CHAPTER 75.

An Act to amend the Law in respect to the Polling District of Arranmore (Ireland). [16th August 1878.]

WHEREAS by section eight of an Act passed in the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter sixty-two, intituled "An Act to amend "the law relating to the duration of contested elections for counties in Ireland, and for "establishing additional places for taking the poll thereat," power was given to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, on petition from the justices of any county in Ireland in quarter sessions assembled praying that any polling district in such county might be altered, and that any barony or half barony, or any portion thereof respectively, might be annexed to any other polling district, to declare that any such polling district should be so altered, and that any barony or half barony, or any portion thereof respectively, should be annexed to any other polling district:

And whereas by the Ballot Act, 1872, the above-mentioned enactment was repealed, and there is no power under the existing law to declare that any polling district in Ireland, or any portion thereof, shall be annexed to any other polling district: 35 & 36 Vict. c. 33.

And whereas it is expedient that the polling district of Arranmore, in the parish of Templecrone, barony of Boylagh, and county of Donegal, Ireland, should be annexed to the adjacent polling district of Dungloe in the same parish, barony, and county:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Arranmore Polling District Act, 1878. Short title.

2. The polling district of Arranmore, in the parish of Templecrone, barony of Boylagh, and county of Donegal, Ireland, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be annexed to and form part of the polling district of Dungloe in the same parish, barony, and county. Polling district of Arranmore to be annexed to Dungloe.
