Issue by her Three Sons, and no more, namely, Kenneth Howard, Alan Howard, and Maurice Howard, all of whom are Infants under the Age of Twenty-one Years: And whereas the said Lord Francis Egerton, who was afterwards created Earl of Ellesmere, departed this Life on or about the Eighteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and the said William Sloane Stanley departed this Life on or about the Eleventh Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixty, leaving the said John Abel Smith his Co-Trustee of the said Settlement of One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine him surviving: And whereas by a Deed Poll under the Hand and Seal of the said Henry Granville Duke of Norfolk, bearing Date the Twenty-ninth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and sixty, pursuant to the Power of appointing new Trustees contained in the said Settlement of One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, the said Lord Edward George Fitzalan Howard and the said Henry Valentine Lord Stafford were appointed Trustees in the Room of the said Earl of Ellesmere and William Sloane Stanley for the several Purposes for which the said Earl of Ellesmere and William Sloane Stanley became Trustees as aforesaid, and the said William Bernard Lord Petre was appointed an additional Trustee of the said Settlement of One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine for all the Purposes for which the said Lord Edward George Fitzalan Howard and Henry Valentine Lord Stafford were thereby appointed Trustees: And whereas it is expedient that the Trustees for the Time being constituted and appointed Trustees of the Arundel Estate Act, 1846, should be the Trustees under this Act: And whereas no Embankment on the North Side of the River Thames has yet been made, nor have the Trustees of the Arundel Estate Act, 1846, exercised to any Extent the aforesaid Power of borrowing given to them by that Act, but by the "Thames Embankment Act, 1862," the Metropolitan Board of Works are empowered to form an Embankment and Works on the North Side of the River Thames from Westminster Bridge to Blackfriars Bridge, and to make new Streets in and near thereto, a Portion of which Works comprise a certain Approach Road and Approaches from such Embankment to Surrey Street, Norfolk Street, and Arundel Street respectively, Parts of the said Parliamentary Estates situate in the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes, and in such Act the Expression "the Board" means and refers to the said Metropolitan Board of Works: And whereas the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, by his Guardians the said Augusta Mary Minna Catherine Duchess of Norfolk and James Robert Hope Scott, opposed the passing of the Thames Embankment Act, 1862, and in consequence of such Opposition a Clause was inserted in such Act, and numbered 60 therein, for the Protection of that Part of the said Parliamentary Estates which is situate in the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes:

Death of Two of the Trustees of Settlement of 1839.

Appointment of new Trustees of Settlement of 1839, dated 29th Oct. 1860.

No Embankment on North Side of Thames yet made.

And whereas by the said Sixtieth Section of the Thames Embankment Act, 1862, it is enacted as follows:

Opposite the Strand Estate of the Duke of Norfolk the North Side of the Approach Road and the Approaches therefrom to Surrey Street, Norfolk Street, and Arundel Street respectively shall be constructed on the Line and in the Position shown on the Plan marked C, signed by the Right Honourable William Cowper:

The Board shall not exercise any Powers of compulsory Purchase in respect of any Estate, Right, or Interest of the Duke of Norfolk in the Strand Estate, except so far as may be necessary for the Construction of the said Approach Road and Approaches:

No Buildings shall be placed on the reclaimed Land between Somerset House and the Middle Temple Southward of the said Approach Road on the said Plan, except the Walls or Arches of the Embankment, or of any Roads or Approaches to be made on the said Land, and except any public Stairs or Landing Places, Fountains, and covered Resting Places for public Use, or public Monuments:

All the Land between the present Southern Boundary of the Strand Estate and the North Boundary of the said Approach Road, and the Freehold and Inheritance thereof, shall, upon Payment or Allowance to the Board of the Value thereof, vest in the Duke of Norfolk by force of this Act, and be held by him as Part and Parcel of the Strand Estate:

