EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order makes imports of cucumbers originating in Rumania subjec to a provisional charge in respect of an anti-dumping duty.

The making of the Order enables the Commissioners of Customs and Excis to require security for the payment of any anti-dumping duty which may b imposed retrospectively on such imports under section 8(1) of the Custom Duties (Dumping and Subsidies) Act 1969. If any duty is impose retrospectively, it may only be so imposed on goods imported while the Orde is in force, and its rate may not exceed the rate mentioned in the Schedule t the Order.

The Order expires automatically after three months unless previousl revoked or extended (for not more than three months) by a further Order.

The Order applies section 2 of the 1969 Act to the charge, which enable relief to be granted where particular goods have not been dumped or th margin of dumping is less than the amount of the provisional charge.
