ANNO NONO

GEORGII IV. REGIS.

Cap. xxxix.

An Act for regulating and fixing the Rates to be paid for Goods imported at and exported from the Quay of Bideford in the County of Devon, and for Keyage and Keelage of Ships and Vessels in the Harbour of Bideford, and for more easily levying and collecting the same; and also for regulating Ships and Vessels in the said Harbour.

[13th May 1828.]

WHEREAS the Quay or Wharf on the West of the Navigable River Torridge, within the Borough Town and Manor of Bideford in the County of Devon, contains in Length Twelve hundred Feet or thereabout, and Augustus Saltren Willett Esquire, Lord of the said Manor, claims the same as his Property; which Quay or Wharf, and the Walls, Slips, and Pavement thereof, and the Mooring and Guard Posts thereon, are and hitherto have been kept in repair by the said Augustus Saltren Willett and his Ancestors and Predecessors in Interest, at a considerable annual Expence, for the Benefit of Merchants and others residing at or trading to and from the said Town of Bideford: And whereas divers Rates or Duties, Quay Dues, Customs, and Tolls, have of Right been paid to the said Augustus Saltren Willett and his Ancestors and Predecessors in Interest, for Goods, Wares, and Merchandise imported at and exported from the said Quay or Wharf, and for Keyage and Keelage of Ships and Vessels whilst remaining in the Harbour of Bideford, in collecting and receiving which Rates or Duties, Quay Dues, Customs, and Tolls, great Inconveniences and Difficulties frequently happen, by reason that, in some Cases, the same have not been defined with sufficient Precision, and in other Cases they are withheld and evaded in consequence of the Delay and Expence attending the Recovery of the same; and such Rates or Duties, Quay Dues, Customs, and Tolls, are insufficient for the effectual Maintenance and Support of the said Quay or Wharf, and the necessary Appendages of the same, and the Completion of the Repairs now wanting thereto will be attended with considerable Expence to the said Augustus Saltren Willett: And whereas it would be for the Benefit and Advantage as well of Merchants and others residing at or trading to and from the Town of Bideford, and it would be an Inducement to the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Quay or Wharf to improve the same, as well as the Harbour of Bideford aforesaid, if the said Rates or Duties, Quay Dues, Customs, and Tolls, were fixed and clearly defined, and an easy and expeditious Mode established for Recovery thereof; and it would also be beneficial that Ships and Vessels whilst remaining in the Harbour of Bideford should be subject to proper Rules and Regulations: But as these Purposes cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament, may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Rates or Duties, Quay Dues, Customs, and Tolls, heretofore payable to the said Augustus Saltren Willett, or his Ancestors or Predecessors in Interest, for Goods, Wares, and Merchandise imported at or exported from the Quay or Wharf on the West of the navigable River Torridge, within the Borough Town and Manor of Bideford aforesaid, and for Keyage and Keelage of Ships and Vessels whilst remaining in the Harbour of Bideford aforesaid, shall, from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable.

Former Rates or Duties on Goods, &c. imported or exported to cease.

Proprietor to expend 400l. in Repairs of the Quay within One Year, and cause an Account of the Expenditure to be verified before a Justice of the Peace.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf shall, and he, she, or they is and are hereby required to lay out and expend the Sum of Four hundred Pounds at the least in repairing and improving the said Quay or Wharf and the Appendages thereof, within One Year after the passing of this Act; and such Proprietor or Proprietors shall within One Year and a Half after the passing of this Act cause an Account of the Expenditure of such Sum of Money in manner as aforesaid to be verified upon Oath before some Justice of the Peace for the County of Devon; which Account, with a Certificate of Verification thereon, signed by such Justice, shall be registered by the Clerk of the Peace of the said County of Devon or his Deputy, and deposited amongst the Records of the said County.

If Money not expended within the Time, and Account verified, Powers of

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That in case such Proprietor or Proprietors shall neglect or omit to lay out and expend the full Sum of Four hundred Pounds within One Year after the passing of this Act, in manner as aforesaid, or to cause the Account of the Expenditure thereof to be verified and registered within the Time and in the Manner hereinbefore mentioned, then this Act, and every Provision, sion, Matter, and Thing herein contained, shall, from and after the Expiration of such One Year and a Half after the passing of this Act, cease, determine, and be void. the Act to cease.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, there shall be payable and paid, to and for the Use of the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf, or his, her, or their Lessee or Lessees, or to such Collector or Collectors as from Time to Time shall be appointed by such Proprietor or Proprietors, (and which he, she, or they is or are hereby authorized from Time to Time to appoint by any Writing under his, her, or their Hand or Hands, during his, her, or their Pleasure,) for or in respect of all Goods, Wares, Merchandise, and Commodities whatsoever which shall in any Manner be landed out of or put on board any Ship or Vessel upon or from the said Quay or Wharf at Bideford aforesaid, whether such Ship or Vessel be moored thereat or not, or which shall be discharged from or put on board any Ship or Vessel moored or fastened either mediately or immediately to the said Quay or Wharf, into or from any Barge, Lighter, or Boat, although not landed upon or taken from the said Quay or Wharf, the several Rates or Duties specified and set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and which Schedule shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act; all which Rates or Duties shall be paid by the Master or other Person or Persons having the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel, or by the Owner or Owners, Consignee or Consignees, or the Person or Persons having the Charge of such Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities, on Demand made of such Rates or Duties as hereinafter mentioned. New Rates and Duties to be payable.

