EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Reserve and Auxiliary Forces (Protection of Civil Interests) Act, 1951, provides that, in certain circumstances, a tenant of an agricultural holding who is performing a period of service shall have special protection in addition to that given by the Agricultural Holdings Act, 1948. In particular, when a notice to quit the holding states reasons which would, but for the special protection, deprive a tenant of his right to serve a counter-notice under s. 24 (1) of the 1948 Act, the service man may still have the right to do so. This Order provides that in cases where the operation of the 1948 Act is modified in this way, the Agricultural Land Tribunals and Notices to Quit Order, 1959, (S.I. 1959/81) shall be modified accordingly.
