EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Rules amend the Adoption of Children (Summary Jurisdiction) Rules, 1949. Rule 1 enables a court of summary jurisdiction to entertain a second application for an adoption order by the same applicant in respect of the same infant although there has been no substantial change in the circumstances of the case if the case was not dismissed on merits at the previous hearing. The amendments made by Rules 2 and 3 secure that an infant will have been informed of an application for an adoption order and of the nature and effect of an order before being served with the formal notice, and enable the court to add as respondent any person who in its opinion should be so added. Rule 4 is a drafting consequential. Rule 5 provides for new forms of notice appropriate to the rules as amended and for service on the infant when a respondent.