V. And be it further enacted, That for or in respect of every Part or Portion of any Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities by this Act charged with the Payment of any Rates or Duties, which shall be greater or less in Weight, Measure, Quantity, or Number, as the Case may be, than the several and respective Weights, Measures, Quantities, or Numbers specified and set forth in the said Schedule, a Rate or Duty shall be payable and paid in a due and equal Ratio or Proportion with the Rate or Duty by this Act imposed on any specified Weight, Measure, Quantity, or Number of Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities of a Description corresponding with every such Part or Portion as aforesaid. Proportional Duties for greater or less Weight, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, there shall also be payable and paid, to and for the Use of the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf, or his, her, or their Lessee or Lessees, or to such Collector or Collectors, to be appointed as aforesaid, for or in respect of every Ship or Vessel which shall be moored either mediately or immediately to the said Quay or Wharf, a Rate or Duty of One Halfpenny per Ton, according to the Tonnage of every such Ship or Vessel at each Time of mooring every such Ship or Vessel to the said Quay or Wharf, provided such Ship or Vessel shall remain so moored for Twelve Hours; and if any Ship or Vessel shall remain so moored at any one Time for a longer Period than One Month, a further Rate or Duty of One Halfpenny Tonnage Duties and Keelage.

Halfpenny per Ton as aforesaid for the Second and each succeeding Month, and a due and equal Proportion of such last-mentioned Rate or Duty for every less Period of such Second and each succeeding Month that every such Ship or Vessel shall remain so moored to the said Quay or Wharf; and for the Keelage of every Ship or Vessel not moored to the said Quay or Wharf, which shall rest or ground upon the Sand or Soil of such Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid, within the Limits where Keelage hath heretofore been accustomed to be paid in the Harbour of Bideford aforesaid, or which shall be fastened to an Anchor fixed in such Sand or Soil within such Limits as aforesaid, the several Rates or Duties next hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, for each Limestone Vessel Sixpence, and for every other Ship or Vessel Two Shillings and Sixpence, for each Period of the Continuance of every such Vessel within the said Harbour; and for or in respect of every Barge, Lighter, or Boat, landing or taking on board any Fish upon or from the said Quay or Wharf, the several Rates or Duties chargeable thereon in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and landing or taking on board upon or from the said Quay or Wharf any Bricks, Tiles, Clay, Coals, Culm, Wood, Stones, Gravel, Sand, Dung, Ashes, Manure, Farming Produce, or other Commodities, which shall not be subject to any other Rate or Duty under this Act, a Rate or Duty of Three-pence if the Barge, Lighter, or Boat be under the Burthen of Five Tons; a Rate or Duty of Sixpence if of the Burthen of Five Tons and under Ten Tons, and a Rate or Duty of One Shilling if of the Burthen of Ten Tons or upwards; all which several last-mentioned Rates or Duties shall be paid by the Master or Masters, or the Person or Persons having the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, and Boat respectively.

Duties for Barges, Lighters, and Boats.

