EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order imposes a provisional charge in respect of an anti-dumping duty on imports of chromic anhydride (also known as chromium trioxide or chromic acid) originating in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

The making of the Order enables the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to require security for the payment of any anti-dumping duty which may be imposed retrospectively on such imports. A retrospective duty may only be imposed on goods imported while the Order is in force, and its rate may not exceed the rate mentioned in the Schedule.

The Order expires automatically after three months unless previously revoked or extended (for not more than three months) by a further Order.