The Duke of Norfolk shall have Power to build up to the Line of the Footways on the North Side of such Approach Road, and on both Sides of the Approaches to Surrey Street, Norfolk Street, and Arundel Street respectively, and have free Access to the said Approach Road and Approaches:

The Compensation to be paid to the Duke of Norfolk by the Board for the Value of or Injury to his Property, and the Sum to be paid by the Duke of Norfolk to the Board for the Value of the Land so hereby vested in him, shall, in case of Dispute, be settled in the Manner prescribed by this Act:

Throughout this Act the Expression the Duke of Norfolk means Henry now Duke of Norfolk, and every future Owner in possession of the "Arundel Estates," and every Guardian or Guardians of the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, and every such future Owner during his Minority; and the Expression "the Arundel Estates" means the Estates for the Time being settled or conveyed to the Uses of an Act of Parliament passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King Charles the First (whereby certain Estates were settled upon the Heirs Male of Thomas Earl of Arundel and Surrey), and in the Possession of the Duke of Norfolk for the Time being; and the Expression "The Strand Estate"

Estate" means such Parts of the Arundel Estates as are situate in the Parish of Saint Clement Danes in the County of Middlesex:

And whereas the Plan above referred to as signed by the Right Honourable William Cowper, and marked C, was duly deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, pursuant to the Provisions of the Thames Embankment Act, 1862: And whereas it would be advantageous to the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, and to other the Person or Persons who shall from Time to Time become entitled to the said Parliamentary Estates, if the Trustees for the Time being of this Act were intrusted, subject to the Direction of the Court of Chancery, with such Powers as are herein-after contained of making Arrangements with the said Metropolitan Board of Works in relation to such Embankment and the Works connected therewith: And whereas with a view to the carrying out of Improvements upon the said Parliamentary Estates in the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes, and in the County of Sussex, it is expedient that the Trustees for the Time being of this Act should be intrusted with such Power to buy up outstanding Interests in the said Parliamentary Estates in the said Parish and County respectively as herein-after are contained: And whereas many of the Houses both upon the said Parliamentary Estates in the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes, and upon those in the said County of Sussex, are in a dilapidated State, and require either to be pulled down or to be repaired and improved, and the Value of the said Parliamentary Estates could be increased by the Erection, Repair, rebuilding, Enlargement, and Improvement, as the Case may require, of Houses, Offices, Farm Buildings, and Out-buildings thereon, by planting, trenching, draining, and fencing Portions of the same Estates, and bringing Portions thereof into Tillage and Cultivation, by the Formation, Restoration, and Enlargement of Streets, Roads, Ways, and Bridges, and by other Works of general Improvement: And whereas it would be for the Advantage of the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, and of other the Person and Persons who will successively become entitled after him to the said Parliamentary Estates, if the Trustees for the Time being of this Act were to be intrusted, subject to the Direction of the Court of Chancery, with such Powers as herein-after are contained of making and carrying into effect such Works of Improvement as aforesaid, and of raising, from Time to Time, by way of Mortgage, on the Security of sufficient Parts of the said Parliamentary Estates, such Monies (over and above the Monies authorized to be raised by the Arundel Estate Act, 1846,) as may be required for the same Works of Improvement, and for the other Purposes authorized by this Act: And whereas it would be advantageous to the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, and to other the Person and Persons who will successively become entitled after him to the said Parliamentary Estates, if the Purposes for which the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds is authorized to be raised under the Borrowing Power contained in the Arundel Estate Act, 1846, were enlarged: And whereas it would be for the Benefit of the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, and the Person and Persons who shall successively become entitled after him to the said Parliamentary Estates, if the said Henry Duke of Norfolk and other the Person or Persons aforesaid, or the Guardian or Guardians of the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, and of any such Person or Persons during his or their Minority or respective Minorities, were enabled to grant Leases for any Term not exceeding Thirty-one Years in possession, at Rackrent, of such Portions of the said Parliamentary Estates as are situate in or near the Town of Arundel in the County of Sussex, similar to the Leasing Power for such Term granted by the Arundel Estate Act, 1846, in respect of the said Parliamentary Estates in the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes: And whereas the Lands and Hereditaments specified in the First Schedule hereunder written are situate at a considerable Distance from the other Parliamentary Estates in the County of Sussex, and are not so convenient to be held therewith as some other Estates which might be purchased with Advantage: And whereas the Rectory of Earnley-cum-Almodington specified in the Third Schedule hereto is situate at a considerable Distance from the said Parliamentary Estates in the County of Sussex, and the said Henry Duke of Norfolk is entitled to only One Turn or Right of Presentation to the said Rectory out of Three, which renders the same an undesirable Property: And whereas the said Duke is entitled to the next Turn or Presentation to the said Rectory, and it is probable that the same may become vacant during his Minority: And whereas it would be to the Advantage of the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, and the Persons who shall successively become entitled after him to the said Parliamentary Estates, if such Powers and Provisions as are herein-after contained in that Behalf were given (to be exercised only with the Sanction of the Court of Chancery, and on such Request as is herein-after declared to be requisite in that Behalf), enabling Sales to be made of the said Lands and Hereditaments specified in the said First Schedule hereto, and of the perpetual Right of Presentation (One in Three) in and to the said Rectory of Earnley-cum-Almodington, and directing the Application of the Monies to arise from such Sale or Sales in the Purchase of other Estates to be settled to the Uses of the said Act of the Third of King Charles the First, or otherwise as herein-after mentioned: And whereas it is comparatively unimportant that the Hereditaments specified in the said Fourth Schedule should be retained as Part of the said Parliamentary Estates, and on the other hand it would be greatly to the Advantage of the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, and the Persons who shall successively after him become entitled to the said Parliamentary Estates, if the Hereditaments specified in the said

