(2) BAKING (S.)

The Baking Wages Council (Scotland) Wages Regulation Order, 1948

1948 No. 1874 (S. 161)

Made - - - -	10th August, 1948
Coming into Operation	27th August, 1948

BKS (17)

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereinafter referred to as "the Minister") has received from the Baking Wages Council (Scotland) (hereinafter referred to as "the Council")

(a) the wages regulation proposals set out in the First Schedule hereto, being proposals for fixing the remuneration to be paid by their employers to workers in relation to whom the Council operates in substitution for the remuneration fixed for those workers by the Baking Wages Council (Scotland) Wages Regulation Order 1947(a) (hereinafter referred to as "Order BKS (13)"); and

(b) the wages regulation proposals set out in the Second Schedule hereto being proposals for amending the Baking Wages Council (Scotland) Wages Regulation (Holidays) Order 1947(b) (hereinafter referred to as Order BKS (14)) which contains provisions requiring workers in relation to whom the Council operates to be allowed holidays by their employers and fixing holiday remuneration to be paid by their employers to those workers;

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by Section 10 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945 and of all other powers in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

8 & 9 Geo. 6. c. 17.

Short title and interpretation.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Baking Wages Council (Scotland) Wages Regulation Order 1948.

(2) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 27th day of August, 1948, provided that where as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(a) S.R. & O. 1947 (No. 440) I, p. 2267.
(b) S.R. & O. 1947 (No. 441) I, p. 2277.

2.—(1) Effect is hereby given to the said wages regulation proposals set out in the First Schedule hereto. Fixing of statutory minimum remuneration and revocation of Order BKS (13).

(2) The provisions of the First Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date Order BKS 13(a) shall cease to have effect.

3.—(1) Effect is hereby given to the said wages regulation proposals set out in the Second Schedule hereto. Amendment of Order BKS (14) as to holidays and holiday remuneration.

(2) The provisions of the Second Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date.

Signed by order of the Minister of Labour and National Service this 10th day of August, 1948.

Godfrey H. Ince,
Secretary of the Ministry of Labour and National Service.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

The following minimum remuneration shall be substituted for the statutory minimum remuneration fixed by Order BKS (13).

STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION

PART I

GENERAL

Paragraph 1

(1) Subject to the provisions as to guaranteed weekly remuneration set out in Part VI of this Schedule, the minimum remuneration payable to a worker to whom this Schedule applies for all work except work to which a minimum overtime rate applies under Part V is—

(a) the minimum weekly remuneration specified in Part II or Part III and, in addition thereto, any hourly rate payable under sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 3; or

(b) where minimum weekly remuneration is not payable to the worker, the hourly minimum rate specified in Part IV.

(2) The minimum remuneration payable to a worker to whom this Schedule applies for any work to which a minimum overtime rate applies under Part V is that rate.

PART II

MALE WORKERS

MINIMUM WEEKLY REMUNERATION

Paragraph 2

Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Schedule, the minimum weekly remuneration payable to a male worker specified in Col. 1 of the next following Table for the normal working week (not being overtime) is:—

(a) in the case of a worker who is not usually required to work on a Sunday (except on preparatory work such as the setting of sponges or the heating of ovens), the rate specified under the heading " A " in such one of the columns numbered 2 to 7 in the said Table as is applicable to the worker;

(b) in the case of any other worker, the rate set out under the heading " B " in such one of the said columns as is applicable to the worker.

(a) S.R. & O. 1947 (No. 440) I, p. 2267.

Provided that—

(1) the minimum weekly remuneration payable to a foreman baker shall be the amount which would be payable to him if employed as a journeyman baker increased by 20s.;

(2) the minimum weekly remuneration payable to a charge hand shall be the amount which would be payable to him if employed as a bakery worker increased by 10s.

Paragraph 3

Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Schedule—

(1) where a worker is employed otherwise than on a shift system and his working day ordinarily commences on a Saturday or on the day before a customary holiday not earlier than 4 a.m., and on the other working days in the week at or after 5 a.m. and before 6 a.m. he shall be paid the minimum weekly remuneration appropriate under column 3 of the Table to that paragraph;

(2) where a worker entitled to minimum weekly remuneration under column 3 or column 4 of the said Table is required on any day to commence work before his normal starting hour he shall, in addition to the minimum weekly remuneration payable thereunder, be paid 1s. per hour for all time worked—

(a) in the case of a worker to whom column 3 applies, before 5 a.m., or on a Saturday or the last day before a customary holiday, before 4 a.m.;

(b) in the case of a worker to whom column 4 applies, before 6 a.m.

