At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of November, 1953

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in pursuance of section one of the Aliens Restriction Act, 1914(a), as amended by the Aliens Restriction (Amendment) Act, 1919(b), and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

LANDING AND EMBARKATION

Restrictions on landing and embarkation

1.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, an alien shall not land or embark in the United Kingdom except with the leave of an immigration officer, and shall not so land or embark elsewhere than at an approved port or at such other place as an immigration officer may in any particular case allow.

(2) In this Order "land" and "embark" mean respectively land from and embark in a ship or aircraft, and except where the context otherwise requires any reference in this Order to landing or embarking shall be construed as including a reference to attempting to land or embark.

(3) The Secretary of State shall by order designate the ports which are to be approved ports for the purposes of this Order; and any such order may specify in respect of any port so designated the limits of that port as an approved port.

Exception for certain aliens landing temporarily

2.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this Article, leave to land shall not be required under Article 1 of this Order—

(a) in the case of an alien being a member of the crew of a ship at a port in the United Kingdom who lands (otherwise than after being discharged or for discharge) at any time while the ship remains at that port and leaves that port with the ship; or

(a) 4 & 5 Geo. 5. c. 12. (b) 9 & 10 Geo. 5. c. 92.

(b) in the case of an alien who lands from an aircraft at an approved port for the purpose only of embarking in an aircraft at the same port, and remains, throughout the period between his landing and embarkation, within such premises or limits as may be approved for the purpose by an immigration officer.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in paragraph (1) of this Article, an immigration officer may at any time—

(a) give notice to an alien who is for the time being on board a ship or aircraft prohibiting him from landing without leave thereunder; or

(b) grant or refuse leave to land to an alien who is within the United Kingdom after landing without leave thereunder; and thereupon the said paragraph (1) shall cease to apply to the alien.

Provisions as to travellers within the common travel area

3.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this Article, the restrictions imposed by Article 1 of this Order shall not apply in the case of an alien landing from a ship or aircraft coming from a place in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or the Republic of Ireland (in this Order collectively referred to as the common travel area) or embarking in a ship or aircraft bound for such a place.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in paragraph (1) of this Article, the said restrictions shall apply in the case of an alien landing from an aircraft coming from a place in the Republic of Ireland if the alien entered that Republic in the course of his journey to the United Kingdom in an aircraft not coming from a place in the common travel area, and did not obtain leave to land in that Republic under the law in force there.

(3) Where an alien who lands in the United Kingdom on any occasion without the leave of an immigration officer in accordance with this Article is a person who last entered the common travel area, when coming from a place outside that area, by landing in the Republic of Ireland, Part I of the First Schedule to this Order shall (subject to Part II of that Schedule and to paragraph (4) of this Article) apply to him in respect of his landing on that occasion.

(4) In determining for the purpose of paragraph (3) of this Article the time when an alien last entered the common travel area, no account shall be taken of any occasion on which leave to land was refused to him under this Order, or on which he landed without such leave in accordance with Article 2 of this Order; and notwithstanding anything in the said paragraph (3), Part I of the First Schedule to this Order shall not apply to an alien in respect of his landing on any occasion upon which he is authorised to land without such leave by the said Article 2 as well as by this Article.

Restrictions on grant of leave to land

4.—(1) Except with the authority of the Secretary of State, an immigration officer shall not grant leave to an alien to land in the United Kingdom unless the alien—

(a) is in a position to support himself and his dependants (if any) in the United Kingdom; and

(b) where he proposes to enter the employment of a particular employer in the United Kingdom, produces a permit in writing for his engagement issued to that employer by the appropriate authority as defined by this Article.

(2) Except with the authority aforesaid, an immigration officer shall not grant leave to an alien to land in the United Kingdom—

(a) if the alien has been sentenced in a foreign country for any extradition crime within the meaning of the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1935;

(b) if the alien is a person of unsound mind or a mentally defective person; or

(c) if it is certified by a medical inspector that it is undesirable for medical reasons that the alien should be permitted to land.

(3) For the purposes of this Article "the appropriate authority" means, in relation to employment in Great Britain the Minister of Labour and National Service, and in relation to employment in Northern Ireland the Ministry of Labour and National Insurance for Northern Ireland.

Landing conditions

5.—(1) Leave to land may be granted to an alien under this Order subject to any conditions (in this Order referred to as landing conditions) of which notice is given to the alien by the immigration officer.

(2) In the case of an alien who is a member of a party in the charge of a responsible person, notice of any landing conditions subject to which leave to land is granted shall be deemed to be given to the alien if it is given in writing to the person in charge of the party.

(3) The Secretary of State may at any time by notice in writing given to any particular alien, or by order applying to aliens of any specified class, revoke or vary in such manner as he thinks fit any landing conditions for the time being in force in the case of that alien, or of aliens of that class, as the case may be.

(4) Any landing conditions imposed by virtue of this Article in the case of an alien who lands in the United Kingdom on any occasion shall cease to apply to the alien if he subsequently enters any country outside the common travel area.

(5) Except as provided by paragraph (4) of this Article, the application to an alien, while within the United Kingdom, of any such landing conditions as aforesaid shall not be affected by the fact that the alien has left and re-entered the United Kingdom; and without prejudice to the foregoing provision, where any such condition limits the period during which the alien may remain in the United Kingdom, he shall be deemed to contravene that condition if he is found in the United Kingdom at any time after the expiration of that period, unless the said condition has ceased to apply to him under the said paragraph (4).

Landing conditions imposed in Channel Islands or Isle of Man

6.—(1) Where an alien to whom leave to land in any of the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man has been granted under the law in force there subsequently enters the United Kingdom, not having in the interval entered any country outside the common travel area, any conditions of leave to land for the time being applicable to the alien under the said law in respect of his landing as aforesaid shall apply to him while within the United Kingdom as if they were landing conditions imposed under Article 5 of this Order; and all provisions of this Order relating to such conditions shall have effect accordingly.

(2) In the application for the purposes of this Order of any condition limiting the period during which an alien may remain in any of the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, as the case may be, the condition shall be treated as if it provided that the alien shall not remain in the United Kingdom after the expiration of the period limited by the condition.

