CHAPTER xxiii.

A.D. 1882.

An Act for enlarging the Powers of the Corporation of the Borough of Alnwick and for vesting in the Corporation the Forest of Aydon otherwise Haydon or Alnwick Moor in the County of Northumberland and for other purposes.

[19th May 1882.]

WHEREAS the town of Alnwick in the county of Northumberland and parish of Alnwick is or claims to be an ancient borough by prescription and the freemen of the said borough are or claim to be a body corporate by prescription by the name of the Chamberlains Common Council and Freemen of Alnwick;

And whereas eight persons out of the Common Council (which consists of twenty-four of the said freemen including the four chamberlains) are annually returned to the court of the lord of the manor of Alnwick at or soon after Michaelmas in each year and four of the freemen so returned are appointed four chamberlains by the steward of the said court at the Michaelmas court leet;

And whereas by an award of the inclosure of the Forest of Aydon otherwise Haydon or Alnwick Moor situate in the township and manor of Alnwick in the parish of Alnwick in the county of Northumberland under the Acts for the inclosure exchange and improvement of land made by Thomas Bell the valuer in the matter of the said inclosure dated the 27th day of February 1854 and confirmed under the seal of the Inclosure Commissioners on the 2nd day of March 1854 certain lands parts of the said forest or moor were allotted to certain trustees in trust as a class allotment for the benefit of the freemen and the freemen's widows of the borough of Alnwick and the same is now held in trust for the said freemen and freemen's widows;

And whereas it is expedient that the said lands and all rights powers and privileges vested in the trustees of the Forest of Aydon otherwise Haydon or Alnwick Moor should be vested in the Corporation of Alnwick in trust for the purposes aforesaid and that provision should be made for the future constitution of the said

Corporation and the election of the Common Council and chamberlains and for other purposes in connexion with the Corporation;

And whereas in order to the saving of expense and for the better management of the property the said trustees are willing and desirous that the said lands rights powers and privileges should be vested in the Corporation as aforesaid;

And whereas certain schools situated at Alnwick are vested in the said Corporation and it is expedient that they should continue to be so vested and to be maintained in a state of efficiency;

And whereas the same cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament;

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):—

19. An abstract of the accounts when audited shall be printed by the Council and a copy thereof shall on demand within a reasonable time thereafter be supplied by the Council to every freeman and widow of a freeman of the borough and a copy shall be filed by the Council with the clerk of the Council for preservation.

Register of freemen.

20. The Council shall cause a register to be made and kept in which shall be entered the names and addresses of the existing freemen and widows of freemen of the borough and of the persons claiming to be freemen of the borough and to be widows of freemen which shall be open to inspection.

Claims of freemen and widows of freemen.

21. The claims of freemen and widows of freemen to be on such register shall be made in writing in the form A. contained in Part II. of the Schedule to this Act at any time between the first day of February and the first day of March in each year. And a list of such new claims duly signed by the clerk of the Council and dated shall be affixed to the principal door of the Town Hall of the borough.

Objection to freemen and widows of freemen being on register.

22. Any freeman or widow of a freeman may object to the keeping of any name on the register of freemen and widows of freemen by writing in the form B. in Part II. of the Schedule to this Act. Objections to names being retained on the register shall be sent to the clerk of the Council on some one of the first six days of March in each year and an objection sent at any other time shall not be admitted. A person making an objection shall also give written notice thereof to the person objected to by leaving the same at the address within the parish of that person on one of the said first six days of March in each year.

Revision of register of freemen.

23. The clerk of the Council shall between the twentieth day of February and first day of March in each year publish a notice signed by him of the time within which objections are to be made as aforesaid and shall cause a copy of such notice to be inserted in some local newspaper circulating in the borough and to be affixed on the principal door of the Town Hall of the borough. The notice shall be in the form C. in Part II. of the Schedule to this Act. The chamberlains on the expiration of the time for sending in objections shall with the assistance of the clerk of the Council proceed forthwith to revise the register by expunging therefrom the names of all persons who are proved to their satisfaction to be dead or who are not entitled to have their names continued on the register. For the purpose of enabling the chamberlains to determine the validity of objections they may examine such persons on oath and call for such evidence as they may think fit and any person may tender himself to be examined but no person shall be entitled to be examined or to be heard before the chamberlains in support of an objection. In the event of an equality of votes the chamberlain who shall be chairman of the Council shall have a second or casting vote. Not later than the sixteenth day of March the chamberlain shall close the revision and as well as the clerk of the Council sign the revised register which shall continue in force for the twelve months next ensuing.

Publication of revised list of freemen.

