The Baby Loss Certificate Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2026

Laid before the Assembly in draft

Made - - - -	27th May 2026
Coming into operation	15th June 2026

The Department of Finance, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 11 of the Deaths, Still-Births and Baby Loss Act (Northern Ireland) 2026(a), makes the following Regulations:

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Baby Loss Certificate Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2026.

2. These Regulations come into operation on 15th June 2026.

Interpretation

3. In these Regulations—

"baby loss" means the loss of a baby during pregnancy that is not a still-birth within the meaning of section 2(2) of the Births and Deaths Registration (Northern Ireland) Order 1976(b);

"Registrar General" means the Registrar General of Births and Deaths in Northern Ireland;

"second female parent" means a woman who is a parent of a child by virtue of section 42, 43 or, where appropriate, section 46(1) or (2) of the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008(c).

Baby Loss Certificate

4.—(1) The Registrar General may, on receipt of an application under regulation 5, issue a Baby Loss Certificate.

(2) A Baby Loss Certificate may contain the following particulars—

(a) the name of the baby;

(a) 2026 (c.2)
(b) S.I. 1976/1041 (N.I. 14) amended by Article 3 of the Still-Birth (Definition) (Northern Ireland) Order 1992, (S.I. 1992/1310) (N.I. 10)
(c) 2008 (c.22)

(b) the date of the baby loss;

(c) the date of delivery of the baby;

(d) the sex of the baby;

(e) the place of the baby loss;

(f) the mother's full name;

(g) the full name of the father or second female parent, if they consent for their name to be included on the Baby Loss Certificate.

(3) A Baby Loss Certificate must contain—

(a) a reference number for the certificate; and

(b) the date on which the certificate is issued.

Application for Baby Loss Certificate

5.—(1) The following persons may apply to the Registrar General for a Baby Loss Certificate—

(a) the mother;

(b) the father or second female parent.

(2) The application must contain the following particulars—

(a) the mother's full name;

(b) the full name of the father or second female parent, if their name is to be included on the certificate;

(c) the consent of any parent other than the applicant, whose name is to be included on the certificate;

(d) the applicant's postal address and telephone number.

(3) The application may contain the following particulars if the applicant wishes for them to be included on the Baby Loss Certificate—

(a) the name of the baby;

(b) the date of the baby loss;

(c) the date of the delivery of the baby;

(d) the place of the baby loss;

(e) the sex of the baby.

(4) A single application may be made for more than one baby loss.

Record of Baby Loss Certificates

6.—(1) The Registrar General must maintain a record of Baby Loss Certificates issued under these Regulations.

(2) The record must not be open to public inspection and no search may be conducted of the record by anyone other than the Registrar General or an officer delegated for that purpose by the Registrar General.

Amendment to certificate

7.—(1) An applicant to whom a Baby Loss Certificate has been issued under regulation 4 may apply to the Registrar General for an amendment to the Baby Loss Certificate.

(2) The application must include—

(a) the nature of the amendment sought to the Baby Loss Certificate; and

(b) the consent of any parent, other than the applicant, whose name is included on the Baby Loss Certificate or whose name is to be included on the same by way of amendment.

(3) On receipt of an application, the Registrar General may—

(a) amend the Baby Loss Certificate; and

(b) issue the duly amended Baby Loss Certificate.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Department of Finance on 27th May 2026