(3) Where any such conditions as are mentioned in paragraph (1) of this Article have been revoked or varied by the Secretary of State under Article 5 of this Order, the revocation or variation shall have effect for the purposes of that paragraph on any subsequent occasion on which the alien enters the United Kingdom, and the reference in that paragraph to conditions for the time being applicable to him under the law therein mentioned shall be construed accordingly.

Identification and examination of persons landing and embarking

7.—(1) Subject to paragraph (5) of this Article, every person of or over the age of sixteen years who lands or embarks in the United Kingdom shall, if so required by an immigration officer, produce to that officer—

(a) in every case, either a valid passport furnished with a photograph of himself or some other document satisfactorily establishing his identity and nationality;

(b) if he is an alien, a landing or embarkation card in the form prescribed by order of the Secretary of State (to be supplied for the purpose by the owners or agents of the ship or aircraft concerned) duly completed.

(2) Subject to the said paragraph (5), an immigration officer may examine any person seeking to land or embark in the United Kingdom, for the purpose of ascertaining whether that person is or is not an alien and, in the case of an alien, for the purpose of determining whether leave to land or embark should be granted to him under this Order; and it shall be the duty of every such person to furnish to an immigration officer such information as that officer may require for the purpose of his functions under this paragraph.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in Article 1 of this Order, an alien may land, without the previous grant of leave to land, for the purpose of examination under this Article in accordance with arrangements in that behalf approved by an immigration officer, and if he submits himself forthwith to such examination shall be deemed for the purposes of this Order not to have landed unless and until such leave is granted to him; and an alien who lands as aforesaid may be detained, pending and during the examination, under the authority of an immigration officer.

(4) The powers of an immigration officer under paragraph (2) of this Article may be exercised also, in respect of an alien seeking to land, by a medical inspector, and references in that paragraph and in paragraph (3) of this Article to examination shall be construed accordingly.

(5) This Article shall not apply to any person landing or seeking to land from a ship coming from a place in the common travel area or from an aircraft coming from a place in that area other than the Republic of Ireland, or embarking or seeking to embark in a ship or aircraft bound for a place in that area; and shall not apply to a person landing or seeking to land from an aircraft coming from a place in the Republic of Ireland unless that person—

(a) entered that Republic in the course of his journey to the United Kingdom in an aircraft not coming from a place in the common travel area ; and

(b) did not obtain leave to land in that Republic under the law in force there.

Removal of aliens refused leave to land

8.—(1) Where leave to land is refused to an alien, an immigration officer may, subject to paragraph (2) of this Article, give directions—

(a) to the master of the ship or commander of the aircraft in which the alien arrived in the United Kingdom, requiring him to remove the alien from the United Kingdom in that ship or aircraft ;

(b) to the owners or agents of the said ship or aircraft, requiring them to remove the alien from the United Kingdom in any ship or aircraft specified in the directions, being a ship or aircraft of which they are the owners or agents ;

(c) to the said owners or agents, requiring them to make arrangements for the removal of the alien from the United Kingdom in any ship or aircraft bound for a country specified in the directions, being either—

(i) a country of which the alien is a national or in which he embarked for the United Kingdom ; or

(ii) a country to which there is reason to believe that the alien will be admitted, and for securing him a passage to that country.

(2) No directions shall be given under this Article in respect of an alien after the expiration of two months from the date on which he last arrived in the United Kingdom.

(3) An alien in respect of whom directions are given under paragraph (1) of this Article may be placed, under the authority of an immigration officer, on board any ship or aircraft in which he is to be removed in accordance with the directions.

(4) An alien to whom leave to land is refused may be detained, under the authority of an immigration officer, pending the giving of directions in his case under paragraph (1) of this Article and pending his removal in pursuance of directions so given ; and where any such alien is on board a ship or aircraft he may, under the like authority, be removed therefrom for detention under this paragraph.

Removal of aliens landing unlawfully, etc.

9.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this Article, Article 8 of this Order shall apply to any alien who—

(a) is found in the United Kingdom after landing without leave in contravention of this Order, or after landing without leave in any of the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man in contravention of the law in force there, and not having in the interval entered any country outside the common travel area ;

(b) having landed in the United Kingdom from a ship in which he was a member of the crew with leave to land granted subject to a landing condition requiring him to leave the United Kingdom in a specified ship, or requiring him to leave the United Kingdom within a specified period in accordance with arrangements for his repatriation, fails to comply with that condition, or is reasonably suspected of intending so to fail ; or

(c) having landed at a port in the United Kingdom without the leave of an immigration officer in accordance with Article 2 of this Order from a ship in which he was a member of the crew, fails to leave that port with the ship in accordance with paragraph (1) (a) of that Article, or is reasonably suspected of intending so to fail, as if he were an alien to whom leave to land is refused.

(2) In relation to an alien to whom paragraph (1) of this Article applies, being an alien who landed in the United Kingdom from a ship in which he was a member of the crew or a stowaway, the said Article 8 shall apply as if paragraph (2) of that Article were omitted and as if the countries mentioned in paragraph (1) (c) included the country in which the alien was engaged or stowed away, as the case may be.

Returns to be made by masters of ships and commanders of aircraft

10.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article, the master of a ship at a port in the United Kingdom (not being a ship coming from or bound for a place in the common travel area) shall—

(a) if so required by an immigration officer, furnish to that officer a list of the names and nationalities of all passengers arriving or intending to travel on board the ship ; and

(b) within twelve hours after the arrival of the ship at the port furnish to an immigration officer a return in the form prescribed by order of the Secretary of State containing particulars of any members of the crew arriving in the ship who are aliens or were engaged outside the United Kingdom.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Article, the commander of an aircraft at a port in the United Kingdom (not being an aircraft coming from a place in the common travel area other than the Republic of Ireland, or bound for a place in that area) shall—

(a) if so required by an immigration officer, furnish to that officer a list of the names and nationalities of all passengers arriving or intending to travel on board the aircraft ; and

(b) as soon as practicable after the arrival of the aircraft at the port, furnish to an immigration officer a list of the names and nationalities of all members of the crew arriving in the aircraft who are aliens.