How Tonnage Duties shall be ascertained.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Master or other Person or Persons having the Charge or Command of every Ship or Vessel liable to the Tonnage Rates or Duties aforesaid shall, and he and they is and are hereby required to produce and shew, on Demand, to the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf, or to his, her, or their Lessee or Lessees, Collector or Collectors, the Custom House Register of every such Ship or Vessel; and in case of Refusal, Failure, or Delay in producing and showing the same, or in case there be no such Register, or in case the said Proprietor or Proprietors, Lessee or Lessees, Collector or Collectors, shall not be satisfied therewith, or shall entertain any Doubt of the Correctness thereof in regard to the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel, it shall and may be lawful for him, her, or them to detain, and enter, either alone or with any Person or Persons as an Assistant or Assistants, into such Ship or Vessel, and to admeasure the same in manner directed by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the registering of British Vessels, or any Act hereafter to be in force for ascertaining the Tonnage of Ships or Vessels, and which shall be deemed to give the true Contents of the Tonnage, according to which Rule or Method all Ships or Vessels liable to the Rates or Duties aforesaid shall be measured, for computing, ascertaining, charging, and collecting the said Rates or Duties; and in case any Ship or Vessel shall, upon any such Admeasurement as aforesaid, appear to be of greater Tonnage than shall have been set forth and contained in the Account which shall have been given thereof, then the Master or Person giving in such Account shall shall pay the Costs and Charges of such Admeasurement; which Costs and Charges, if the same shall not be paid on Demand, shall and may be recovered and levied by such Ways and Means and in such Manner as the said Rates and Duties are hereby directed to be recovered and levied; but if any such Ship or Vessel shall be found to be of the same or less Tonnage than shall have been set forth and contained in such Account as aforesaid, then the said Proprietor or Proprietors, Lessee or Lessees, Collector or Collectors, shall pay the Costs and Charges of such Admeasurement, and shall also pay such Damages as shall appear to any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace acting for the County or Place where the Case shall happen, on the Oath of any credible Witness, to have arisen from the Detention of any Ship or Vessel; and in default of immediate Payment thereof by such Proprietor or Proprietors, Lessee or Lessees, Collector or Collectors, the same shall and may be recovered from the said Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Quay or Wharf, or his, her, or their Lessee or Lessees, Collector or Collectors, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, or of his, her, or their Lessee or Lessees, Collector or Collectors; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder the Admeasurement of any Ship or Vessel in pursuance of this Act, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, over and above the said Rates and Duties.

Officers of Customs may refuse to discharge Vessels until the Rates are paid.

VIII. And for more effectually securing Payment of the said Rates or Duties, be it further enacted, That the Collector or Customer, Comptroller, and every other Officer whatsoever of His Majesty's Customs, shall be authorized to refuse to give or make out any Cocquet or other Discharge, or take any Report outwards or inwards for any Ship, Vessel, or Boat using the said Harbour, until the Rates or Duties by this Act made payable according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof shall be duly paid; and such Collector or Customer, Comptroller, or other Officer of His Majesty's Customs, shall and he is hereby required to obey all such Orders and Directions as he shall from Time to Time receive from His Majesty's Commissioners of Customs in relation thereto.

Power to reduce and again to raise the Duties.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall or may be lawful to and for the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf, by Notice, to be inserted twice in some Devon or Exeter Newspaper, to reduce the Rates or Duties hereby made payable, or any of them, and again by such Notice as aforesaid to raise the same from Time to Time as Circumstances shall require, but not so as to exceed the Rates or Duties hereby granted; which reduced Rates or Duties shall or may be raised and levied in the same or the like Manner, and by the same or the like Methods, as the Rates or Duties hereby granted are directed to be raised and levied.

Ships in His Majesty's Service, &c. exempt from Duties.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Ships or Vessels belonging to or employed in the Service of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or in the Service or Employ of the Ordnance, or of the Customs or Excise, or of the Post Office, using the said Quay, Wharf, or Harbour, nor to any Naval or Ordnance Stores or other Commodities imported upon or exported from the said Quay or Wharf for the Use of the Navy, Army, or Ordnance.

Mode of raising and levying Rates and Duties.

XI. And, to the Intent that the Rates or Duties granted by this Act may be more effectually raised and levied, be it further enacted, That in case any Master or other Person or Persons having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, for or in respect of which, or of the Cargo put on board or discharged therefrom, any Rate or Duty, or Rates or Duties, shall in any Manner be due or payable by virtue of this Act, or any Owner or Owners, Consignee or Consignees, or other Person or Persons having the Charge of any Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities for or in respect of which any Rate or Duty, or Rates or Duties, shall be due or payable as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to pay the said Rates or Duties or any of them, on Demand thereof made by the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf, or his, her, or their Lessee or Lessees, or by such Collector or Collectors to be appointed as hereinbefore mentioned, it shall be lawful to and for such Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid, and also to and for his, or their Lessee or Lessees, Collector or Collectors, or any or either of them, from Time to Time, to go on board of any such Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, and to take and distrain every such Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, and all her Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, and Stores, or any Part or Parts thereof, or to take and distrain the Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities then on board any such Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, or which shall have been discharged out of the same, and shall be then remaining on the said Quay or Wharf or any Part or Parts thereof, and the Distress or Distresses which shall be taken to detain and keep until the respective Rates or Duties, and the reasonable Charges of taking and keeping such Distress or Distresses, shall be paid; and in case such Rates or Duties, with such reasonable Charges as aforesaid, shall not be paid within Five Days next after every such Distress taken, then it shall be lawful for such Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid, or his, her, or their Lessee or Lessees, Collector or Collectors, to cause the Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, and her Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, and Stores, or such Part or Parts thereof, as shall be distrained, as well as the Goods, Wares, Merchandise, and Commodities distrained, to be appraised by Two Appraisers to be sworn before a Constable of Bideford aforesaid, and afterwards to sell the same, and therewith to satisfy and pay himself, herself, or themselves, as well the Rates or Duties withheld, and for which every such Distress shall have been taken, as also the reasonable Charges of taking, keeping, appraising, and selling the same, rendering the Overplus, if any, on Demand, to the Master or other Person or Persons having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, or the Owner or Owners, Consignee or Consignees, or other Person or Persons having the Charge of such Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities, as the Case may be: Provided always, that whenever any Distress shall be taken of any Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities, either on board or discharged from any Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, the same shall be subject and liable, in addition to such reasonable Charges as aforesaid, to the Rates or Duties due and payable, not only for or in respect of the Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities dities distrained, but also for or in respect of any other Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities consigned or belonging to the same Person or Persons to whom the Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities distrained were consigned or belonged, and also for all Arrears of Rates or Duties due from such Person or Persons.

