STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

1964 No. 1137

DEFENCE

The Army Long Term Reserve Regulations 1964

Made - - - -	20th July 1964
Coming into Operation	20th July 1964

The Secretary of State in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 2(5) of the Navy, Army and Air Force Reserves Act 1964(a) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation, Commencement and Interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Army Long Term Reserve Regulations 1964 and shall come into operation on the 20th July 1964.

(2) In these regulations:—

"long term reservist" means a person liable to recall for service under the provisions of section 2 of the Navy, Army and Air Force Reserves Act 1964, whether by virtue of subsection (1) or by virtue of subsection (7) of that section;

"corps" and "regular forces" have the same meaning as in the Army Act 1955(b);

"record office" means the record office notified to a long term reservist as being the record office to which he should furnish the information which he is required by these regulations to furnish or if none has been so notified the record office of the corps in which he last served as a member of the regular forces.

(3) The Interpretation Act 1889(c) shall apply for the purpose of interpreting these regulations as it applies for the purpose of interpreting an Act of Parliament.

Information to be furnished without demand

2.—(1) A long term reservist shall notify the record office in writing of any change in his name or address within 14 days of the change occurring.

(2) A long term reservist shall notify the record office forthwith in writing if he leaves the United Kingdom otherwise than for a temporary visit not exceeding three months, or if after leaving the United Kingdom for a period exceeding three months, he returns to the United Kingdom.

(3) A long term reservist shall notify the record office if he is in his opinion physically unfit for further military service.

Information to be furnished on demand

3. On demand in writing addressed to a long term reservist by the record office, he shall within 14 days from the date on which he receives that demand or, if the demand was sent by registered post or the recorded

(a) 1964 c. 11. (b) 3 & 4 Eliz. 2. c. 18. (c) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

delivery service to his latest address known at the record office, within 14 days from the date on which the demand would have reached that address in the ordinary course of post, whichever period shall first expire, give such of the following information as is specified in the demand—

(a) his correct name and address;

(b) particulars of his employment and of his professional, technical and industrial qualifications;

(c) information as to his medical state;

(d) whether he has received any document specified in the demand and whether any such document is still in his possession.

Peter Thorneycroft.

Dated 20th July 1964.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Army Long Term Reserve comprises soldiers who are made liable for recall to army service under section 2 of the Navy, Army and Air Force Reserves Act 1964. Under that section a long term reservist is also required to furnish such information as will enable a notice of recall to be served upon him. These Regulations specify the information which a long term reservist must give.