(3) In relation to an aircraft coming from a place in the Republic of Ireland, paragraph (2) of this Article shall have effect as if for the reference in sub-paragraph (a) to all passengers arriving on board the aircraft there were substituted a reference to any passengers so arriving being aliens to whom paragraph (2) of Article 3 of this Order applies, and as if sub-paragraph (b) were omitted.

(4) An immigration officer may in any particular case by notice given to the master of a ship or commander of an aircraft dispense with the furnishing of the return required under this Article in respect of members of the crew of that ship or aircraft.

(5) Any passenger in a ship or an aircraft shall furnish to the master of the ship or the commander of the aircraft, as the case may be, any information required by him for the purpose of furnishing a return under this Article.

Other duties of masters of ships and commanders of aircraft

11.—(1) The master of a ship or commander of an aircraft arriving at a port in the United Kingdom shall take such steps as may be necessary for preventing any person subject to examination under Article 7 of this Order from landing from the ship or aircraft until that person has been examined under that Article, or lands for examination in accordance with arrangements approved thereunder.

(2) The master of a ship or commander of an aircraft at a port in the United Kingdom shall, if so required by an immigration officer, take such steps as may be necessary for preventing—

(a) any alien arriving in the ship or aircraft to whom leave to land has been refused ;

(b) any alien placed on board the ship or aircraft under paragraph (3) of Article 8 of this Order, or under that paragraph as applied by Article 9 of this Order, from landing while the ship or aircraft remains at the port.

(3) The master of a ship at a port in the United Kingdom shall, if so required by an immigration officer, take such steps as may be necessary for preventing any alien member of the crew (being an alien in whose case notice has been given by an immigration officer under paragraph (2) of Article 2 of this Order prohibiting the alien from landing without leave) from landing while the ship remains at the port except in accordance with leave to land.

(4) For the purpose of preventing any person from landing as mentioned in this Article, the master of a ship or commander of an aircraft may detain that person in custody on board the ship or aircraft.

Disclosure of documents by aliens landing and embarking

12.—(1) Any alien landing or embarking in the United Kingdom (not being an alien who, under Article 3 of this Order, may land or embark, as the case may be, without leave) shall, on being required so to do by an immigration officer or constable,—

(a) declare whether or not he is carrying or conveying any documents ;

(b) produce to the officer or constable any documents which he is carrying or conveying ;

and an immigration officer or constable may search any such alien and any baggage belonging to him or under his control with a view to ascertaining whether the alien is carrying or conveying any documents, and may examine, and may detain for such time as he thinks proper for the purpose of examination, any documents produced to him or found on such a search.

(2) In this Article " documents " means letters, memoranda, plans, photographs, pictorial representations and other written matter of any description.

REGISTRATION

Registers of aliens

13.—(1) There shall be provided and maintained under the control of the Secretary of State a central register of aliens in which there shall be registered such particulars as the Secretary of State thinks fit.

(2) For the purposes of this Order the chief officer of police of each police area shall be the registration officer for that area, and the police area shall be the registration district.

(3) Every registration officer shall keep for his registration district a local register of aliens containing the particulars specified in the Second Schedule to this Order, and shall—

(a) furnish to the Secretary of State, at such times and in such form as may be required by the Secretary of State, such information as may be so required as to particulars contained in that register; and

(b) supply certificates of registration to aliens of whom particulars are entered in that register, upon payment of such fee as may be prescribed by order of the Secretary of State.

(4) Anything required or authorised by this Order to be done by or to a registration officer may be done by or to any constable or other person who is authorised by that officer to act for the purposes of this Order.

Duty of aliens to register on entry, etc.

14.—(1) Subject to Article 15 of this Order, every person who—

(a) being an alien of or over the age of sixteen years, enters the United Kingdom on any occasion;

(b) being an alien within the United Kingdom, attains the said age or, having previously been exempted from this Article (otherwise than by reason of his age), ceases to be so exempted; or shall forthwith comply with paragraph (2) of this Article.

(c) being of or over the said age, becomes an alien while in the United Kingdom,

(2) Every such alien as aforesaid shall attend at the office of a registration officer (being, in the case of an alien who has a residence in the United Kingdom, the registration officer of the registration district in which that residence is situated), and furnish to that officer such information, documents and other particulars as are required for the purposes of the local register kept by that officer and for the purpose of the issue of a registration certificate in respect of the alien, and in particular shall either—

(a) produce to that officer a passport furnished with a photograph of himself or some other document satisfactorily establishing his identity and nationality; or

(b) give to that officer a satisfactory explanation of the circumstances which prevent him from producing such a passport or document.

(3) If the registration officer is uncertain what nationality (if any) is to be ascribed to an alien by whom particulars are furnished under this Article, he may describe the alien in the local register, and in any registration certificate supplied to the alien, as being of uncertain nationality or of such nationality as appears to the officer to be the probable nationality of the alien.

Exemption from and postponement of registration in certain cases

15.—(1) An alien shall not be required to attend and furnish particulars under paragraph (2) of Article 14 of this Order by reason of his entering the United Kingdom on any occasion—

(a) if he is resident in the United Kingdom immediately before his entry, and has previously furnished particulars under that paragraph;

(b) if, being a member of the crew of a ship at a port in the United Kingdom, he enters by landing without leave in accordance with Article 2 of this Order, and leaves the port with the ship.

(2) Without prejudice to paragraph (1) of this Article, an alien shall not be required to attend and furnish particulars under the said paragraph (2) by reason of his entering the United Kingdom on any occasion until the expiration of three months after his entry, unless he is required by landing conditions to comply with the said paragraph (2) forthwith, or is an alien to whom paragraph 1 of the First Schedule to this Order applies in respect of his landing on that occasion.

Duty to notify changes of residence, address, etc.

16.—(1) Every alien who has furnished particulars under Article 14 of this Order and who for the time being has a residence in the United Kingdom shall, on effecting a change of residence within the United Kingdom, report his arrival at his new residence to the registration officer of the district in which that residence is situated within seventy-two hours after his arrival.