Rates and Duties recoverable by Action.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Rates or Duties by this Act granted may also be sued for and recovered, together with Costs of Suits by Action of Debt or on the Case, to be brought in the Name or Names of such Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid, or of his, her, or their Lessee or Lessees, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, against the Person or Persons by this Act made liable to the Payment of such Rates or Duties, or any or either of such Person or Persons.

Owners and Masters of Vessels to have a Lien for Rates and Duties paid for Goods, and may recover the same by Action.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if the Master or other Person or Persons having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, out of which any Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities shall be discharged, or into which any Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities shall be shipped, shall pay any of the said Rates or Duties for or in respect of such Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities, or any Part or Parts thereof, belonging to any other Person or Persons, or if any Rates or Duties due or payable for or in respect of any of such Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities shall be levied by Distress to be made of any Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, and her Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, and Stores, or any Part or Parts thereof, by virtue of this Act, then and in every such Case the Master, or other Person or Persons having the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat as aforesaid, shall have a Lien on such Goods, Wares, Merchandise, and Commodities for the Amount of the Rates or Duties so paid or levied respectively, and shall and may also recover the same from the Person or Persons to whom such Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities shall belong, together with all Costs and Expences attending the Recovery thereof, by Action of Debt or on the Case, to be brought in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

Additional Rates and Duties on Goods, &c. in certain Cases.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares, Merchandise, and Commodities which shall be landed out of any Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, and lodged or placed on the said Quay or Wharf, or which shall be lodged or placed on the said Quay or Wharf for the Purpose of being put on board any Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, shall be removed and taken therefrom within Forty-eight Hours, to be computed from the Time of each such landing and lodging or placing of the same; and if any Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities shall remain longer upon the said Quay or Wharf than Forty-eight Hours from each landing and lodging or placing the same thereon, the Owner or respective Owners, or the Person or Persons having the Charge of such Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities, shall pay to the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf, or his, her, or their Lessee or Lessees, or to such Collector tor or Collectors, to be appointed as aforesaid, over and above all other Rates or Duties granted by this Act, the Sum of Two-pence per Ton for every Ton Weight, and according to the Proportion of Two-pence per Ton for less than a Ton Weight of such Goods, Wares, Merchandise, and Commodities which shall so remain on the said Quay or Wharf for any longer Time than Forty-eight Hours as aforesaid, and the further Sum of One Shilling per Ton for every Ton Weight, and according to the Proportion of One Shilling per Ton for less than a Ton Weight, of such Goods, Wares, Merchandise, and Commodities, for every succeeding Twenty-four Hours after the first Seventy-two Hours that such Goods, Wares, Merchandise, and Commodities shall remain upon the said Quay or Wharf, to be raised, levied, and recovered in the same or the like Manner as any other Rates or Duties granted by this Act are hereby directed to be raised, levied, and recovered.

Owners of Ships and Boats to be accountable in certain Cases for Damages done to the said Harbour, &c.