(3) Where a worker works—

(a) on a regularly alternating shift system providing for an equal period of work in one of the first, second or third shifts referred to in paragraph 4 of this Schedule and in one other of those shifts, or

(b) on a regularly rotating shift system providing for an equal period of work in each of the said shifts, the minimum weekly remuneration payable to him for work other than overtime in each consecutive week of such employment shall be the amount that would be payable to him if he worked throughout the complete number of working weeks required to be worked to complete a whole period of alternation or rotation as aforesaid and that amount were divided by the said number of weeks.

(4) Where the ordinary hours of work of a worker employed on a shift system do not fall wholly within the first, second or third shift the minimum weekly remuneration payable to him shall be that appropriate to the third shift.

(5) An apprentice baker shall be treated for the purpose of the foregoing Table as though he were in his fifth year of apprenticeship if the number of apprentices employed in the establishment in which he is employed exceeds the maximum number specified in paragraph 11 of this Schedule.

DEFINITION OF SHIFTS

Paragraph 4

In this Part of the Schedule,

(a) " shift system " means a system of working which involves successive turns of duty for different groups of workers in the establishment in which they are employed;

(b) " first shift " means, in the case of a worker employed on a shift system, the period of work which ordinarily commences not earlier than 6 a.m. and finishes not later than 6 p.m.

(c) " second shift " means, in the case of a worker employed on a shift system, the period of work which ordinarily commences not earlier than 10 a.m. and finishes after 6 p.m. but not later than 11 p.m.

(d) " third shift " means, in the case of a worker employed on a shift system, the period of work which ordinarily commences not earlier than 8 p.m. but earlier than 6 a.m. on the next day.

Part III

Part IV

HOURLY MINIMUM RATE

Paragraph 6

(1) Where minimum weekly remuneration is not applicable to a worker he shall be paid for all time worked, except overtime, at the hourly minimum rate applicable to him.

(2) The hourly minimum rate applicable to any worker is the rate obtained by dividing by the number of hours constituting the normal working week (as defined in paragraph 11 of this Schedule) the minimum weekly remuneration which would be payable to him if employed for the normal working week.

Part V

OVERTIME AND WAITING TIME

MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

Paragraph 7

Minimum overtime rates are payable to any worker as follows:—

(a) for any time worked on the worker's rest day ... Double time

Provided that where the sole work performed by the worker is preparatory work (such as the setting of sponges or the heating of ovens) the minimum overtime rate shall be ... ... Time-and-a-half

(b) for any such preparatory work on a day allowed to the worker by the employer as a customary holiday or as a substituted customary holiday pursuant to the provisions of any wages regulation order made by the Minister to give effect to proposals of the Council as to holidays and holiday remuneration ... Time-and-a-half

(c) for any time worked on any other day in excess of the normal working day ... ... Time-and-a-half

Paragraph 8

(1) In this Part of this Schedule—

(a) the expression " normal working day " means in relation to any worker one-sixth of the period of the normal working week (as defined in paragraph 11 of this Schedule).

Provided that—

(i) where the worker is normally employed on a Saturday for a period which is one hour less than the said normal working day and on one other day in the same week for a period which is one hour more than the said normal working day the said expression means, in relation to that Saturday and that other day, the said periods respectively;

(ii) where the worker normally works on six days in the week and his work on one of those days is normally a period not exceeding 5 hours between the hours of 6 a.m. and 1 p.m. the said expression means, in relation to that short day, the said period and, in relation to each of the remaining 5 days, one fifth of the remaining period of his normal working week;

(b) the expressions " time-and-a-half " and " double time " mean respectively one and a half times and twice the hourly minimum rate applicable to the worker under Part IV of this Schedule;

(c) the expression " rest day " means Sunday or, in the case of a male worker who ordinarily works on 6 days in the week including Sunday, the remaining day of the week.

(2) In ascertaining whether overtime has been worked regard shall be had to the whole of the worker's turn of duty, and where the normal working day extends beyond midnight, the turn of duty shall be treated as worked wholly on the day on which it ends.