(2) Where any such alien as aforesaid, without effecting a change of residence within the United Kingdom, is absent from his residence therein for a continuous period exceeding two months, he shall—

(a) if he is within the United Kingdom at the expiration of two months from the time when he left his said residence, forthwith give notice in writing to the registration officer of the registration district in which his said residence is situated, specifying his address for the time being ;

(b) from time to time give the like notice of any address within the United Kingdom which he may subsequently have during his absence ; and

(c) on returning to his said residence (whether he has left the United Kingdom during his absence or not), give the like notice of his return.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4) of this Article, every alien who has furnished particulars under the said Article 14 and who has for the time being no residence in the United Kingdom shall—

(a) if he goes from one registration district to another and remains in the latter district for more than seventy-two hours, report forthwith to the registration officer of that district ;

(b) if he moves from one address to another within the same registration district, give notice of his new address within seventy-two hours after his arrival to the registration officer of that district.

(4) If an alien who for the time being has no residence in the United Kingdom supplies to a registration officer the name and address of a referee, being a person resident within the United Kingdom who in the opinion of that officer is a suitable person to act as referee under this paragraph, the officer shall enter the name and address of the referee in the alien's registration certificate ; and in any such case the following provisions shall apply in substitution for the provisions of paragraph (3) of this Article, that is to say :—

(a) the alien shall keep the referee informed as to his address from time to time, and shall notify the said officer of any change of the address of the referee ; and

(b) the referee shall, if so required by a registration officer, furnish to that officer any information in his possession as to the alien which is required by that officer for the purpose of his duties under this Order.

Supplementary provisions as to registration

17.—(1) Every alien who has furnished particulars under Article 14 of this Order shall—

(a) within seventy-two hours after the occurrence of any event affecting the accuracy of any particulars entered in his registration certificate (other than particulars specified in paragraphs 7 to 10 of the Second Schedule to this Order), give notice thereof to a registration officer (being, in the case of an alien who has a residence in the United Kingdom, the registration officer of the registration district in which that residence is situated); and

(b) if so required by a registration officer, supply to that officer any information (including, where so required, a recent photograph of himself) which may be necessary for maintaining the accuracy of the local register.

(2) On the making of any alteration or addition in the local register in respect of an alien, the alien shall, if so required by the registration officer, produce his registration certificate in order that any necessary alteration or addition may be made therein.

(3) An alien required under Article 14 of this Order or under this Article to furnish a photograph of himself for the purpose of paragraph 16 of the Second Schedule to this Order shall furnish two copies of the same photograph; and if he fails to furnish such a photograph in accordance with this paragraph, the registration officer may cause him to be photographed for the purpose.

Production of registration certificates, etc.

18.—(1) Every alien shall, on demand made at any time by any immigration officer or constable, either produce to the officer or constable—

(a) if the alien has furnished particulars under Article 14 of this Order, his registration certificate;

(b) if the alien has not furnished such particulars, a passport containing a photograph of himself or some other document satisfactorily establishing his identity and nationality, or give to the officer or constable a satisfactory reason for not producing such a registration certificate, passport or other document as aforesaid.

(2) If an alien fails on any occasion to comply with paragraph (1) of this Article, he may (without prejudice to the taking of any proceedings against him in respect of the failure) be detained pending the making of inquiries as to his identity and nationality.

Hotel registers

19.—(1) The keeper of any premises to which this Article applies shall keep a register relating to all persons (irrespective of their nationality) of or over the age of sixteen years staying at the premises; and shall require all such persons to comply with their obligations under the following provisions of this Article.

(2) Every person of or over the age of sixteen years who stays at any premises to which this Article applies shall—

(a) in every case, on arriving at the premises, enter in the register kept under this Article, or secure that there is entered in that register, his name, nationality and date of arrival;

(b) in the case of an alien, furnish to the keeper of the premises a signed statement in the form set out in the Third Schedule to this Order.

(3) Every register kept or statement furnished under this Article in respect of any premises shall be preserved by the keeper of the premises until the expiration of twelve months from the date when the last entry in the register was made, or from the date when the statement was completed, as the case may be; and any such register or statement shall at all times be open to inspection by any constable or by any person authorised by the Secretary of State.

(4) This Article applies to any premises, whether furnished or unfurnished, where lodging or sleeping accommodation is provided for reward:

Provided that the chief officer of police for any police area may direct that this Article shall not apply to any specified premises within that area, being premises appearing to that officer to be occupied for the purposes of any school, hospital, club or other institution or association.

(5) In this Article "keeper", in relation to any premises, includes any person who for reward receives any other person to stay in the premises, whether on his own behalf or as manager or otherwise on behalf of any other person; and "stay" means lodge or sleep, for one night or more, in accommodation provided for reward.

DEPORTATION

Deportation orders

20.—(1) The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, in any such case as is mentioned in paragraph (2) of this Article make an order (in this Order referred to as a "deportation order") requiring an alien to leave and to remain thereafter out of the United Kingdom.

(2) A deportation order may be made in the case of an alien in the following circumstances, that is to say—

(a) if any court certifies to the Secretary of State that the alien has been convicted either by that court, or by any inferior court from which the case of the alien has been referred for sentence or brought by way of appeal, of any of the offences specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Order and that the court recommends that a deportation order be made in his case; or

(b) if the Secretary of State deems it to be conducive to the public good to make a deportation order against the alien.

(3) Where any case in which a court has made a recommendation for deportation is brought by way of appeal against conviction or sentence before any higher court, and that court certifies to the Secretary of State that it does not concur in the recommendation, that recommendation shall be of no effect, but without prejudice to the power of the Secretary of State to make a deportation order under paragraph (2) (b) of this Article.

(4) Where, in pursuance of the law in force in the Isle of Man, the Governor of the Isle of Man with the approval of the Secretary of State has made an order requiring an alien to leave, and to remain thereafter out of, the Isle of Man, that order shall, unless the Secretary of State otherwise directs, have effect as if it were a deportation order made under this Article; but nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as prohibiting an alien who is required by virtue of such an order to leave the Isle of Man from landing in the United Kingdom on his way from the Isle of Man to a place outside the United Kingdom.

(5) A deportation order made in the case of any person shall continue in force notwithstanding that that person subsequently ceases to be an alien; and for all the purposes of this Order any such person shall be deemed to continue to be an alien.

