ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. C.

An Act for reſpiting certain Fines impoſed on Stills in Ireland. [20th June 1810.]

WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to grant to His Majeſty, Duties upon Spirits made or diſtilled in Ireland from Corn; to allow certain Drawbacks on the Exportation thereof; to make further Regulations for the Encouragement of licenſed Diſtillers, and for amending the Laws relative to the Diſtillery of Ireland; the Operation of certain Acts was ſuſpended for Two Years, ſo far as they impoſed Fines on Pariſhes and Townſhips in Ireland for unlicenſed Stills or Parts of Stills, or Materials for illicit Diſtilling, found on ſuch Lands: And whereas during the Time ſaid Act was paſſing ſimilar Fines may have been impoſed at different Aſſizes in Ireland, which, without the Interference of Parliament, muſt be levied; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all ſuch Fines as may have been impoſed on Pariſhes or Townlands in Ireland on or after the Tenth Day of March in this Year, ſhall be and are hereby reſpited; 50 G 3. c. 15.

Fines impoſed on Pariſhes and Townlands, to be reſpited or reſtored.

Perſons not to be puniſhable for not levying Fines.

reſpited; and that no High Conſtable or other Perſon employed to collect the ſame ſhall ſuffer any Loſs of Salary in conſequence of not having collected or paid in ſuch Fines.
