Laid before the House of Commons	23rd November 1976
Coming into Operation - - -	23rd November 1976

The Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 1, 8 and 15 of the Customs Duties (Dumping and Subsidies) Act 1969(a), and now vested in him(b), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Anti-Dumping (Provisional Charge to Duty) (No. 4) Order 1976 and shall come into operation on 23rd November 1976.

2. Goods of the description set out in column 2 of the Schedule hereto (being goods classified in the Customs Tariff 1959(c) under the heading mentioned in column 1 of that Schedule) shall be subject to a provisional charge to duty in respect of a duty of customs at the rate set out in column 3 of that Schedule.

3. Any amount referred to in the Schedule hereto expressed in units of account shall be converted to sterling at the rate specified in Article 11(5) of the Import Duties (General) (No. 5) Order 1975(c).

Michael Meacher,
Parliamentary Under Secretary of State,
Department of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order imposes a provisional charge in respect of an anti-dumping duty on imports of certain roller chains for cycles and motor cycles which originate in Taiwan.

The making of the Order enables the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to require security for the payment of any anti-dumping duty which may be imposed retrospectively on such imports under section 8(1) of the Customs Duties (Dumping and Subsidies) Act 1969. If any duty is imposed retrospectively it may only be so imposed on goods imported while the Order is in force, and its rate may not exceed the rate mentioned in the Schedule to the Order.

The Order expires automatically after three months unless previously revoked or extended (for not more than three months) by a further Order.

The United Kingdom is under a Community obligation by virtue of Regulation (EEC) 2757/76 (O.J. No. L312, 13.11.76, p. 41) to collect the amount of the provisional charge.
