At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of March, 1960

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by virtue of subsection (1) of section thirty-five of the Arbitration Act, 1950(a) (which defines the foreign awards for the enforcement of which the provisions of Part II of the said Act apply), Her Majesty, being satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made, may by Order in Council—

(a) declare Powers to be parties to the Convention (set out in the Second Schedule to the said Act) on the Execution of Foreign Arbitral Awards signed at Geneva on behalf of his late Majesty King George the Fifth on the 26th day of September, 1927 ; and

(b) declare territories to be territories to which the said Convention applies:

And whereas Her Majesty is satisfied that such reciprocal provisions have been made in the case of Yugoslavia :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Her by the said Act and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. Yugoslavia is a party to the said Convention.

2. The territory of Yugoslavia is a territory to which the said Convention applies.

3. This Order may be cited as the Arbitration (Foreign Awards) Order, 1960, and shall come into operation on the 17th day of March, 1960.

W. G. Agnew.