WAITING TIME

Paragraph 9

A worker is entitled to payment of the minimum remuneration specified in this Schedule for all time during which he is present on the premises of his employer unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances—

(a) without the employer's consent, express or implied;

(b) for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;

(c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon;

(d) during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

PART VI

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION

Paragraph 10

(1) This paragraph applies to a worker who is employed by the employer by the week or longer period and who ordinarily works for the employer for the period of the normal working week (as defined in paragraph 11 of this Schedule) wholly or mainly on work to which statutory minimum remuneration under the provisions of this Schedule applies.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Schedule and subject to the provisions of this paragraph, where in any week in which the worker performs some work for the employer to which the said statutory minimum remuneration applies the total amount of the minimum remuneration (not being remuneration for overtime) payable to that worker

(a) under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule (other than paragraphs 7 and 8) and

(b) by way of holiday remuneration under any wages regulation order made by the Minister to give effect to proposals of the Council, would be less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided for by this Part of this Schedule, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker in lieu of the amount aforesaid for that week shall be the guaranteed weekly remuneration aforesaid.

(3) The amount of the guaranteed weekly remuneration is the minimum weekly remuneration which would be payable under the provisions of Part II or Part III of this Schedule if the worker worked the normal working week in his usual occupation.

(4) Payment of the guaranteed weekly remuneration in respect of any week shall be subject to the condition that the worker throughout the period of his ordinary employment in that week, excluding any day allowed to him as a holiday or any time during which he is absent with the leave of the employer, is—

(a) capable of and available for work; and

(b) willing to perform any services outside his usual occupation which may reasonably be required by the employer when work is not available for him in his usual occupation.

(5) Where the employer is prevented from providing employment by reason of a strike, failure of supplies or other circumstances outside his control and has given to the worker not less than four clear days' notice of his inability to provide such employment and the notice has expired, guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not, subject as is hereinafter provided, be payable in that week or in any week during which or during part of which such inability to give employment continues after the expiry of the notice.

Provided that, notwithstanding that the worker may not have performed for the employer in the week in which the said notice expires any work to which statutory minimum remuneration applies under this Schedule, guaranteed weekly remuneration shall be payable to the worker in respect of that week and the amount thereof shall be as follows:—

(a) in respect of any time (other than overtime) worked by the worker for the employer in that week on work to which statutory minimum remuneration applies, the minimum remuneration payable to the worker in respect thereof under the provisions of this Schedule other than this paragraph,

(b) in respect of any remaining time which the worker would have worked in that week had he worked the period of the normal working day (as defined in paragraph 8 of this Schedule) on each day prior to expiry of the said notice, the hourly minimum rate applicable to the worker.

(6) In this paragraph the expression " week " means " pay week ".

(7) A worker shall be paid, in addition to any guaranteed weekly remuneration payable to him in any week, any minimum remuneration for overtime payable to him in that week under the provisions of Part V of this Schedule.

PART VII

INTERPRETATION AND APPLICATION

Paragraph 11

In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say,

(a) in the case of a male worker, a FOREMAN BAKER is a journeyman baker who has at least four workers under his control in any department of a bakery;

a CHARGE HAND is a worker (other than a foreman baker) aged 21 years or over and in control of not less than five workers aged 21 years or over;

an OVENSMAN is a journeyman baker who is in charge of at least one oven;

a DOUGHMAKER is a journeyman baker who is engaged for more than one hour daily in the stirring or doughing (excluding sponging) of bread and morning rolls or of either of those articles of food in an establishment in which at least four journeymen bakers are regularly employed in their production;

a JOURNEYMAN BAKER is a worker aged 21 years or over who is engaged in the production of bread, cake or flour confectionery, including any part of the baking processes incidental to the production of the complete article of food and the feeding and drawing of ovens, and who has either (i) served an apprenticeship of five years in the Baking Trade, (ii) been employed in the said work for a continuous period of five years prior to the 1st day of January, 1939, or (iii) in the case of a worker whose apprenticeship has been interrupted by war service has served the period of apprenticeship or training entitling him to be recognised as a journeyman or fully qualified adult worker under the scheme for the training of apprentices entitled I.A.S./Scheme No. 41, prepared by the National Joint Committee for the Baking Industry (Scotland) and approved by the Minister;

an APPRENTICE BAKER is a worker serving in the Baking Trade a five years' apprenticeship, which commences not earlier than his sixteenth and not later than his nineteenth birthday, and employed in an establishment in which the number of apprentice bakers is limited in proportion to the number of journeymen bakers, doughmakers and ovensmen regularly employed as follows:—

Number of journeymen regularly employed	Maximum number of apprentices employed
Not more than 3	1
4 or 5	2
6 to 10	3
More than 10	1 additional apprentice for each group of 5 journeymen in excess of 10;

Provided that in any establishment where by reason only of the reinstatement of one or more apprentices in accordance with the provisions of the Re-instatement in Civil Employment Act, 1944(a), the number of apprentices employed is greater than the maximum number specified in the Table above, having regard to the number of journeymen regularly employed, the number of apprentices so employed shall be substituted for the maximum number specified in the said Table.

