(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

At present Article 22 (2) of the Aliens Order, 1920, provides that aliens in the armed forces of a foreign Power engaged, in alliance with His Majesty, in any war in which His Majesty is also engaged shall, subject to any direction of the Secretary of State, be deemed not to be aliens for the purposes of any provision having effect by virtue of that Order. The present Order abolishes this exemption and substitutes a similar exemption in favour of aliens in the armed forces of the foreign Powers named in the Order.
