ALIENS

DETENTION

The Aliens (Places of Detention) Order 1962

Made - - - -	22nd June 1962
Coming into Operation	1st July 1962

In pursuance of the power conferred upon me by Articles 28 (2) and 29 of the Aliens Order 1953(a), I hereby make the following Order:—

1.—(1) In Article 1 of the Aliens (Places of Detention) Order 1954(b) (which specifies the places in which aliens detained under different provisions of the Order shall be detained)—

(a) in paragraph (b) (which relates to aliens to whom leave to land has been refused), for the words "at that port or any police station or prison" there shall be substituted the words "at any port or any police station, prison, remand home or remand centre";

(b) in paragraph (c) (which relates to aliens who have landed unlawfully in the United Kingdom and to certain alien seamen), for the words "any police station or prison" there shall be substituted the words "any police station, prison, remand home or remand centre";

(c) in paragraph (e) (which relates to aliens in whose case a deportation order or a recommendation made by a court for deportation is in force), for the words "any police station or prison" there shall be substituted the words "any police station, prison, remand home or remand centre".

(2) Paragraph (d) of the said Article 1 is hereby revoked.

2. This Order may be cited as the Aliens (Places of Detention) Order 1962 and shall come into operation on 1st July 1962.

R. A. Butler,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
22nd June 1962.

(b) S.I. 1954/395 (1954 I, p. 120).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Aliens (Places of Detention) Order 1954 specifies the places in which aliens detained under different provisions of the Aliens Order 1953 may be detained. Under the amendments made by this Order, an alien to whom leave to land has been refused may be detained at a place provided for detention at any port instead of only at the port at which he was refused leave to land, and, in cases where detention may be in a police station or prison, provision is now also made for detention in remand homes and remand centres. The revocation effected by Article 1 (2) of this Order is consequential upon the amendment of the Aliens Order 1953 by the Aliens Order 1960 (S.I. 1960/2214 (1960 I, p. 291)) which brought to an end the power under Article 18 of the Order to detain in certain circumstances aliens failing to produce documents of identity.
