CHAPTER 1.

An Act to indemnify Arthur Jenkins, Esquire, from any penal consequence which he may have incurred by sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons while holding the office of Chairman of the Local Appeal Board for a Royal Ordnance Factory, and to remove any disqualification for membership of that House by reason of his having held that office.

[10th December 1941.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Indemnity for and removal of disqualification of Arthur Jenkins, Esquire.

1. Arthur Jenkins, Esquire, shall be and is hereby freed discharged and indemnified from all penal consequences whatsoever incurred by him by sitting or voting as a member of the Commons House of Parliament while holding the office of Chairman of the Local Appeal Board for a Royal Ordnance Factory, and shall be deemed not to have been or to be incapable of sitting or voting as a member of that House by reason only of his having held that office at any time before the passing of this Act.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Arthur Jenkins Indemnity Act, 1941.