(a) 7 & 8 Geo. 6. c. 15.

a MALE BAKERY WORKER is a worker (other than a journeyman baker or an apprentice baker) who is not engaged in the making of bread or flour confectionery but is engaged in work incidental thereto or in the packaging, storage, loading and other handling of goods to the stage of the first despatch of the finished products for sale or distribution, but nothing in this definition shall be interpreted as classifying as a male bakery worker any worker of any other trade engaged on tasks such as office, administrative or welfare work or maintenance and servicing of plant, buildings or equipment;

an INGREDIENT STOREMAN is a male bakery worker who is wholly or mainly engaged in work in which he is responsible for the receipt, storage and issue of raw materials, including the weighing of exact quantities according to formulae or recipes, but nothing in this definition shall be interpreted as classifying as an ingredient storeman a worker employed solely in the handling of flour.

(b) in the case of a female worker, a FEMALE ASSISTANT BAKER CHARGE HAND is a worker aged 21 years or over who is in charge of—

(a) a department of a bakery under a foreman baker; or,

(b) a bakery where not less than 5 workers, including herself, are employed, and who is herself a female assistant baker or who supervises one or more female assistant bakers;

a FEMALE BAKERY WORKER CHARGE HAND is a female bakery worker aged 21 years or over who is in charge, under a foreman baker, of a department of a bakery in which no female assistant bakers are employed, or is in charge of a bakery where not less than 5 workers, including herself, not being female assistant bakers, are employed;

a FEMALE ASSISTANT BAKER is a worker who is wholly or mainly engaged—

(i) in the actual production of oatcakes, scones, pancakes and other hot plate goods or of any of those articles of food, or

(ii) in work incidental to that of a journeyman baker such as the preparation of pie and tart shells and lining shapes, or

(iii) in confectionery finishing work such as the decoration of celebration cakes, gateaux and French cakes;

a FEMALE BAKERY WORKER is a female worker employed on any work other than that of a female assistant baker, but nothing in this definition shall be interpreted as classifying as a female bakery worker any female worker of any other trade engaged on tasks such as office, administrative or welfare work or maintenance and servicing of plant, buildings or equipment.

(c) in the case of any worker,

" NORMAL WORKING WEEK " means—

(i) in those cases where it is or may become the custom for a worker to work in a week less than 45 hours but not less than 44 hours, a week of that number of hours,

(ii) in all other cases, a week of 45 hours;

Provided that in all cases the normal working week of a young person who has not attained the age of 16 years shall be a week of 44 hours;

" OVERTIME " means any time in respect of which a minimum overtime rate applies under Part V of this Schedule;

"CUSTOMARY HOLIDAY" means a day allowed to, and taken by, the worker as a customary holiday or as a substituted customary holiday under the provisions of any wages regulation order made by the Minister to give effect to proposals of the Council.

APPLICABILITY OF STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION

Paragraph 12

This Schedule applies, subject to the provisions of the Wages Councils Act, 1945, to workers in relation to whom the Baking Wages Council (Scotland) operates, that is to say, to workers employed in Scotland in the trade specified in the Schedule to the Trade Boards (Baking Trade, Scotland) (Constitution and Proceedings) Regulations, 1939(a), which reads as follows:—

'Definition of the Baking Trade as specified in the Appendix to the Trade Boards (Baking) Order, 1938(b).

'1. Subject to the provisions of this Appendix the Baking Trade consists of the following operations:—

(1) the making of bread, pastry, and flour confectionery and work incidental thereto;

(2) the making of other articles of food and work incidental thereto in an undertaking, or branch or department thereof, mainly engaged on one or more of the operations specified in paragraph 1 (1);

(3) the sale and distribution of any of the articles of food referred to in the preceding sub-paragraphs by a worker who in the same week is also engaged in any of the work specified in those sub-paragraphs.

'2. Notwithstanding anything in this Appendix the following operations are not operations in the Baking Trade:—

(1) the making of biscuits, in an undertaking, or a branch or department of an undertaking, mainly engaged in the making of biscuits, and the making of any other article of food therein by workers mainly engaged in the making of biscuits;

(2) the making of any of the articles of food referred to in paragraph 1 hereof:—

(a) in an hotel, boarding house, restaurant, cafe or similar establishment:—

(i) for consumption on the premises; or

(ii) for consumption off the premises at meals served by persons ordinarily employed on the premises;

(b) by a railway undertaking for consumption on its trains, restaurant cars, ships or premises;

(3) the making of:—

(a) meat pies, sausage rolls or similar articles of pastry (including bread for use therein); or

(b) bread for use in sausages or similar articles of food in an undertaking where no bread, pastry or flour confectionery is made other than that specified in this sub-paragraph;

(a) S.R. & O. 1939 (No. 109) II, p. 3182.
(b) S.R. & O. 1938 (No. 519) II, p. 3227.