24. The chamberlains immediately after the revision of the list has been completed shall cause a list of the names of all new claimants who have been retained on the register as freemen or as the widows of freemen to be made and shall cause copies of the same after being dated and signed as aforesaid to be affixed to the principal door of the Town Hall of the borough.

Costs to be paid by Council.

25. The costs charges and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to preparing and applying for and obtaining and passing of this Act shall be paid by the Council out of any moneys from time to time in their possession or under their control.

SCHEDULE.

PART I.

Rules for the Election of the Council.

1. The Council shall consist of twenty-four persons resident in the parish of Alnwick whose names shall be on the register of freemen of the borough and they shall be elected annually in the month of April by the votes of the freemen and widows of freemen resident in the parish of Alnwick whose names shall also be on the register.

2. The returning officer for the purposes of the election shall be the clerk of the Council appointed under the Act or if the office of clerk should at the time of election be vacant some other person shall be appointed by the Council to exercise and perform the powers and duties of returning officer in regard to the election. Provided always that the returning officer to preside at the first election of the Council held under this Act shall be William Thomas Hindmarsh of Alnwick solicitor or other the senior chamberlain at the time of the passing of this Act.

3. The returning officer shall not less than fourteen days before the last day appointed for delivery to him of nomination papers publish a notice signed by him and specifying—

The number of freemen to be elected.

The place where the nomination papers herein-after mentioned are to be delivered or sent to him.

The last day on which they are to be delivered or sent in.

The mode of voting in case of a contest.

The day on which the voting papers will be delivered and the day on which they will be collected and the day and place for the examination and casting-up of the votes.

And shall also cause a copy of such notice to be affixed on the principal door of the Town Hall of the borough.

4. Any freeman or widow of a freeman entitled to vote may nominate as a member or members of the Council any freeman or freemen resident in the parish of Alnwick whose name or names shall be on the register of freemen of the borough (not exceeding the number of persons to be elected).

5. Every such nomination shall be in writing and shall state the names and residences of the person or persons nominated and shall be signed by the person nominating and shall be delivered or sent to the returning officer.

6. Any person nominated may withdraw from his candidature by giving notice to that effect signed by him to the returning officer.

A.D. 1882.

7. If the number of persons nominated and not withdrawn is the same as or less than the number of persons to be elected such persons shall be deemed and shall be certified by the returning officer under his hand to be elected.

8. If the number nominated and not withdrawn exceeds the number to be elected the returning officer shall cause voting papers in the Form D. in Part II. of the Schedule of this Act to be prepared and filled up and shall insert therein the name and residence of each of the persons nominated and not withdrawn in the alphabetical order of the names of such persons but it shall not be necessary to insert more than once the name of any person nominated.

9. The returning officer shall three days at least before the day of collection of the voting papers cause one of such voting papers to be delivered by persons appointed by him for that purpose at the address stated in the register of each of the freemen and widows of freemen within the parish entitled to vote.

10. Each voter shall write his or her initials in the voting paper delivered to him or her against the name or names of the person or persons (not exceeding the number of persons to be elected) for whom he or she intends to vote and shall sign the voting paper.

11. The returning officer shall cause the voting papers to be collected on the day of the collection (which shall not be later than the fourteenth day of April) by such person as he may appoint.

12. No voting paper shall be received or admitted unless the same has been delivered at the address or residence as aforesaid of the voter nor unless the same is collected by the persons appointed for that purpose. Provided:

(A) That if any person entitled to receive a voting paper has not received a voting paper as aforesaid he shall on personal application before the day of collection to the returning officer be entitled to receive a voting paper from him and to fill up the same in his presence and then and there to deliver the same to him.

(B) That if any voting paper duly delivered has not been collected through the default of the returning officer or the persons appointed to collect the same the voter in person may deliver the same to the returning officer before twelve o'clock at noon on the day or days or on the first day (as the case may be) appointed for the examination and casting up of the votes.

13. If any person nominated or any person on his behalf gives at least one clear day's notice in writing to the returning officer before the delivery or collection of the voting papers of an intention to send some agent to accompany the deliverer or collector of the papers the returning officer shall make his arrangements so as to enable the person appointed by him to be so accompanied but no such agent shall interfere in any respect in the delivery or collection of the voting papers.

14. The returning officer shall on the day immediately following the day of collection of the voting papers and on as many days immediately succeeding as may be necessary attend at the place appointed for the examination and casting up of the votes and ascertain the validity of the votes by an examination of the register of freemen and widows of freemen and such other books and documents as he may think necessary and by examining such persons as he may see fit. He shall cast up such of the votes as he finds to be valid and to have been duly given collected or received and shall ascertain the number of such votes for each candidate.

