EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Airways Corporations Joint Pension Scheme by extending the provisions as to investment of the Fund, by increasing the maximum pension under Part I of the Scheme (General Staff) to £2,666, by enabling members of Part I, upon certain conditions, to contribute for enhanced pensions, and by increasing the rates of employees' contributions and pensions under Part I in respect of pay over £5,000 per annum.

1956 No. 1813

The Airways Corporations (Members Pensions) Regulations, 1956

Made - - - - 14*th November,* 1956
Coming into Operation 21*st November,* 1956

The Minister of Transport and Civil Aviation in exercise of his powers under section 21 of the Air Corporations Act, 1949(a), as extended by section 2 of the Air Corporations Act, 1953(b), and of all other powers him enabling in that behalf hereby makes the following Regulations:—

1.—(1) These Regulations shall come into operation on the twenty-first day of November, 1956, and may be cited as the Airways Corporations (Members Pensions) Regulations, 1956.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(c), shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. Where a person being a full time member of either of the air corporations is a person who was at the date of his appointment as a member of the corporation an employee of that corporation in respect of whose service benefits are provided by a pension scheme made under section 21 of the Air Corporations Act, 1949, his service as such a member shall be treated for the purposes of the scheme as if it were service as such an employee.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Transport and Civil Aviation this fourteenth day of November, 1956.

(L.S.) C. W. Evans,
An Under Secretary of the Ministry of Transport and Civil Aviation.
