CHAPTER 30.

An Act to authorise the President of the Air Council to pay subsidies and furnish facilities to persons maintaining regular services for the carriage by air of passengers, goods and mails.

[1st August 1930.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Agreements for subsidising air transport.

1.—(1) The President of the Air Council may, with the approval of the Treasury, agree to pay subsidies to any persons and to furnish facilities for their aircraft, in consideration of those persons maintaining in accordance with the agreement a regular service for the carriage by air of passengers, goods and mails:

Provided that—

(a) the aggregate amount of the subsidies payable under all the agreements made in pursuance of this Act shall not exceed one million pounds in any financial year; and

(b) no subsidy shall be payable under any such agreement after the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and forty.

(2) Any sums required by the President of the Air Council for the fulfilment of any agreement made in pursuance of this Act shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Air Transport (Subsidy Agreements) Act, 1930.