Removal of aliens subject to deportation orders

21.—(1) An alien in whose case a deportation order has been made may be placed, under the authority of the Secretary of State, on board any ship or aircraft which is about to leave the United Kingdom; and the master of the ship or commander of the aircraft shall, if so required by an immigration officer, take such steps as may be necessary for preventing the alien from landing from the ship or aircraft before it leaves the United Kingdom, and may for that purpose detain the alien in custody on board the ship or aircraft.

(2) The Secretary of State or an immigration officer may give directions to the master of any ship or commander of any aircraft which is about to leave the United Kingdom, requiring him to afford to any alien in whose case a deportation order has been made, and to his dependants (if any), a passage to any port specified in the directions, being a port at which the ship or aircraft is to call in the course of its voyage, and proper accommodation and maintenance during the passage.

(3) The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, apply any money or property belonging to any such alien as aforesaid in payment of the whole or any part of the expenses of or incidental to the voyage from the United Kingdom and the maintenance until departure of the alien and his dependants (if any).

(4) An alien in whose case a deportation order has been made may be detained, under the authority of the Secretary of State, until he is dealt with under paragraph (1) of this Article; and an alien in whose case a recommendation for deportation is in force under Article 20 of this Order shall (unless the court, in a case where the alien is not sentenced to imprisonment, otherwise directs) be detained until the Secretary of State makes a deportation order in his case or directs him to be released.

Special Restrictions and Exemptions

Special restrictions

22. The Secretary of State may by order impose on any particular alien, or upon aliens of any specified class, such special restrictions as to residence, reporting to the police, occupation or employment as he considers necessary in the public interest.

General power to grant exemptions

23. The Secretary of State may direct that any particular person, or persons of any specified class, shall be exempt, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the Secretary of State may impose, from all or any of the provisions of this Order.

Particular exemptions

24.—(1) This Order shall not apply to any person being an envoy of a foreign sovereign Power accredited to Her Majesty, or a member of the household or official staff of such an envoy, or being entitled to the like immunity from suit and legal process as is accorded to such an envoy.

(2) An alien who is a British protected person shall be deemed not to be an alien for the purposes of this Order.

(3) Except so far as the Secretary of State may otherwise direct in any particular case, an alien who for the time being—

(a) is subject to service law as a member of any of Her Majesty's naval, military or air forces, or of the naval, military or air forces of India ; or

(b) is serving in the United Kingdom as a member of any of the armed forces of Belgium, Denmark, France, Iceland, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal or the United States of America, and is neither on leave for a period exceeding twenty-one days nor absent without leave, shall be deemed not to be an alien for the purposes of this Order.

(4) In this Article "service law" means the Naval Discipline Act, military law or the Air Force Act, or any corresponding enactment or law applicable to the forces of any Commonwealth country.

OFFENCES AND PROCEEDINGS

Offences

25.—(1) If any person acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, any provision of this Order or of any order made or conditions imposed or directions given thereunder, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Order.

(2) If any person aids or abets any person in the commission of an offence against this Order, or knowingly harbours any person whom he knows or has reasonable grounds for believing to have committed such an offence, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Order ; and where an alien lands or embarks in contravention of this Order, the master of the ship or the commander of the aircraft, as the case may be, from which he lands or on which he embarks shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have aided and abetted the contravention.

(3) If any person—

(a) makes or causes to be made to any officer or person lawfully acting in the execution of this Order any false return, false statement or false representation ; or

(b) refuses to produce to any such officer or person any document, or to furnish him with any information, which the said officer or person may reasonably require for the purposes of this Order, or otherwise obstructs any officer or person in the exercise of his functions under this Order; or

(c) without lawful authority, alters any certificate or document issued or made under this Order, or uses for the purposes of this Order, or has in his possession for such use, any forged, altered or irregular certificate, passport, visa or other document, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Order.

(4) Any powers exercisable under this Order in the case of an alien may be exercised notwithstanding that proceedings for an offence against this Order have been taken against the alien.

Penalties and proceedings

26.—(1) Any person guilty of an offence against this Order is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, and the court by which he is convicted may either in addition to or in lieu of any such punishment require him to enter into recognizances, with or without sureties, to comply with the provisions of this Order or such provisions thereof as the court may direct.

(2) If any person fails to comply with an order of a court requiring him to enter into recognizances under paragraph (1) of this Article, that court, or any magistrates' court sitting for the same place, may commit him to prison for a term not exceeding six months.

(3) For the purpose of the trial of a person for any offence against this Order the offence shall be deemed to have been committed either at the place at which it actually was committed or at any place in which the offender may be.

(4) Except with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions, proceedings shall not be taken against any person other than an alien for an offence under paragraph (2) of Article 19 of this Order, or for any offence under paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) of Article 25 of this Order in respect of any register or statement required to be kept or furnished under the said Article 19.

(5) Proceedings for an offence against this Order which consists of making or of causing to be made any false return, false statement or false representation may be instituted at any time within two months after the return, statement or representation, as the case may be, was discovered to be false, or within six months after the commission of the offence, whichever period later expires.

(6) An offence against this Order which consists of failure to comply with any of the provisions of Articles 14 to 17 of this Order requiring any particulars to be furnished, or any report or notice to be made or given, shall be deemed for the purposes of this Order to continue so long as the failure continues, whether or not any time is specified at or within which the particulars, report or notice are to be furnished, made or given.

(7) An offence committed by an alien by landing in contravention of Article 1 of this Order shall be deemed for the purposes of this Order to continue throughout any period while the alien is in the United Kingdom thereafter, not having landed in the interval with the leave of an immigration officer.

Proof of instruments

27.—(1) Every document purporting to be an order, direction, notice, authority or other instrument made or issued by the Secretary of State in pursuance of any provision contained in, or having effect under, this Order, and to be signed by him or on his behalf, shall be received in evidence and shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to be an instrument made or issued by him.

(2) Prima facie evidence of any such instrument as aforesaid may in any legal proceedings be given by the production of a document bearing a certificate purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Secretary of State and stating that the document is a true copy of the instrument.