XV. And be it further enacted, That every Master, Owner, or other Person having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, lying or being at or near the said Quay or Wharf, shall be and he is hereby made answerable for any Damage, Spoil, or Injury that shall be done to the said Quay or Wharf, or the Walls, Slips, or Pavements thereof, or any Mooring or Guard Posts thereon, or any Appendages thereto, through Wilfulness, Unskilfulness, or Negligence of him, or of any of the Mariners, Boatmen, Servants, or Crew on board of or employed in or about the same, or by or in the navigating, loading, or unloading of any such Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, or by any other Means whatsoever; and all such Damage, in case the Amount thereof shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall be recoverable before any Two Justices of the Peace of the Borough Town and Manor of Bideford, who are hereby authorized and empowered to summon such Master, Owner, or other Person as aforesaid, and to hear and determine the same, and ascertain the Amount of such Damage; and if Judgment shall be given by them against such Master, Owner, or other Person, then it shall be lawful for such Justices, or any other Justices of the Peace of the said Borough Town and Manor, and they are hereby authorized, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to levy or cause to be levied the Sum or Sums awarded by them as the Amount of such Damage, and for that Purpose to seize and distrain the Ship, Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat of such Master, Owner, or other Person as aforesaid, and her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, or any Part thereof, and the same to detain until the Sum of Money so awarded as aforesaid shall be paid; and in case the same shall not be paid for the Space of Five Days after any Distress or Distresses so made or taken, then it shall be lawful to sell the same, or any Stores, Articles, or Things belonging to the same which may be sufficient in Value, and therewith to pay and satisfy the Money so awarded, together with the reasonable Costs and Charges of taking, keeping, and selling the same, rendering the Overplus, if any, to the Master, Owner, or other Person entitled to the same, on Demand; and in case the Money cannot be levied in manner as aforesaid, then the said Justices, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, shall or may commit such Master, Owner, or other Person to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the said Borough Town and Manor, there to remain for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless the Sum of Money so awarded shall be sooner sooner paid; and the same, when levied in manner as aforesaid, shall go and be paid to the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Quay or Wharf; and in case such Damage shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, the same shall or may be sued for and recovered, together with Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt or on the Case, to be brought in the Name or Names of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, against the Person or Persons by this Act made answerable for the same as aforesaid, or any or either of such Persons.

Masters to recover from their Servants any Sums paid for their Default.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in case the Master, Owner, or other Person having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, shall be compelled to pay any Penalty, or to make Satisfaction for any Damages done or committed by reason of any Wilfulness, Unskilfulness, Neglect, or Default of his or their Mariners, Boatmen, Servants, or Crew, such Mariners, Boatmen, Servants, or Crew, and each and every of them, shall be liable to repay such Penalty or Damages, with the Costs thereof, to such Master, Owner, or other Person as aforesaid; and in case of Nonpayment thereof upon Demand, and Oath made before any Justice of the Peace of the Borough Town and Manor of Bideford aforesaid, by such Master, Owner, or other Person, of the Payment made by him or them of such Penalty or Damages, and that the same and the Costs thereof have not been repaid to him or them by such Mariners, Boatmen, Servants, or Crew, or any of them, or on their Behalf, although demanded, the Amount thereof shall or may be recovered and levied in the same or the like Manner as any Penalty or Forfeiture is hereby directed to be recovered and levied.

Bye Laws may be made for regulating the mooring of Vessels and the Conduct of Pilots, &c.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf from Time to Time to make, frame, ordain, and establish such reasonable Bye Laws, Rules, and Regulations as he, she, or they shall think fit, for maintaining the free and uninterrupted Navigation of the said River Torridge, within the Harbour of Bideford aforesaid, and for the good Government and Management of Ships or Vessels at or near the said Quay or Wharf, and for regulating the mooring and stationing of such Ships or Vessels whilst remaining at or near such Quay or Wharf, and also for well governing and ordering the Pilots, Seamen, and other Persons serving on board or employed in or about such Ships or Vessels, and the Collectors, Officers, and Persons employed by such Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid, in or about the Matters or Concerns of the said Quay or Wharf, or the Ships or Vessels repairing thereto, or the collecting and receiving the Rates or Duties granted by this Act, and to appoint proper Officers for carrying such Bye Laws, Rules, and Regulations into Effect, and also from Time to Time, as occasion may require, to repeal and amend or alter such Bye Laws, Rules, and Regulations, as to such Proprietor or Proprietors shall seem meet and requisite; provided that such Bye Laws, Rules, and Regulations, or any of them, be not repugnant to any thing in this Act contained, or to the Laws of England; and also to impose, fix, and appoint reasonable pecuniary Penalties, not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds for each Non-observance or Nonperformance, or other Breach of any of such Bye Laws, Rules, and Regulations, to be recovered and levied as herein directed; which Bye Laws, Rules, and Regulations the said Proprietor or Proprietors shall from Time to Time cause to be printed and distributed within the Town of Bideford aforesaid; and a Copy or Copies of all such Bye Laws, Rules, and Regulations shall be fixed and continued at some conspicuous Place or Places on or near the said Quay or Wharf, and renewed as often as the same shall be obliterated or defaced.

