Anno quarto

Georgii III. Regis.

CAP. V.

An Act for Naturalizing his Highneſs, Charles William Ferdinand, Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick Lunenburg.

WHEREAS the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, whom God long preſerve, has been pleaſed, to the univerſal Joy and Satisfaction of his People, and for the better ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt in Europe, to give his eldeſt Siſter, her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Auguſta, poſſeſſing the moſt exalted Virtues, and adorned with all poſſible Accompliſhments, in Marriage to his Highneſs Charles William Ferdinand, Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick Lunenburg, diſtinguiſhed by the moſt heroic Qualities, which have, from his early Youth, rendered him illuſtrious over all Europe, and endeared him to this Nation; And whereas a more grateful Proof of the Preamble.

Eſteem and Affection of this Kingdom cannot be given to his Highneſs, than, by an Act of Naturalization, to make him capable of enjoying thoſe Rights and Liberties which are enjoyed in theſe Kingdoms: We therefore, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That his ſaid Highneſs Charles William Ferdinand, Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick Lunenburg, be, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, deemed, taken, and eſteemed, a natural-born Subject of this Kingdom, as if the ſaid Prince had been born within this Realm; any Law, Statute, Matter, or Thing whatſoever, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

His Highneſs, Charles William Ferdinand, Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick Lunenburg, deemed a natural-born Subject.
