Revocations

6. The Control of Iron and Steel (Nos. 62, 65, 67, 69, 79, and 80) Orders, 1948-51(a), shall cease to have effect in relation to pig iron; but any licence with respect to pig iron granted or having effect as if it were granted under those Orders and not having, before the coming into operation of this Order, expired or been revoked, shall have effect as if it were a licence granted under this Order and shall be deemed to have been so granted.

Coming into Operation; Citation

7. This Order shall come into operation on the 4th day of February, 1952; and may be cited as the Pig Iron Distribution Order, 1951.

Dated this 20th day of November, 1951.

Duncan Sandys,
Minister of Supply.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Order consolidates the previously subsisting provisions controlling the acquisition and disposal and the treatment, use and consumption of Pig Iron contained in the Control of Iron and Steel (Nos. 62, 65, 67, 69, 79 and 80) Orders, 1948-51, which Orders are wholly revoked from the 4th February, 1952, by the Iron and Steel Distribution Order, 1951 (S.I. 1951 No. 2006).

The Aluminium Scrap Prices Order, 1951

1951 No. 391

Made - - - -	8*th March*, 1951
Laid before Parliament	10*th March*, 1951
Coming into Operation	12*th March*, 1951

The Minister of Supply in exercise of the powers conferred on him by Regulations 55AA and 55AB of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, as having effect by virtue of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(b) (as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(c), and continued in force by the Supplies and Services (Continuance) Order, 1950(d)), hereby orders as follows:—

Maximum Prices

1.—(1) No person shall buy or sell or agree or offer or invite an offer to buy or sell any material mentioned in the Schedule to this Order, by any purchase or sale thereof for which a scheduled maximum price is in force under this Order: except at a price which is either—

(a) not in excess of that scheduled maximum price; or

(a) S.I. 1948 (No. 81) II, p. 835; S.I. 1948 (No. 1333) II, p. 851; S.I. 1948 (No. 2630) II, p. 852; S.I. 1949 (No. 572) II, p. 578; S.I. 1950 (No. 829) III, p. 771; S.I. 1951 No. 276.
(b) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 10; and S.R. & O. 1945 (Nos. 1618 and 1611) II, pp. 48 and 39.
(c) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 55. (d) S.I. 1950 (No. 1769) III, p. 51.

(b) defined in such a way that it cannot exceed such scheduled maximum price as may be in force under this Order in respect of that purchase or sale of that material at the time of delivery of that material.

Exemption for material situate abroad, and for export

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph (1) of this Article: in any proceedings in respect of any purchase or sale or agreement or offer or invitation of an offer for the purchase or sale of any material in alleged contravention of any provision of that paragraph, it shall be a defence for the defendant to prove either—

(a) that the material was situate outside the United Kingdom at the time at which the purchase or sale or agreement or offer or invitation (as the case may be) was made, or, if the agreement or offer or invitation did not relate exclusively to specific material, that no material situate or to be situate in the United Kingdom at the time of appropriation was or was intended to be appropriated to the agreement or proposed agreement; or

(b) that the material was neither delivered nor intended to be delivered otherwise than for export, that is to say delivered—

(i) outside the United Kingdom, or

(ii) on board a ship or aircraft for exportation to some place outside the United Kingdom.

Sellers to give and preserve Price Records

2.—(1) Every person who sells any material mentioned in the Schedule to this Order shall, within one calendar month of making any delivery of that material, give to the buyer of that material an invoice or other document therefor (i) marked "Aluminium Scrap Prices Orders" (or "ASP Orders"), (ii) describing that material, (iii) stating the price charged for that material, and (iv) if the sale to which the document refers is not a standard type sale, showing how the price for the sale documented is made up.

(2) Every seller who gives an invoice or other document under paragraph (1) of this Article shall at the time of giving it take a copy of it and shall keep and preserve that copy.

Interpretation

3. In and for the purpose of this Order, the expression—

"scheduled maximum price" means in relation to any purchase or sale of any material, the maximum price ascertained for that purchase or sale of that material from the Schedule to this Order in accordance with the "Instructions for Ascertaining Maximum Prices" in that Schedule: and the expression

"standard type sale" means a sale described in the second of the aforesaid "Instructions for Ascertaining Maximum Prices" as "Correct Quality, Basis Delivery", being a sale of material for which a money-figure price is tabled in the aforesaid Schedule.

Coming into operation; Citation

4. This Order shall come into operation on the 12th day of March, 1951; and may be cited as the Aluminium Scrap Prices Order, 1951.

Dated this 8th day of March, 1951.

G. R. Strauss,
Minister of Supply.

THE SCHEDULE

[New Schedule substituted by S.I. 1951 No. 2308 below.]

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Order provides for (i) maximum prices for the aluminium and aluminium alloy scraps specified in the Schedule, and (ii) for documents recording the sales.

The Aluminium Scrap Prices (No. 2) Order, 1951

1951 No. 2308

Made - - - -	24th December, 1951
Laid before Parliament	28th December, 1951
Coming into Operation	1st January, 1952

The Minister of Supply in exercise of the powers conferred on him by Regulations 55AA, 55AB, and 98, of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, as having effect by virtue of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(a) (as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(b), and the Supplies and Services (Defence Purposes) Act, 1951(c), and continued in force by the Supplies and Services (Continuance) Order, 1951(d)), hereby orders as follows:—

Amendment of Principal Order

1. The Principal Order (that is, the Aluminium Scrap Prices Order, 1951(e)) is hereby varied—

(1) in Article 3 thereof, by substituting for everything after the first definition in that Article, the following—

"" standard type sale" means a sale at "Basis—Price, Quality, and Delivery" as described in paragraph (1) of Instruction 2 of the aforesaid "Instructions for Ascertaining Maximum Prices", being a sale the price of which is not ascertained by proportion under paragraph (2) of the said Instruction:

"new" means in relation to any scrap, that the scrap has arisen from the processing or other treatment of unwrought or of semi-fabricated material and that the scrap itself has not been utilized for any purpose since it arose from the operation producing it:

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 10; and S.R. & O. 1945 (Nos. 1618, 1611 and 1625) II, pp. 48, 39 and 56. (b) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 55. (c) 14 & 15 Geo. 6. c. 25.
(d) S.I. 1951 No. 2116, p. 27 above. (e) S.I. 1951 No. 391, p. 483 above.
