The Aliens (Approved Ports) Order, 1950

1950 No. 1374

Made - - - - 14*th August,* 1950
Coming into Operation 1*st September,* 1950

Whereas it is provided by paragraph (3) of Article 2 of the Aliens Order, 1920(a), that the Secretary of State may by order add any port to the list of approved ports, being ports approved for the purposes of that Order, or remove any port from that list:

Now I, in pursuance of the power conferred upon me by the said paragraph (3), hereby order as follows:—

1. There shall be removed from the list of approved ports the undermentioned airport, namely—

Belfast Harbour.

2. There shall be added to the list of approved ports the undermentioned airports, namely—

Birmingham (Elmdon)

Newcastle (Woolsington).

3.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Aliens (Approved Ports) Order, 1950.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the first day of September, 1950.

J. Chuter Ede,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

The Aliens (Landing Conditions) Instrument, 1950

1950 No. 1963

Made - - - - 8*th December,* 1950

Whereas certain aliens (hereinafter referred to as "the first class of alien") were granted leave to land in the United Kingdom and there was attached to the grant of that leave the condition that they should register at once with the police, should enter such employment as might be specified by the Ministry of Labour and National Service and should not leave that employment without the consent of that Ministry, but there was not attached as aforesaid any condition limiting the period during which they might remain in the United Kingdom, and the said condition regarding employment is still in force:

(a) S.R. & O. 1920 (No. 448) I, p. 138.

And Whereas certain other aliens (hereinafter referred to as " the second class of alien ") were granted leave as aforesaid and there was attached to the grant of that leave the condition that they should register at once with the police, should enter domestic employment in a hospital or similar institution specified by the Ministry of Labour and National Service, should not take other employment without permission of that Ministry and should not remain in the United Kingdom for longer than twelve months, and the said condition was subsequently varied so as to require only that the aliens should not leave their employment without the consent of the said Ministry, which condition as so varied is still in force:

And Whereas it is expedient that the aforesaid condition now in force in relation to members of the first class of alien should be revoked, if they were first granted leave to land in the United Kingdom subject to that condition before the second day of January, 1948, with effect from the first day of January, 1951, and, if they were first granted leave as aforesaid after the first day of January, 1948, with effect from the day on which three years will have elapsed since they were first granted leave to land as aforesaid and that the aforesaid condition now in force in relation to members of the second class of alien should be revoked with effect from the first day of January, 1951:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power conferred upon me by Article 17 of the Aliens Order, 1920(a), as subsequently amended, I hereby revoke—

(a) in the case of each member of the first class of alien, the aforesaid condition—

(i) where the date on which the alien was first granted leave to land in the United Kingdom subject to that condition was before the second day of January, 1948, with effect from the first day of January, 1951;

(ii) where the date on which the alien was first granted leave as aforesaid was after the first day of January, 1948, with effect from the date on which three years will have elapsed since the alien was first granted leave as aforesaid;

(b) in the case of each member of the second class of alien, the aforesaid condition with effect from the first day of January, 1951.

This Instrument may be cited as the Aliens (Landing Conditions) Instrument, 1950.