Bye Laws to be approved and confirmed.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Bye Law, Rule, or Regulation which shall be made pursuant to the Powers hereby given for that Purpose shall be put in execution, or be of any Validity or Effect, until the same respectively shall have been approved of by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough Town and Manor of Bideford aforesaid, or the major Part of them assembled at a Corporate Meeting, nor until the same respectively shall have been produced at the Assizes for the said County of Devon, and have been ratified and confirmed by a Judge or Judges of such Assizes, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, nor until the same shall have been published, and posted or fixed up at some public Place in the said Town of Bideford, for the Space of Ten Days.

Penalty for Nuisances on the Quay, &c.

XIX. And for preventing Nuisances and Obstructions upon the said Quay or Wharf, and wilful or malicious Injuries being done thereto, be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall commit or cause to be committed any Nuisance or Nuisances upon the said Quay or Wharf; or if any Person or Persons shall lodge any Timber, Plank, Stones, Slate, Dung, Ashes, or Manure, or any other Article or Thing, thereon, the same not being Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or Commodities then lately landed out of or intended to be forthwith put on board any Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, then being at or near the said Quay or Wharf; or if any Person or Persons shall wilfully or maliciously do or commit any Damage or Injury to the Walls, Slips, or Pavement of the said Quay or Wharf, or to any Mooring or Guard Post thereon, or to any Property of the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf annexed or belonging to the same Quay or Wharf; or if any Person or Persons shall throw or cast from any Ship or Vessel, Barge, Lighter, or Boat, or from the said Quay or Wharf, or from any other Place, or in any Manner whatsoever, any Ballast, Stones, Chalk, Gravel, Sand, Ashes, or Rubbish, or any Substance whatsoever, into the Channel near or leading to the said Quay or Wharf, or into any Part of the usual navigable Channel within the Harbour of Bideford aforesaid, which may tend to obstruct the Navigation thereof; every such Person or Persons shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence as aforesaid any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Proprietor made subject and liable to Repairs.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf shall be subject and liable, and is and are hereby required, at his, her, or their own Costs and Charges, from Time to Time and at all Times hereafter, to keep the said Quay or Wharf, and all Improvements thereof, and the Walls, Slips, and Pavement thereof, and all Mooring and Guard Posts thereon, in in good and substantial Repair and Condition; and it shall or may be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects residing within the Borough Town and Manor of Bideford aforesaid to prefer and prosecute any Indictment against such Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid, whenever such Quay or Wharf, or the Improvements thereof, or the Walls, Slips, or Pavement thereof, or the Mooring or Guard Posts thereon, shall be ruinous or out of Repair, and shall not be put into a proper State of Repair within Three Calendar Months next after Notice in Writing for that Purpose delivered to him, her, or them, or left at his, her, or their last or usual Place of Abode, by the Person or Persons intending to prefer and prosecute any such Indictment as aforesaid.

Enlargement of Quay not to affect the Rates hereby granted.

XXI. And in case any such Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid shall hereafter enlarge and improve the said Quay or Wharf, by extending the same towards the River Torridge, it is hereby enacted and declared, That such Enlargement or Improvement shall not prejudice or affect the Rates or Duties granted by this Act, or any of them, or any of the Clauses, Powers, or Provisions herein contained.

Upon Complaint of Offence against this Act, Justices may summon the Party and determine the Matter.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where by this Act any Penalty or Forfeiture is made recoverable before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices to whom Complaint shall be made of any Offence against this Act to summon the Party complained against to appear before him or them, and on such Summons to hear and determine the Matter of such Complaint, and on Proof of the Offence to convict the Offender or Offenders, and to adjudge him, her, or them to pay the Penalty or Forfeiture incurred, and to proceed to recover the same, although no Information in Writing shall have been previously exhibited before such Justice or Justices; and all such Proceedings by Summons without Information shall be as good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if an Information in Writing had been previously exhibited.

