal office of the society or other body, as the case may be.

32. Every notice issued under these rules shall be served by the guardian ad litem, as soon as practicable, upon the person to whom it is addressed.

Attestation of consents, etc.

33. For the purposes of subsection (3) of section 3 of the Adoption of Children Act, 1949, and of rule 11 of these rules, a document or declaration executed or made by any person outside the United Kingdom shall be sufficiently attested if it is attested as follows:—

(a) if the document or declaration is executed or made at any place in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, or in any colony, protectorate, protected state or United Kingdom trust territory, by any judge of any court of civil or criminal jurisdiction, any justice of the peace or magistrate or any person for the time being authorised by law in that place to administer an oath for any judicial or other legal purpose;

(b) if the document or declaration is executed or made at any place in any of the countries mentioned in subsection (3) of section 1 of the British Nationality Act, 1948(a), or in the Republic of Ireland or in any mandated territory or trust territory administered by the government of any such territory, by any person for the time being authorised by law in that place to administer an oath for any judicial or other legal purpose;

(c) if the document or declaration is executed or made at any other place, by any consular officer of His Majesty's government in the United Kingdom or, if there is no such consular officer, by any person authorised by the Secretary of State to administer the oath of allegiance for the purposes of section 6 or section 10 of the British Nationality Act, 1948;

(d) if the person by whom the document is executed or made is serving in any of His Majesty's naval, military or air forces, by any officer holding a commission in any of those forces.

(a) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 56.

Applications under Adoption of Children Act, 1949, s. 3 (4)

34. An application under subsection (4) of section 3 of the Adoption of Children Act, 1949, for leave to remove the infant from the care and possession of the applicant shall be made by way of complaint, and a copy of any summons issued thereon shall be served on the guardian ad litem.

35. Where leave to remove the infant from the care and possession of the applicant is granted under subsection (4) of section 3 of the Adoption of Children Act, 1949, the court may, upon granting leave, dismiss the application for the adoption order.

Interpretation

36. In these rules the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—

"the applicant" includes either, as well as both, of two joint applicants;

"interim order" means an interim order made under section 6 of the Adoption of Children Act, 1926(a);

37. The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to the interpretation of these rules as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Revocation

38. Subject to rule 39, the Adoption of Children (Summary Jurisdiction) Rules, 1936(d), the Adoption of Children (Summary Jurisdiction) Rules, 1939(e), and the Adoption of Children (Summary Jurisdiction) Rules, 1942(f), are hereby revoked.

39. Notwithstanding anything in these rules, any application for an adoption order which is pending at the date of the commencement of these rules may, so far as consistent with the provisions of the Adoption of Children Act, 1949, be proceeded with and determined in accordance with the rules in force immediately before that date.