Sixth

Sixth Schedule (the Retention of which is not important to the Owners of the said Family Estates) were annexed to and made Part of the said Parliamentary Estates: And whereas it has been ascertained that the Value of the Hereditaments specified in the said Fourth Schedule exceeds by the Sum of Seven hundred and ninety-seven Pounds Nine Shillings and Eightpence the Value of the Hereditaments specified in the said Sixth Schedule: And whereas those Parts of the said Family Estates which are specified in the said Seventh Schedule adjoin or lie intermixed with those Parts which are specified in the same Schedule of the said Parliamentary Estates, and the said adjoining and intermixed Parts have been at Times and are now let or occupied together, and considerable Uncertainty has arisen as to the respective Boundaries of the said Family and Parliamentary Estates specified in the said Seventh Schedule: And whereas the Lands and Hereditaments specified in the Eighth Schedule hereto, and which are Part of the said Family Estates, are contiguous or near to Parts of the said Parliamentary Estates: And whereas it would be to the Advantage of the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, and the Person and Persons who shall successively become entitled after him to the said Parliamentary Estates, if such Powers as are hereinafter in that Behalf contained (but exerciseable only with such Sanction and on such Request as aforesaid) were intrusted to the Trustees of this Act and the Trustees of the said Settlement of One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, enabling them to settle the Boundaries between the said Parliamentary Estates and the said Family Estates specified in the said Seventh Schedule; and it is also desirable that the Trustees of this Act should have Power (but only with such Sanction and on such Request as aforesaid) to purchase, with and out of any Monies which may from Time to Time be subject to be laid out in the Purchase of Lands to be settled to the Uses of the said Act of the Third of King Charles the First, and that the Trustees of the said Settlement of One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine should have Power to sell to them, all or any Part or Parts which may be ascertained to belong to the said Family Estates of the Hereditaments specified in the said Seventh Schedule, and also all or any Part or Parts of the Hereditaments specified in the said Eighth Schedule: And whereas the said Parliamentary Estates in the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes consist of House Property mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto, and since the Removal of the said Messuage called Arundel House it has not been essential or specially conducive to the Maintenance of the Dignity of Earl of Arundel, or of any of the other Dignities now held by the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, and limited to devolve altogether or in part in the same Line with the said Earldom, that the Estates annexed to the said Earldom should comprise any Estates in the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes, and it it would be to the Advantage of the said Henry Duke of Norfolk, and the Person and Persons who shall become successively entitled after him to the said Parliamentary Estates, if such Powers and Provisions as are herein-after contained in that Behalf were given (to be exercised only with such Sanction and on such Request as aforesaid), enabling Sales to be made of all or any Part or Parts of the said Parliamentary Estates in the Parish of Saint Clement Danes, and directing the Application of the Monies to arise from such Sale or Sales in the Purchase of other Estates convenient to be held with the said Parliamentary Estates to be settled to the Uses of the said Act of the Third of King Charles the First, or otherwise as herein-after mentioned: And whereas the several Objects aforesaid cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: Therefore Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the said Henry Duke of Norfolk and Lord Edmund Bernard Fitzalan Howard, by the said Augusta Mary Minna Catherine Duchess of Norfolk and James Robert Hope Scott their next Friends, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; namely:

