of his qualification to practise the art and science of surgery under the common seal of the said college, on obtaining which he shall become and be constituted a member of the said college, subject to all the regulations, provisions, and byelaws in force for the time being of the said college:

Saving power of council to admit to the fellowship in certain cases.

Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall diminish or affect any power which the council of the said college at the time of passing this Act may have, under any charter, of appointing or electing to be fellows of the said college, without examination, any of the present members of the said college who if this Act had not passed would be or might become eligible, by reason of their standing as members, to be appointed or elected fellows of the said college without examination, or any fellows or members or licentiates respectively of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh, or the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, who shall at the time of passing this Act be in the bonâ fide practice of the profession of a surgeon of England or Wales, and shall have obtained their respective diplomas or licenses after examination:

Byelaws to be approved by the Privy Council.

Provided also, that no byelaw made in pursuance of this Act shall be of any force unless it has the approval of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and that it shall be lawful for said Lords of the Council at any subsequent time, if they shall think fit, to revoke such assent.

Saving rights of the college to admit women to certain examinations.

2. Nothing in this Act contained shall deprive the said college of the right (if any) existing at the passing of this Act, or relieve them from the obligation (if any) existing at the passing of this Act, to admit women to the examinations required for letters testimonial of the college, or for a qualification to be registered under "The Medical Act, 1858," or to grant letters testimonial to any woman who has satisfactorily passed the examinations and fulfilled the other general conditions imposed upon persons seeking to obtain from the said college such letters testimonial or qualification.

Title and construction of Act.

3. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Medical Act, Royal College of Surgeons of England, 1875," and shall be construed as one with the Medical Acts.

CHAPTER 44.

An Act to amend The Constabulary (Ireland) Act, 1874. [19th July 1875.]

WHEREAS by section two of The Constabulary (Ireland) Act, 1874, provision was made for the grant of revised salaries to the members of the constabulary force, and by said section the payment of such revised salaries was limited to the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and it is expedient that such limitation should be repealed and provision should be made for continuing the payment of such revised salaries for a further limited period:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Repeal of part of s. 2. of Constabulary (Ireland) Act, 1874.

Continuance of revised salaries.

1. So much of section two of The Constabulary (Ireland) Act, 1874, as limits to the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five the time during which the revised salaries by the said section authorised shall continue to be paid, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and the said salaries shall, subject to the other provisions of the said section, continue to be paid from and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five until the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven from time to time as and when they shall become due respectively.