(3) Where such an instrument as aforesaid applies to persons specified in a schedule thereto, prima facie evidence of the provisions of the instrument other than the schedule and of any entry contained in the schedule may in any legal proceedings be given by the production of a document purporting to be signed as aforesaid and stating that the document is a true copy of the said provisions and of the relevant entry.

SUPPLEMENTAL

Arrest and detention

28.—(1) Any person who has committed or is reasonably suspected of having committed an offence against this Order (not being an offence under Article 19, or an offence under paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) of Article 25 in respect of any register or statement required to be kept or furnished under the said Article 19), and any person who may be detained in pursuance of any provision of this Order, may be arrested without warrant by an immigration officer or a constable.

(2) A person detained in pursuance of any provision of this Order (otherwise than on board a ship or aircraft) shall be detained in such place as may be prescribed by order of the Secretary of State; and every person detained in pursuance of any such provision shall, while so detained, be deemed to be in legal custody.

(3) Where an alien is in custody, having been arrested or detained under this Order, any immigration officer, constable or prison officer, or any other person authorised by the Secretary of State to act under this paragraph, may take all such steps as may be reasonably necessary for photographing, measuring or otherwise identifying the alien.

(4) An alien who is detained under this Order, or in pursuance of a sentence or order of any court, may be taken in the custody of a constable to and from any consulate or other place where his attendance is required for the purpose of ascertaining his nationality or of making arrangements for his admission to another country.

Revocation of orders, etc.

29. Any power conferred by this Order to make orders or give directions shall include power to revoke or vary such orders or directions.

Appointment and general powers of officers

30.—(1) Immigration officers for the purposes of this Order shall be appointed by the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of State may arrange with the Commissioners of Customs and Excise for the employment of officers of customs and excise as immigration officers under this Order.

(2) In the performance of their functions under this Order, immigration officers shall act in accordance with such instructions as may be given by the Secretary of State.

(3) Medical inspectors for the purposes of this Order may be appointed by the Minister of Health in pursuance of arrangements made between that Minister and the Secretary of State; and such inspectors shall, in the exercise of their functions under this Order, act in accordance with such instructions as may be given by that Minister in pursuance of such arrangements as aforesaid.

(4) For the purpose of any of his functions under this Order, an immigration officer or medical inspector may board or enter any ship or aircraft.

Interpretation

31.—(1) The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), shall apply for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(2) In this Order the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

"approved port" means a port designated as such under Article 1 of this Order;

"common travel area" has the meaning assigned by Article 3 of this Order;

"deportation order" has the meaning assigned by Article 20 of this Order;

"embark" has the meaning assigned by Article 1 of this Order;

"immigration officer" means an officer appointed or employed as such under Article 30 of this Order;

"land" has the meaning assigned by Article 1 of this Order;

"landing conditions" has the meaning assigned by Article 5 of this Order;

"leave to land", except where the context otherwise requires, means leave to land in the United Kingdom granted under Article 1 of this Order;

"local register" means the register of aliens kept for a registration district under paragraph (3) of Article 13 of this Order;

"medical inspector" means an inspector appointed as such under Article 30 of this Order;

(a) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

" member of the crew ", in relation to a ship or aircraft, means any person actually employed in the working or service of the ship or aircraft, including the master of the ship or the commander of the aircraft ;

" passenger " means any person travelling or seeking to travel on board a ship or aircraft who is not a member of the crew ;

" police area " means any area for which there is a separate police force ; and " chief officer of police " means the chief constable or other officer, by whatever name called, having the chief command of the police force of the area ;

" port " includes any place where a person lands or embarks in the United Kingdom ;

" registration certificate " means a certificate of registration supplied in accordance with paragraph (3) of Article 13 of this Order ;

" registration district " and " registration officer " have the meanings assigned by Article 13 of this Order ;

" ship " includes every description of vessel used in navigation.

(3) Any reference in this Order to a ship or aircraft coming from a place in the common travel area shall be construed as a reference to a ship or aircraft which started its voyage at such a place and has not during the voyage called at any place outside that area ; and any reference to an aircraft not coming from a place in the common travel area shall be construed accordingly.

(4) Any reference in this Order to a ship or aircraft bound for a place in the common travel area shall be construed as a reference to a ship or aircraft which is due to end its voyage at such a place and is not due to call during the voyage at any place outside that area.

Application to Scotland

32. This Order shall have effect, in its application to Scotland, subject to the following modifications, that is to say:—

(a) in paragraphs (1) and (2) of Article 26, for the words " enter into recognizances, with or without sureties " and the words " enter into recognizances " there shall be substituted the words " find caution ", and in paragraph (2) of that Article the words " or any magistrates' court sitting for the same place " shall be omitted ;

(b) in paragraph (3) of Article 30, for references to the Minister of Health there shall be substituted references to the Secretary of State, and the words " in pursuance of arrangements made between that Minister and the Secretary of State " and the words " in pursuance of such arrangements as aforesaid " shall be omitted.

Application to Northern Ireland

33. This Order shall have effect, in its application to Northern Ireland, subject to the following modifications, that is to say:—

(a) the expression " police area " means any county or county borough or other area or combination of areas to which a county inspector of the Royal Ulster Constabulary or a Commissioner of Police or other officer of such Constabulary having the rank of county inspector is assigned; and the expression "chief officer of police" means, in relation to a county borough, the Commissioner of Police for that borough and, in relation to any other police area, the county inspector, or other officer having the rank of county inspector, assigned to that area;

(b) in paragraph (1) of Article 26, the reference to summary conviction shall be construed as a reference to conviction in accordance with the enactments for the time being in force in Northern Ireland relating to summary jurisdiction;

(c) in paragraph (2) of the said Article 26, for the words "any magistrates' court sitting for the same place" there shall be substituted the words "any court of summary jurisdiction sitting for the same petty sessional division";

(d) in paragraph (4) of the said Article 26, for the reference to the Director of Public Prosecutions there shall be substituted a reference to the Attorney General for Northern Ireland;

(e) in paragraph (3) of Article 30, for references to the Minister of Health there shall be substituted references to the Ministry of Health and Local Government for Northern Ireland.

