An Act to amend the Law with respect to rating Places used for Advertisements. [12th August 1889.]

WHEREAS difficulties have arisen in relation to the assessment to poor and other rates of land used for exhibition of advertisements and it is expedient to remove the same:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Advertising Stations (Rating) Act, 1889.

Definitions.

2. In this Act the term "owner" means the person for the time being receiving or entitled to receive the rackrent of the lands or premises in connection with which the word is used, whether on his own account or as agent or trustee for any other person, or who would so receive or be entitled to receive the same if such lands or premises were let at a rackrent; and the word "person" shall be deemed to include any body of persons whether corporate or unincorporate.

Rating land used for advertisements and not otherwise occupied.

3. Where any land is used temporarily or permanently for the exhibition of advertisements, or for the erection of any hoarding frame post wall or structure used for the exhibition of advertisements but not otherwise occupied, the person who shall permit the same to be so used, or (if he cannot be ascertained) the owner thereof, shall be deemed to be in beneficial occupation of such land or part thereof, and shall be rateable in respect thereof to the relief of the poor and to all local rates, according to the value of such use as aforesaid.

Rating occupied hereditaments used for advertisements.

4. Where any land or hereditament occupied for other purposes, and rateable in respect thereof to the relief of the poor and local rates, is used temporarily or permanently for the exhibition of advertisements, or for the erection thereon or attachment thereto of any hoarding frame post wall or structure used for the exhibition of advertisements, the gross and rateable value of such land or hereditament shall be so estimated as to include the increased value from such use as aforesaid.
