Additional provisions as to enforcement of payment of loans.

14. In any proceedings instituted by the Commissioners of Public Works for recovering any money due on account of any loan under this Act, the certificate of the Commissioners as so incorporated as aforesaid under their seal that the sum claimed is due on account of such loan shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

It shall be the duty of every grand jury and town council to whom any loan is made under this Act to do all matters and things necessary for providing for the repayment of all moneys due from time to time on account of such loan.

Nothing contained in this section shall be taken to prejudice any proceedings which the Commissioners of Public Works might institute for recovering any sum due to them on account of any loan made under this Act.

15. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Industrial Schools (Ireland) Act, 1885.

CHAPTER 20.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Admission of Barristers in Ireland. [21st May 1885.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Irish students not required to keep terms in London.

1. From and after the passing of this Act persons seeking to be admitted to practise as barristers at the Irish bar shall not be required to keep any terms commons, or enter their names in any of the Inns of Court in London.

Act to apply to existing students.

2. Existing students shall be entitled to the benefit of this Act, and no student who has kept a portion of the terms heretofore required to be kept in one of the London Inns of Court shall be required to complete such terms in London.

No Irish student to keep more than twelve terms commons.

3. Any person seeking to be admitted to practise as a barrister in Ireland shall not be required to keep more than twelve terms commons; provided that every such person may, if he shall think fit, keep any number not exceeding four of the required terms commons in any one of the Inns of Court in London.

Short title.

4. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Barristers Admission (Ireland) Act, 1885.
