

CHAP. 15.

An Act to amend The Metropolitan Poor Act, 1867. A.D. 1871.

[25th May 1871.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend The Metropolitan Poor Act, 1867:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

The provisions of 30 & 31 Vict. c. 6., &c., applicable to buildings extended to other subjects.

1. That all the provisions of the said Act, as amended by the subsequent Act of 1869, which relate to the procuring of any buildings for the purpose of an asylum under that Act shall apply to any ship, vessel, hut, tent, or other temporary erection which may be used by the managers, with the approval of the Poor Law Board, for the reception of paupers, or otherwise for the purposes of the asylum, whether the same shall have been acquired or used prior to the passing of this Act, or shall be acquired or used hereafter; and such ship, vessel, hut, tent, or other temporary erection shall for all the purposes of the first-mentioned Act be deemed to be an asylum specially provided under it.

Act incorporated with above-recited Act.

2. This Act shall be construed as and shall be taken to be incorporated with the said Metropolitan Poor Act, 1867.
