of subsection (3) of section 16 of the Act of 1949 shall be shown in the Valuation Roll made up by the local authority of the area in which such dwelling houses, or such part and such remainder, as the case may be, are situated either—

(a) in a separate column headed 'Apportioned Gross Annual Value Water (Scotland) Act, 1949', or

(b) in brackets in the column headed 'Description', immediately after the description of the premises to which it relates,

as the local authority may determine:

Provided that if such gross annual value is shown in the column headed 'Description' there shall be included in the Roll a note stating that that value is the apportioned gross annual value for the purposes of the Water (Scotland) Act, 1949."

REMAND, DETENTION AND ATTENDANCE CENTRES

The Attendance Centre Rules, 1950

1950 No. 712

Made - - - -	2nd May, 1950
Coming into Operation	1st June, 1950

In pursuance of the power conferred upon me by section fifty-two of the Criminal Justice Act, 1948(a), I hereby make the following Rules:—

General

1. These Rules shall apply to any attendance centre (hereinafter called "a centre") provided by the Secretary of State under subsection (2) of section forty-eight of the Act for the reception of boys who appear to the court at the time when the order is made to be not less than twelve but under seventeen years of age.

Occupation and instruction

2.—(1) The occupation and instruction given at a centre shall be such as to occupy the boys during the period of attendance in a manner conducive to health of mind and body.

(2) The occupation and instruction shall be in accordance with a scheme approved by or on behalf of the Secretary of State.

Officer in charge

3.—(1) The officer in charge shall maintain a register in which shall be recorded in respect of each boy—

(a) every attendance or failure to attend;

(b) the duration of each attendance; and

(a) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 58.

(c) the commission of any breach of these Rules and the manner in which it is dealt with.

(2) Subject to the provisions of Rule 8 of these Rules, it shall be the duty of the officer in charge to ensure that any boy who has not completed the period of attendance specified in the order shall, before leaving the centre, be informed (both orally and in writing) of the day and time when he is next required to attend at the centre.

Attendance

4.—(1) Boys shall attend at the centre—

(a) on the first occasion, at the time specified in the order, and

(b) on any subsequent occasion, at such time as may be notified to them in accordance with paragraph (2) of Rule 3 of these Rules; and on attending shall report to, and place themselves under the direction of, the officer in charge.

(2) The occasions of a boy's attendance at a centre and the duration of each attendance shall, so far as practicable and subject to the provisions of Rule 8 of these Rules, be so arranged by the officer in charge that the duration of attendance on any occasion is not less than one hour.

Admission to centre

5. No person, other than a boy on an occasion when he is required to attend in pursuance of an order, shall be admitted to, or remain in, a centre except with the permission of the Secretary of State or the officer in charge.

Discipline

6. The discipline of a centre shall be maintained by the personal influence of the officer in charge and staff.

7. Boys shall while attending at a centre conduct themselves in an orderly manner and shall obey any order given or instruction issued by the officer in charge or any member of the staff.

8.—(1) Any boy committing a breach of these Rules may be required to leave the centre at any time.

(2) Where a boy is so required to leave, he shall either—

(a) be instructed in accordance with paragraph (2) of Rule 3 of these Rules as to his further attendance at the centre, or

(b) be informed (both orally and in writing) that he is not required to attend at the centre again and that it is intended in respect of the said breach to take steps to bring him before the court which made the order.

9. Without prejudice to the generality of the last foregoing Rule, the officer in charge or any member of the staff may deal with a boy committing a breach of these Rules in either or both of the following ways, that is to say:—

(a) by separating him from other boys;

(b) by giving him a less attractive form of occupation;

during the whole or any part of the period of attendance specified in the order then remaining uncompleted.

Interpretation

10. In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

"centre" has the meaning assigned to it in Rule 1 of these Rules;

"member of the staff" means any person, other than the officer in charge, for the time being carrying out any instructional or supervisory duties at a centre;

"officer in charge" means the person for the time being in charge of a centre;

"order" means an order made by a court of summary jurisdiction under section nineteen of the Act requiring an offender to attend at a centre;

"the Act" means the Criminal Justice Act, 1948.

Citation and commencement

11. These Rules may be cited as the Attendance Centre Rules, 1950, and shall come into operation on the first day of June, 1950.

J. Chuter Ede,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
