As a result of the amendment, a herd will be regarded as "accredited" for the purposes of the beef cow subsidy (a) if it has been found to be free from brucellosis by means of a series of diagnostic tests carried out by or on behalf of the Secretary of State for Scotland or the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, or (b) has been wholly constituted by the transfer of animals from other accredited herds in Great Britain or, where this is allowed, from similar herds outside Great Britain, and in any of the cases aforesaid has subsequently been the subject of adequate precautions against the introduction or re-introduction and consequent spreading of the disease.