Transitional provisions

34.—(1) In the application to this Order of the Interpretation Act, 1889, section 38 of that Act (which relates to the effect of repeals) shall have effect as if any Order in Council revoked by this Order were an enactment thereby repealed.

(2) Without prejudice to paragraph (1) of this Article, the Fifth Schedule to this Order shall have effect for the purposes of transition to the provisions of this Order from the provisions of the Orders in Council hereby revoked.

Citation, date of operation and revocation

35.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Aliens Order, 1953.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and fifty-four.

(3) Subject to Article 34 of this Order, the Orders in Council specified in the Sixth Schedule to this Order are hereby revoked.

SCHEDULES

FIRST SCHEDULE

Article 3.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO CERTAIN ALIENS ENTERING THROUGH THE REPUBLIC OF IRELAND

PART I

General Provisions

1. An alien to whom this Part of this Schedule applies by virtue of paragraph (3) of Article 3 of this Order shall, forthwith after landing, comply with paragraph (2) of Article 14 of this Order unless he is under the age of sixteen years, or is exempted from such compliance under paragraph (1) of Article 15 of this Order in respect of his landing on that occasion.

2. The alien shall not, except with permission granted by or on behalf of the Secretary of State, remain in the United Kingdom for a period exceeding one month from the date on which he lands.

3. While the alien remains in the United Kingdom after landing, he shall not, except with permission granted by or on behalf of the Secretary of State—

(a) enter into any employment in the service of an employer ; or

(b) become engaged in any business, profession or occupation for reward otherwise than in employment in the service of an employer ; and any permission granted for the purposes of this paragraph may be granted subject to conditions.

4. Where the alien is in possession of a valid passport, issued to him by or on behalf of the government of any country, in which he is described as a national of that country, and either—

(a) the alien is a national of Belgium, Cuba, Denmark, France, Greece, Iceland, Italy, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Monaco, the Netherlands, Norway, San Marino, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey or the United States of America ; or

(b) the passport bears a valid visa for his journey to the United Kingdom (not being a visa containing the words " short visit "), paragraph 1 of this Schedule shall not apply to him (but without prejudice to any requirement imposed in his case by Article 14 of this Order), and paragraph 2 of this Schedule shall apply to him as if for the words " one month " there were substituted the words " three months ".

PART II

Exclusion or modification of Part I upon subsequent re-entry

5. Where an alien to whom Part I of this Schedule applies in respect of his landing on any occasion leaves the United Kingdom and thereafter—

(a) lands in the United Kingdom with the leave of an immigration officer ; or

(b) lands in any of the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man with leave granted under the law in force there, the said Part I shall cease to apply to him in respect of his landing on the first-mentioned occasion.

6.—(1) When an alien to whom the said Part I applies in respect of his landing on any occasion subsequently leaves the United Kingdom and again lands in the United Kingdom in circumstances in which the said Part I applies to him also in respect of the subsequent landing, then—

(a) if not less than one month elapses between the date on which the alien leaves the United Kingdom and the date of the subsequent landing, the period specified in paragraph 2 of this Schedule shall be reckoned from the last-mentioned date only ;

(b) if less than one month elapses as aforesaid, the said period shall continue to be reckoned only from the date from which it falls to be reckoned immediately before the alien leaves the United Kingdom as aforesaid.

(2) In relation to an alien who leaves the United Kingdom on more than one occasion without again landing therein in the interval, the reference in the foregoing sub-paragraph to the date on which he left the United Kingdom shall be construed as a reference to the date on which he left the United Kingdom on the first of those occasions.

7. Except as expressly provided by paragraphs 5 and 6 of this Schedule, the application of Part I of this Schedule to an alien shall not be affected by the fact that the alien has left and re-entered the United Kingdom; and without prejudice to the foregoing provision, an alien to whom paragraph 2 of this Schedule has become applicable shall be deemed to contravene the said paragraph 2 if he is found in the United Kingdom at any time after the expiration of the period allowed by that paragraph (or by that paragraph as modified by paragraph 6 of this Schedule, as the case may be) unless the said Part I has ceased to apply to him under paragraph 5 of this Schedule.

FIFTH SCHEDULE

Article 34

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Preliminary

1. In this Schedule "the Order of 1920" means the Aliens Order, 1920, as for the time being amended by any subsequent Order in Council; and "the commencement date" means the date on which this Order comes into operation.

Article 3 and First Schedule

2. In relation to an alien to whom Article 5A of the Order of 1920 applied immediately before the commencement date in consequence of his having landed in the United Kingdom on any occasion, the First Schedule to this Order shall apply as if he had landed on that occasion without the leave of an immigration officer in accordance with Article 3 of this Order (not being authorised so to land by Article 2 of this Order); and any permission granted by or on behalf of the Secretary of State under the said Article 5A in the case of such an alien shall have effect as if granted under Part I of the said First Schedule.

3. In relation to an alien who, immediately before the 7th day of April, 1952, was in Northern Ireland or the Republic of Ireland and who lands in the United Kingdom, in accordance with the said Article 3, without the leave of an immigration officer (not having previously landed in the United Kingdom since the said 7th day of April), paragraph (3) of the said Article 3 shall apply whether or not the alien last entered the common travel area, when coming from a place outside that area, by landing in the Republic of Ireland.

4. Paragraph (4) of the said Article 3 shall have effect as if the reference therein to an occasion on which leave to land was refused under this Order included a reference to an occasion on which leave to land was refused under the Order of 1920; and for the purpose of the said paragraph (4) a member of the crew of a ship to whom temporary shore leave was granted under the Order of 1920 while his ship was at a port in the United Kingdom shall be treated as if he had landed without leave in accordance with Article 2 of this Order.

Articles 5 and 6

5. In the case of an alien who landed in the United Kingdom at any time before the commencement date with leave granted under the Order of 1920 (not being an alien to whom paragraph 2 of this Schedule applies), any conditions of that leave in force immediately before the commencement date shall continue in force and have effect as if they were landing conditions imposed under Article 5 of this Order on the grant of leave to land under this Order; and all provisions of this Order relating to landing conditions shall apply accordingly.