15. Any candidate may himself attend or may appoint any agent to attend the examination and casting up of the votes. Any candidate or agent so attending who obstructs or in any way interferes with the examination and casting up of the votes may by order of the returning officer be forthwith removed from the place appointed for that purpose and if so removed shall not be permitted to return.

16. The candidates to the number to be elected who being duly qualified have obtained the greatest number of votes shall be deemed and shall be certified by the returning officer under his hand to be elected and to each person so elected the returning officer shall forthwith send or deliver notice of his election.

17. The returning officer shall also cause to be made a list containing the names of the candidates together with (in case of a contest) the number of votes given for each and the names of the persons elected and shall sign and certify such list and shall deliver the same together with the nomination and voting papers which he has received to the Council at their first or next meeting (as the case may be) who shall cause the same to be deposited with their clerk.

18. Such list shall during office hours be open to inspection together with all other documents relating to the election for six months after the election without fee or reward and the returning officer shall as soon as may be after the completion of the election cause such list to be printed and a copy thereof to be affixed on the principal door of the Town Hall of the borough.

19. The returning officer shall make all his arrangements for the conduct of the election so as to ensure its completion and the ascertainment of the result on or before the sixteenth day of April in each year and on that day the candidates elected shall come into office and until that day the members in whose room they are elected shall continue to hold office. Provided that the first election of councilmen under this Act shall be held within forty days after the same shall have received the royal assent and the persons so elected shall come into office on the first Monday after their election shall have been certified by the returning officer and they shall for the purposes of retirement be deemed to have come into office on the sixteenth day of April next after their election. Provided that at the first election as aforesaid the persons qualified to be nominated shall be the freemen whose names are comprised in the list kept by the aforesaid trustees and the persons qualified to vote thereat shall be the freemen and widows of freemen whose names are comprised in such list.

20. Any casual vacancy occurring by death resignation disqualification failure duly to elect members or otherwise shall be filled up by the Council out of qualified persons within six weeks but the member so chosen or any member chosen at an annual election to fill a casual vacancy shall retain his office so long as the vacating member would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

21. Whenever the day appointed for the performance of any act in relation to any election is a Sunday or Good Friday a Bank Holiday or any day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving such act shall be performed on the day next following unless it is one of the days excluded as aforesaid and in that case on the day following such excluded day.

22. The necessary expenses attendant on any election as may be allowed by the Council shall be paid by them out of the funds of the Corporation.

23. Any person who—

Fabricates in whole or in part or alters deface destroys abstracts or purloins any voting papers or

Personates any person entitled to vote at any election or

Falsely assumes to act in the name or on the behalf of any person so entitled to vote or

Interferes with the delivery or collection of any voting papers or

Delivers any voting paper under a false pretence of being lawfully authorised so to do shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds or in the discretion of the court to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding three months.

24. A person shall not act as a member of the Council (except in administering the following declaration) until he has signed before two or more other members of the Council a declaration in writing to the effect following that is to say I having been elected Councillor for the borough of Alnwick do solemnly declare that I am a man of full age not subject to any legal disability and that I [here state the qualification for a freeman of the borough relied on].

I also solemnly declare that I take the said office upon myself and will duly and faithfully fulfil the duties thereof according to the best of my judgment and ability.

Made before us members of the Common Council of the borough of Alnwick this day of 18 .

Such declaration shall be signed by the person making the same and shall be filed and kept by the clerk of the Council and any person who falsely or corruptly makes and subscribes such declaration knowing the same to be untrue in any material particular shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

25. Any person who neglects to make and subscribe the declaration required by the Act for the space of three months next after he has become a member of the Council shall be deemed to have refused to act and shall cease to be a member of the Council and his office as such shall thereupon become vacant.

26. Subject as herein-after mentioned one third of the number of members shall go out of office on the sixteenth day of April in each year.

The order in which the persons elected at the first election shall go out of office shall be regulated by the number of votes of freemen and freemen's widows by which they were respectively elected and the members who had in succession respectively the lowest number of votes shall be the persons to go out of office in each year. If in any case the number of votes shall be equal the member to retire shall be determined by lot and no person elected shall in any case continuously remain in office without re-election for more than three years.

27. On or before the sixteenth day of April in each year a number of persons equal to the number of retiring members shall be elected in manner provided by this Schedule and so many others as may be necessary to complete the full number of the Council in respect of which the election is held: Provided that any casual vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by the elected member or members having the next highest number of votes to the members elected to fill the regular annual vacancies and in the case of more than one casual vacancy the elected member filling each respectively shall be determined by lot.

28. Any person who has ceased to be a member is re-eligible (if qualified).
