CAP. LXI.

An Act to admit Sugar without Payment of Duty to be refined for Exportation.

[28th August 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to admit Sugar without Payment of Duty to be refined for Exportation, under the Lock of the Crown; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon the Application to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs of any Person actually carrying on the Business of a Sugar Refiner in the Ports of London, Liverpool, Bristol, Hull, Greenock, or Glasgow, or any other Port to be approved of by any Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, by their Order, to approve of such Premises as Bonded Sugar Houses for the refining of Sugar for Exportation only, on it being made appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that the said Premises are fit in every respect for receiving such Sugars, and wherein the same may be safely deposited.

Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs may approve of Premises for Bonded Sugar Houses.

II. And be it further enacted, That on the Approval of any Premises as Bonded Sugar Houses as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs at the Ports respectively where such Premises are situated to deliver, without Payment of Duty, to the Party

On Approval thereof, Officers of Customs empowered to deliver Sugars

Duty-free, to be there refined for Exportation only.

Party or Parties so applying as aforesaid, on Entry with the proper Officer of Customs, any Quantity of Foreign Sugar, or of Sugar the Produce of any British Possession, for the Purpose of being there refined, under the Locks of the Crown, for Exportation only; and that all Sugars so delivered shall be lodged and secured in such Premises, under such Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time direct: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners by their Order to revoke or alter any former Order of Approval of any such Premises.

Order of Approval may be revoked.

Refiner to give Bond that Sugar received be submitted to Process of Refinement, and afterwards exported, or delivered into Bonded Warehouse.

III. And be it further enacted, That upon the Entry of Sugar to be refined in any Premises approved of under the Authority of this Act, the Refiner on whose Premises the same is to be refined shall give Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Officers of the Customs, in the Penalty of Double the Amount of the Duty payable upon a like Quantity of Sugar of the British Plantations, with a Condition that the whole of such Sugar shall be actually subjected to the Process of Refinement upon the said Premises, and that within Four Months from the Date of such Bond the whole of the Refined Sugar and Treacle produced by such Process shall be either duly exported from the said Premises, or delivered into an approved Bonded Warehouse, under the Locks of the Crown, for the Purpose of being eventually exported to Foreign Parts.