6. Article 6 of this Order shall not apply to an alien to whom paragraph 2 of this Schedule applies, but subject as aforesaid shall have effect, in relation to an alien who has entered the United Kingdom at any time before the commencement date, as if the reference in paragraph (3) to Article 5 of this Order included a reference to paragraph (4) of Article 1 of the Order of 1920.

Articles 8 and 9

7. Article 8 of this Order shall apply to any alien to whom leave to land in the United Kingdom has been refused before the commencement date under the Order of 1920 as it applies to an alien to whom leave to land is refused under this Order.

8. Paragraph (1) of Article 9 of this Order shall have effect as if—

(a) the reference in sub-paragraph (a) to landing without leave in contravention of this Order included a reference to landing in the United Kingdom without leave in contravention of the Order of 1920;

(b) the reference in sub-paragraph (b) to leave to land included a reference to leave to land in the United Kingdom granted under the Order of 1920; and for the purposes of sub-paragraph (c) of that paragraph an alien member of a crew of a ship to whom temporary shore leave was granted under the Order of 1920 while his ship was at a port in the United Kingdom shall be treated as if he had landed without the leave of an immigration officer in accordance with Article 2 of this Order.

9. Any direction given in the case of an alien before the commencement date under paragraph (5) of Article 3 of the Order of 1920 shall continue in force and have effect as if given under Article 8 of this Order, or under the said Article 8 as applied by Article 9 of this Order, as the case may be.

Article 11

10. Paragraph (2) of Article 11 of this Order shall apply to any alien to whom leave to land in the United Kingdom has been refused before the commencement date under the Order of 1920 as it applies to an alien to whom leave to land has been refused under this Order; and any request for the detention of an alien given by an immigration officer under paragraph (6) of Article 3 of the Order of 1920 shall have effect for the purposes of the said paragraph (2) as a requirement under that paragraph.

Article 13

11. Any register kept by a registration officer under paragraph (2) of Article 8 of the Order of 1920 shall be deemed to form part of the local register to be kept by that officer under Article 13 of this Order, and references in this Order to the local register shall be construed accordingly.

Articles 14 to 18

12. Article 14 of this Order shall have effect as if the persons described in paragraph (1) of that Article included any alien who is within the United Kingdom on the commencement date, being an alien—

(a) who had become liable to furnish particulars under paragraph (1) (a) of Article 6 of the Order of 1920 before that date but had not furnished such particulars; or

(b) who would have become so liable apart from paragraph (4) of the said Article 6:

Provided that no such alien as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph shall be required by virtue of this paragraph to attend and furnish particulars under the said Article 14 until the time at which he would have been required to furnish particulars under paragraph (1) (a) of Article 6 of the Order of 1920 if that Order had not been revoked.

13. In Articles 16 to 18 of this Order, references to an alien who has furnished particulars under Article 14 of this Order, and to a registration certificate, shall include respectively references to an alien who, before the commencement date, had furnished particulars under sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1) of Article 6 of the Order of 1920, and to a registration certificate obtained under sub-paragraph (e) of that paragraph; and where any such alien as aforesaid had, before the said date, supplied to a registration officer the name and address of a British subject for the purposes of the proviso to paragraph (2) of the said Article 6, paragraph (4) of Article 16 of this Order shall apply as if the name and address of the said British subject had been entered as a referee in the alien's registration certificate in accordance with that paragraph.

Article 19

14. Paragraph (3) of Article 19 of this Order shall apply to any statement furnished or register kept under Article 7 of the Order of 1920 as it applies to a statement furnished or register kept under the said Article 19.

Articles 20 and 21

15. Any deportation order made in respect of an alien under Article 12 of the Order of 1920, and any order having effect as if it were a deportation order so made, shall, if in force immediately before the commencement date, continue in force and have effect as if it were a deportation order made under Article 20 of this Order; and for the purposes of Articles 20 and 21 of this Order, any certificate given by a court before the commencement date in respect of an alien under paragraph (6) of Article 12 of the Order of 1920 shall have effect as if it were a certificate given under paragraph (2) of the said Article 20.

Articles 22 to 24

16. Any special restrictions imposed by order of the Secretary of State under Article 11 of the Order of 1920 on any particular alien shall, if in force immediately before the commencement date and if and so far as the like restrictions could be imposed under Article 22 of this Order, continue in force and have effect as if imposed by an order made under the last-mentioned Article.

17. Any direction given by the Secretary of State under Article 14 of the Order of 1920 for exempting any particular person from any of the provisions of that Order shall, if in force immediately before the commencement date, continue in force and have effect as if given under Article 23 of this Order.

Articles 25 to 27

18. In paragraph (3) (c) of Article 25 of this Order references to a certificate or document issued or made in pursuance of this Order shall include references to a certificate or document issued or made in pursuance of the Order of 1920.

19. In paragraph (4) of the said Article 25 the reference to proceedings for an offence against this Order shall include a reference to proceedings for an offence against the Order of 1920.

20. In paragraph (4) of Article 26 of this Order the references to Article 19 of this Order and paragraph (2) of that Article, and to paragraphs (2) and (3) of the said Article 25, shall include references to the corresponding provisions of Articles 7 and 18 of the Order of 1920.

21. Article 27 of this Order shall apply to instruments made or issued by the Secretary of State under the Order of 1920 as it applies to instruments made or issued by him under this Order.

Article 28 etc.

22. In paragraph (1) of Article 28 of this Order references to an offence against this Order shall include references to an offence against the Order of 1920; and references to Article 19 and to paragraphs (2) and (3) of Article 25 of this Order shall include references to the corresponding provisions of Articles 7 and 18 of the Order of 1920.

23. Any alien who immediately before the commencement date was in lawful custody having been detained in pursuance of any provision of the Order of 1920 may continue to be detained under the corresponding provision of this Order; and the provisions of this Order with respect to aliens detained thereunder shall apply to any such alien accordingly.

Article 29

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order prohibits aliens, with certain exceptions, from landing or embarking in the United Kingdom without the leave of an immigration officer and enables conditions to be attached to the grant of leave to land. It contains provisions for registration, control and deportation. The Order is based on the existing Orders in Council listed in the Sixth Schedule, all of which it replaces.