Trustees of 9 & 10 Vict. c. 37. (Priv.) appointed Trustees of this Act.

2. It shall be lawful for the Trustees for the Time being of this Act, on such Request as herein-after is mentioned, and with the Sanction of the Court of Chancery, to enter into any Agreement or Agreements with the Metropolitan Board of Works, or otherwise to obtain from them all proper Terms and Conditions, with reference to any of the following Matters; that is to say, the making of the Embankment of the River Thames and the Roadways thereof, and the Approaches to such Embankment and Roadways from the said Parliamentary Estates in the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes; the Determination of the Price or Compensation to be paid by or to the said Metropolitan Board of Works in respect of such Parts (if any) of the said Parliamentary Estates in the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes as may be permanently taken for the Purposes of such Embankment, Roadways, and Approaches, or any of them, or injuriously affected thereby, or in respect of any Land to become vested in the Duke of Norfolk as Part of the said Parliamentary Estates under the Provisions of the Thames Embankment Act, 1862, or in respect of any other Matter or Claim arising under the Thames Embankment Act, 1862; the Acquisition by Purchase or otherwise from from such Board of any of the Lands or Ground which may have been or may hereafter be reclaimed from the River Thames by means of any such Embankment, Roadways, and Approaches, or acquired by or vested in such Board in any other way in connexion with or in consequence of such Embankment, or of any Easements or other Rights over the same Lands, or any of them, the Acquisition whereof may appear to be beneficial to the said Parliamentary Estates in the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes; the restraining of such Board, or any Persons claiming through or under them, from using in any way which may appear prejudicial to the said Parliamentary Estates any Part of the said Embankment, Roadways, and Approaches, or any Property, Lands, or Hereditaments acquired or reclaimed by such Board, and not actually used for the Purpose of forming the Embankment; and on the like Request and with the like Sanction to vary or rescind any such Agreement, and make any new Agreement or Agreements for the same or the like Purposes.

Power to carry out any such Agreements.

4. It shall be lawful for the Trustees for the Time being of this Act, on such Request as herein-after is mentioned, with and out of any Monies which may have been raised by any of the Ways and Means herein-after provided, and may have been with the Sanction of the Court of Chancery appropriated to this Purpose, to buy up and obtain Surrenders or Assignments of any Leases, Terms, or other Estates or Interests of, in, or affecting any Parts of the said Parliamentary Estates in the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes, or in or near the Town of Arundel in the said County of Sussex.

5. It shall be lawful for the Trustees for the Time being of this Act, on such Request as herein-after is mentioned, and with the Sanction of the Court of Chancery, with and out of any Monies which may have been raised by any of the Ways and Means herein-after mentioned, or under the Borrowing Powers of the Arundel Estate
