2. This Order may be cited as the Bahrain (Amendment) Order, 1956, and the Principal Order, the Bahrain (Amendment) Order, 1953, and this Order may be cited together as the Bahrain Orders, 1952 to 1956.

3. This Order shall come into force on the first day of July, 1956.

And the Right Honourable Selwyn Lloyd, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is to give the necessary directions accordingly.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends the Bahrain Order, 1952 (referred to as " the Principal Order "). The amendments—

(1) give effect to the changes necessary on Pakistan ceasing to be part of Her Majesty's dominions on becoming a Republic within the Commonwealth ;

(2) give power to the Secretary of State to mitigate or remit any punishment awarded by the Courts. This power was formerly exercised by the Secretary of State under the Indian Code of Criminal Procedure which has now been repealed in its application to Bahrain on the making of Criminal Procedure Rules by the Judge of the Chief Court under Article 77 of the Principal Order.
