EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations, which are made after consultation with the Agricultural Statistics Advisory Committee, provide that the information which may be required under the Agricultural Statistics (England and Wales) Regulations, 1948, from occupiers of land used for agriculture shall include statistical information relating to the total number of flower bulbs forced under glass in any season, and as to the total capacity of permanent tanks on any holding for the storage of fuel oil.

AGRICULTURAL MARKETING

1956 No. 2082

The British Egg Marketing Scheme (Approval) Order, 1956

Made - - - - 21*st December*, 1956

Whereas the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, the Secretary of State for Scotland and the Secretary of State for the Home Department (being the Secretary of State concerned with agriculture in Northern Ireland) laid before each House of Parliament a draft of a scheme, as set forth in the Schedule hereto, under the Agricultural Marketing Acts, 1931 to 1949(a), for regulating the marketing of eggs produced in the United Kingdom:

And Whereas, prior to the laying of the draft as aforesaid, each House of the Parliament of Northern Ireland had resolved, pursuant to sub-section (3) of Section 18 of the Agricultural Marketing Act, 1949(b), that it was expedient that a scheme in the terms of the draft should, if approved as hereinafter mentioned, extend to Northern Ireland:

And Whereas, the House of Commons resolved on the eleventh day of December, 1956, and the House of Lords on the twentieth day of December, 1956, that the said Scheme should be approved:

Now, therefore, the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, the Secretary of State for Scotland and the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in pursuance of subsection (8) of Section 1 of the Agricultural Marketing Act, 1931(c), and Section 18 of the Agricultural Marketing Act, 1949, hereby make the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the British Egg Marketing Scheme (Approval) Order, 1956.

2. The said Scheme is approved in the terms of the said draft.

3. The said Scheme shall come into force on the thirty-first day of December, 1956.

In Witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food is hereunto affixed this twentieth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-six.

(L.S.) D. Heathcoat Amory,
Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food.