Mode of recovering and applying Penalties.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties or Forfeitures for Offences against this Act, or against any Bye Laws, Rules, or Regulations which shall be made and established, and approved, ratified, and confirmed, as herein directed, together with the Costs and Expences attending the Proceedings for recovering and levying the same respectively, shall be recovered and levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender or Offenders, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Borough Town and Manor of Bideford aforesaid (which Warrant such Justice or Justices is or are hereby empowered and required to grant), upon the Confession of the Party, or upon the Evidence of any credible Witness upon Oath, or if a Quaker upon solemn Affirmation, (which Oath or Affirmation such Justice or Justices is or are hereby empowered to administer and take); and the Overplus (if any) of the Monies arising by such Distress and Sale shall be returned, upon Demand, to the Owner of such Goods and Chattels, after deducting the Costs and Charges of making, keeping, and selling the Distress; and all such Penalties or Forfeitures, when recovered, shall be paid to the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf, except Penalties or Forfeitures for any Nuisance or Nuisances committed upon the same Quay or Wharf, one Moiety of which last-mentioned mentioned Penalties or Forfeitures only shall be paid to such Proprietor or Proprietors, and the other Moiety to the Informer; and it shall and may be lawful for such Justice or Justices to order any Offender or Offenders convicted to be detained in safe Custody until Return can be conveniently made to any Warrant or Warrants of Distress, unless the said Offender or Offenders shall give sufficient Security, to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices, for his, her, or their Appearance before the said Justice or Justices on such Day or Days as shall be appointed for the Return of such Warrant or Warrants of Distress, such Day or Days not being more than Eight Days from the Time of taking any such Security, and which Security the said Justice or Justices is or are hereby empowered to take by way of Recognizance or otherwise; and if upon the Return of such Warrant or Warrants it shall appear that no sufficient Distress can be had whereupon to levy the Penalty or Forfeiture, and such Costs and Expences as aforesaid, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or if it shall appear to such Justice or Justices, either by the Confession of the Offender or Offenders, or otherwise, that the Offender or Offenders hath or have not sufficient Goods and Chattels whereupon to levy any such Penalty or Forfeiture, with the Costs and Expences as aforesaid, on a Warrant of Distress being issued, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he or they is or are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, to cause the Offender or Offenders to be committed to the Common Gaol of the said Borough Town and Manor, or to any House of Correction therein, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalties and Forfeitures, and all reasonable Charges attending the Recovery thereof, shall be sooner fully paid and satisfied.

Penalty on Witnesses for not appearing to give Evidence.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons who shall be summoned as a Witness or Witnesses to attend and give Evidence before any Justice or Justices of the Peace as aforesaid on any Information or Complaint touching any Matter or Thing cognizable before any such Justice or Justices under this Act, either on the Part of the Prosecutor or the Person or Persons accused, shall refuse or neglect to appear at the Time and Place for that Purpose to be appointed, having been paid or tendered a reasonable Sum for his, her, or their Charges and Expences, and not having a reasonable Excuse for his, her, or their Refusal or Neglect to appear, or if any such Person or Persons who shall be summoned as aforesaid and appear as a Witness or Witnesses shall refuse to be examined upon Oath, or (being a Quaker or Quakers) on solemn Affirmation, and to give Evidence before such Justice or Justices of the Peace, then and in either of the said Cases every such Person shall forfeit and pay for every such Refusal or Neglect any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Officers not incompetent Witnesses.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons shall be deemed incompetent to give Evidence in any Matter or Thing which shall be heard and determined under or by virtue of this Act, by reason only or on account that such Person or Persons shall act under the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf as a Collector of the Rates or Duties granted by this Act, or in any other official Capacity.

XXVI. And

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, in his, her, or their Examination on Oath or solemn Affirmation before any such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, touching any Matter or Thing cognizable before such Justice or Justices under or by virtue of this Act, wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, every such Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Punishment as by Law Persons guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to. Witnesses giving false Evidence to be subject to Punishment as for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Justice or Justices before whom any Conviction shall take place under or by virtue of this Act may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case shall require; videlicet, Form of Conviction.

'BE it remembered, That on the Day of
' in the Year of our Lord at
' in the County of Devon, A. B. is [or, A. B. and C. D. are] convicted
' before me J. P., One [or, before us J. P. and M. R., Two] of His ' Majesty's Justices of the Peace [for the Borough Town and Manor
' of Bideford in the County of Devon,] for that the said A. B. [or,
' A. B. and C. D.] did [*here specify the Offence and the Time and Place
' when and where the same was committed,*] [*or if the Conviction be for ' any Damage or Injury through Negligence or Want of proper Care, then
' say*, for that E. F., or, if more than One, state all the Parties, and the Time ' and Place when and where the Damage or Injury was committed,] and I
' the said J. P. [or, we the said J. P. and M. R.] adjudge the said A. B.
' for his [or her] [or, A. B. and C. D. for their] said Offence to forfeit
' and pay [or, for the said Damage and Injury done or committed as afore-
' said, to pay] the Sum of , and also to pay the ' Sum of for Costs, which I [or we] the said Justice
' [or Justices] do order and direct to be paid within
' to be applied according to the Directions of an Act passed in the ' Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth,
' intituled [here insert the Title of this Act]. Given under my Hand
' and Seal [or, our Hands and Seals] the Day and Year above written.'

