C A P. XXXVIII.

An Act to continue the General Board of Health.
[17th August 1857.]

WHEREAS by the Act of the Session holden in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-five, "to make better Provision for the Administration of the Laws relating to the Public Health," it was provided, that the General Board of Health should be continued only for One Year next after the Day of the passing of that Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-five, the said Board stands continued for One Year after the Day of the passing of that Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the said Board should be further continued: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

17 & 18 Vict. c. 95.

19 & 20 Vict. c. 85.

Board of Health further continued.

I. The said Board shall be continued until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

No Salary to be payable to a President holding at the Time of his Appointment any Office of Profit.

II. If Her Majesty shall appoint to be President of the General Board of Health any Person who at the Time of such Appointment shall hold any Office of Profit under the Crown, the Person so appointed shall not receive any Salary in respect of such Office of President; and if at the Time of such Appointment he shall be a Member of the House of Commons he shall not by reason of such Appointment vacate his Seat in Parliament.
