EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The Baking Trade Board (England and Wales) was established in 1938 and operated in relation to workers employed in bakeries in the making of bread, pastry and flour confectionery and their employers. It was converted into a Wages Council by the Wages Councils Act 1945 and was continued in force as such by the Wages Councils Act 1959.

This Order abolishes the Wages Council.