(4) operations included in:—

(a) the Trade Boards (Milk Distributive) Order, 1928(a);

(b) the Trade Boards (Sugar Confectionery and Food Preserving) Order, 1913(b);

(c) the Trade Boards (Grocery and Provisions) Order, 1920(c); or any amendments or variations of the aforesaid Orders.

'3. For the purpose of this Appendix "pastry" and "articles of pastry" include articles of food made wholly or partly of pastry; "meat" includes game, poultry, egg or fish; "flour confectionery" includes cakes, oatcakes, shortbread and biscuits; "biscuits" do not include oatcakes or shortbread; and "making" includes the packing, wrapping and other handling of the articles of food when made before their first despatch for sale or distribution.'

SECOND SCHEDULE

HOLIDAYS AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION

Order BKS (14) shall be amended as follows:—

PART III—ANNUAL HOLIDAYS

(1) For the proviso to paragraph 3 of the Schedule thereto there shall be substituted the following:—

"Provided that—

(i) the number of days of annual holiday which a worker is entitled to be allowed under this Schedule shall not exceed twice the period of his normal working week;

(ii) a worker who has been allowed his annual holiday or any part thereof during April or September in one holiday season shall not be allowed his annual holiday or any part thereof during April or September in the next following holiday season except at his own written request."

(2) The following proviso shall be added to paragraph 4 of the Schedule thereto:—

"Provided that where the duration of an annual holiday to which a worker is entitled exceeds the period constituting the worker's normal working week, the said holiday may be allowed at his request in two separate periods of such consecutive working days; if one of such periods is not less than the period constituting the worker's normal working week."

(3) For paragraph 5 of the Schedule thereto there shall be substituted the following:—

"Paragraph 5. An employer shall give to a worker notice of the commencing date and duration of his annual holiday as follows:—

(a) in respect of the holiday season commencing on the 1st day of April, 1948, not less than 30 days' notice shall be given;

(b) in respect of the holiday season commencing on the 1st day of April, 1949, and any subsequent holiday season, notice shall be given not later than the 1st day of February last preceding the said holiday season.

Such notice may be given individually to the worker or by posting of a notice in the place where the worker is employed."

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

1. This Order, which has effect from the 27th August, 1948, revokes the Baking Wages Council (Scotland) Wages Regulation Order, 1947 (Order BKS (13)), which fixed the statutory minimum remuneration payable to workers in relation to whom the Council operates, and substitutes the statutory minimum remuneration set out in the First Schedule to this Order.

2. The provisions of the First Schedule to this Order which differ from those in the Schedule to Order BKS (13) are set out in italics.

3. The Order also amends, in the manner set out in the Second Schedule, the Baking Wages Council (Scotland) Wages Regulation (Holidays) Order, 1947 (Order BKS (14)), which fixed the holidays and holiday remuneration which an employer is required to allow to workers in relation to whom the Council operates.

(3) BOOT AND FLOOR POLISH (G.B.)

The Boot and Floor Polish Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation (Holidays) Order, 1948

1948 No. 1023

Made - - - - 13*th May*, 1948

B.P. (29)

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereinafter referred to as " the Minister ") has received from the Boot and Floor Polish Wages Council (Great Britain) (hereinafter referred to as " the Council ") the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto being proposals for requiring workers in relation to whom the Council operates to be allowed holidays by their employers and for fixing holiday remuneration to be paid by their employers to those workers in substitution for the holidays provided for by a direction given and the holiday remuneration fixed under the Holidays with Pay Act, 1938 and confirmed by the Order of the Minister of Labour dated the 14th day of June, 1939 (hereinafter referred to as " Order B.P.(8)") as amended by the Boot and Floor Polish Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation Order, 1946(a) (hereinafter referred to as " Order B.P.(27)");

1 & 2 Geo. 6, c. 70.

Now therefore the Minister by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 10 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945 and of all other powers in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

8 & 9 Geo. 6, c. 17.

Short title and interpretation.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Boot and Floor Polish Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation (Holidays) Order, 1948.