And every such Conviction shall be transmitted by the Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom the same shall take place in the Manner hereinafter mentioned.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by any Conviction, or any other Matter or Thing which shall take place in pursuance of this Act, or by any Order or Judgment made or given in pursuance of any Bye Law, Rule, or Regulation to be made as aforesaid, every such Person or Persons may appeal to the Justices assembled at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the Borough Town and Manor of Bideford aforesaid, or for the County of Devon, at the Option of the Appellant or Appellants, within Four Calendar Months next after the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, on giving or causing to be given Ten Days Notice in Writing at least to the Proprietor or Proprietors for the Time being of the said Quay or Wharf, or to his, her, Power of Appeal.

or their Steward or Agent, of the Intention of such Person or Persons to bring such Appeal, and stating therein the particular Ground or Grounds of such Appeal, and the Time and Place for hearing the same, and within Two Days after the Delivery of such Notice entering into a Recognizance before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Borough Town and Manor of Bideford aforesaid, with Two sufficient Sureties, conditioned to try such Appeal, and to abide the Order of the Justices at such Sessions, and to pay such Costs as they shall direct; and the Justices at such Sessions, upon due Proof of such Notice being given as aforesaid, and of the entering into such Recognizance (and the same being transmitted and filed as hereinafter mentioned), shall and are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine the Cause and Matter of such Appeal, and to award such Costs to the Party appealing or appealed against as they shall think proper, and shall and may, at their Discretion, discharge or mitigate all or any of the Penalties or Forfeitures incurred by the Party or Parties appealing, or may order any Money to be returned which shall have been levied in pursuance of any such Bye Law, Rule, or Regulation as aforesaid.

Convictions and Recognizances to be transmitted to Sessions.

XXIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That every Conviction which shall take place under this Act, and Recognizance which shall be entered into by or on behalf of any Person or Persons intending to appeal as aforesaid, shall, within such Four Calendar Months as aforesaid, be transmitted by the Justice or Justices before whom the same respectively shall take place and be entered into, to the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace where each Appeal is intended by such Notice as aforesaid to be heard, there to be kept and filed among the Records of the Court; and whenever a Notice of Appeal shall not be given the Conviction shall be transmitted within such Four Calendar Months to the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said Borough Town and Manor of Bideford, to be kept and filed as aforesaid.

Conviction not to be quashed for Want of Form, &c.

XXX. And be it enacted, That no such Conviction, or Adjudication made on any Appeal, shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into any of His Majesty's superior Courts of Record; and no Warrant of Commitment shall be held void by reason of any Defect therein, provided it be therein alleged that the Party has been convicted, and there be a good and sufficient Conviction to sustain the same.

Distress not unlawful for Want of Form.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That where any Distress shall be made for any Sum of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party or Parties making the same be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Information, Summons, Conviction, Warrant of Distress, or other Proceedings relating thereto; nor shall the Party or Parties distraining be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers ab initio, on account of any Irregularity that shall be afterwards done by the Party or Parties so distraining; but the Person or Persons aggrieved by such Irregularity shall and may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage in an Action upon the Case.

Plaintiff not to recover without Notice, nor after Tender of Amends.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover in any Action or Suit to be commenced against any Person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act; unless Notice in Writing shall have been given to the Defendant or Defendants Ten Days at least before such Action or Suit shall be commenced, of such intended Action or Suit, signed by the Attorney of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, specifying the Cause of such Action or Suit; nor shall the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs recover in any such Action or Suit, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made to him, her, or them, or to his, her, or their Attorney, by or on behalf of the Defendant or Defendants, before such Action or Suit brought; and in case no such Tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, by Leave of the Court after such Action or Suit shall have been brought, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he, she, or they shall think fit; whereupon such Proceedings, Order, and Judgment shall be made and given in and by such Court as in other Actions or Suits where the Defendant is allowed to pay Money into Court.

Limitation of Actions.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That no such Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any thing to be done in pursuance of this Act, after the Expiration of Six Calendar Months next after the Fact committed; and every such Action or Suit shall be brought and tried in the County or Place where the Cause of Action shall arise, and not elsewhere; and if any such Action or Suit shall be brought before Ten Days Notice shall have been given, or after Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made as aforesaid, or after the Time limited for bringing the same as aforesaid, or shall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants.

General Saving of Rights.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, prejudice, lessen, defeat, or affect the Rights and Privileges of the King's most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or of any other Person or Persons whomsoever, in any respect whatsoever, save and except as by this Act is directed, nor to prevent any Person taking Sand or Gravel from the Bed of the River Torridge as heretofore accustomed.

Not to affect Rights of Corporation of Barnstaple.

XXXV. And whereas the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Barnstaple in the County of Devon claim to be entitled by several Royal Charters to the Right and Privilege of Exemption from the Payment of any Toll, Rate, or Duty whatsoever; be it therefore enacted and declared, That this Act, or any Matter or Thing herein contained, shall not operate either to the Prejudice or Advantage of any such Right or Privilege in any Manner howsoever.

Public Act.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others, without being specially pleaded.
