1960 No. 828

The Aliens (Landing Conditions) Order, 1960

Made - - - - 4th May, 1960

In pursuance of the power conferred upon me by paragraph (3) of Article 5 of the Aliens Order, 1953(a), I hereby make the following Order :—

1. In the case of the following class of aliens, that is to say, aliens who before the date of this Order have been granted leave to land in the United Kingdom subject to the condition that they should not enter employment paid or unpaid without the consent of the Ministry of Labour and National Service, whether or not that condition was associated with the condition that they should register at once with the police, but subject to no other condition whatsoever, the said condition regarding employment is hereby revoked.

2. This Order may be cited as the Aliens (Landing Conditions) Order 1960.

R. A. Butler,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
