EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The Aliens (Places of Detention) Order 1970 specifies the places (which include any police station) in which a person may be detained under various provisions of the Aliens Order 1953. Article 3 provides that a person is not to be detained for more than five days elsewhere than in a prison, remand home or remand centre ; and the proviso exempts certain other places of detention from the five day restriction. This Order adds Ealing Police Station, London, to the list of places of detention to which the five day restriction is not to apply.
