CAP. XXXII.

An Act to amend an Act to extend the Practice of Vaccination. [21st June 1841.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to extend the Practice of Vaccination; but no express Provision was thereby made for defraying the Expences of carrying the same into execution;' be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be and be deemed to have been lawful for the Guardians of every Parish or Union in England and Ireland, and the Overseers of every Parish in England, by whom the Contracts for Vaccination may respectively be or have been made under the Provisions of the said Act, to defray the Expences incident to the Execution of the said Act out of any Rates or Monies which may come or may have come into their Hands respectively for the Relief of the Poor. 3 & 4 Vict. c. 29. Expences of Vaccination to be defrayed out of the Poor Rates.

II. And be it further declared and enacted, That the Vaccination, or Surgical or Medical Assistance incident to the Vaccination, of any Person resident in any Union or Parish, or of any of his Family, under the said Act, shall not be considered to be Parochial Relief, Alms, or charitable Allowance to such Person, and that no such Person shall by reason of such Vaccination or Assistance be deprived of any Right or Privilege, or be subject to any Disability or Disqualification whatsoever. Vaccination declared not to be Parochial Relief.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to amend the Acts for regulating Turnpike Roads in England, so far as they relate to certain Exemptions from Toll. [21st June 1841.]

'WHEREAS Doubts are entertained whether, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the general Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, and of several other Acts amending the same, Asses, Beasts, or Cattle, other than Horses, or Waggons, Carts, or Vehicles, other than Carriages, which shall only cross any Turnpike Road, or shall not pass above One hundred Yards thereon, are exempted from Tolls:' For the Removal therefore of such Doubts, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Toll shall be demanded 3 G. 4. c. 126. Toll not to be taken for Carts,
