CAP. VI.

An Act to amend an Act made in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to empower the Archbishop of Canterbury or the Archbishop of York for the Time being to consecrate to the Office of a Bishop Persons being Subjects or Citizens of Countries out of His Majesty's Dominions. [5th October 1841.]

'WHEREAS in and by an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth
' Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the 26 G. 3. c. 84. ' Third, intituled An Act to empower the Archbishop of Canter-
' bury or the Archbishop of York for the Time being to consecrate
' to the Office of a Bishop Persons being Subjects or Citizens of
' Countries out of His Majesty's Dominions, after reciting that ' " there are divers Persons, Subjects or Citizens of Countries
' out of His Majesty's Dominions, and inhabiting and residing
' within the said Countries, who profess the public Worship of ' Almighty God according to the Principles of the Church of ' England, and who, in order to provide a regular Succession
' of Ministers for the Service of their Church, are desirous of
' having certain of the Subjects or Citizens of those Countries
' consecrated Bishops according to the Form of Consecration

' of

'of the Church of England," it is amongst other things enacted, 'that from and after the passing of the said Act it should and 'might be lawful to and for the Archbishop of Canterbury or 'for the Archbishop of York for the Time being, together with 'such other Bishops as they should call to their Assistance, to 'consecrate Persons being Subjects or Citizens of Countries 'out of His Majesty's Dominions Bishops for the Purposes in 'the said Act mentioned, without the King's Licence for their 'Election, or the Royal Mandate under the Great Seal for 'their Confirmation and Consecration, and without requiring 'them to take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and the 'Oath of due Obedience to the Archbishop for the Time being: 'And whereas it is expedient to enlarge the Powers given by 'the said Act;' be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Archbishop of Canterbury or the Archbishop of York for the Time being, together with such other Bishops as they shall call to their Assistance, to consecrate British Subjects, or the Subjects or Citizens of any Foreign Kingdom or State, to be Bishops in any Foreign Country, whether such Foreign Subjects or Citizens be or be not Subjects or Citizens of the Country in which they are to act, and without the Queen's Licence for their Election, or the Royal Mandate under the Great Seal for their Confirmation and Consecration, and without requiring such of them as may be Subjects or Citizens of any Foreign Kingdom or State to take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and the Oath of due Obedience to the Archbishop for the Time being.

Archbishops of Canterbury and York may consecrate British Subjects or Foreigners to be Bishops in Foreign Countries, without the Royal Licence for Election, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Bishop or Bishops so consecrated may exercise, within such Limits as may from Time to Time be assigned for that Purpose in such Foreign Countries by Her Majesty, Spiritual Jurisdiction over the Ministers of British Congregations of the United Church of England and Ireland, and over such other Protestant Congregations as may be desirous of placing themselves under his or their Authority.

Spiritual Jurisdiction of such Bishops.

III. Provided always, That no Person shall be consecrated a Bishop in the Manner herein provided until the Archbishop of Canterbury or the Archbishop of York for the Time being shall have first applied for and shall have obtained Her Majesty's Licence, by Warrant under Her Royal Signet and Sign Manual, authorizing and empowering him to perform such Consecration, and expressing the Name of the Person so to be consecrated, nor until the said Archbishop has been fully ascertained of the Sufficiency of such Person in good Learning, of the Soundness of his Faith, and of the Purity of his Manners.

Archbishops to obtain Her Majesty's Licence for Consecration, and to ascertain the Fitness of Persons to be consecrated.

IV. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That no Person consecrated to the Office of a Bishop in the Manner aforesaid, nor any Person deriving his Consecration from or under any Bishop so consecrated, nor any Person admitted to the

Such Bishops, and the Persons consecrated or ordained by them, not to act within England or Ireland, otherwise than according to 3 & 4 Vict. c. 33.

the Order of Deacon or Priest by any Bishop or Bishops so consecrated, or by the Successor or Successors of any Bishop or Bishops so consecrated, shall be thereby enabled to exercise his Office within Her Majesty's Dominions in England or Ireland, otherwise than according to the Provisions of an Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to make certain Provisions and Regulations in respect to the Exercise within England and Ireland of their Office by the Bishops and Clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland; and also to extend such Provisions and Regulations to the Bishops and Clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; and also to make further Regulations in respect to Bishops and Clergy other than those of the United Church of England and Ireland.

Archbishop to give a Certificate of Consecration.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Archbishop who so consecrates shall give to the Person consecrated a Certificate under his Hand and Seal, containing the Name of the Country whereof he is a Subject or Citizen, and the Name of the Church in which he is appointed Bishop; and in case of such Person being the Subject or Citizen of any Foreign Kingdom or State, then such Certificate shall further mention, that he has not taken the said Oaths, he being exempted by virtue of this Act from taking them.

Act may be amended this Session.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. VII.

An Act to continue until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-two such Laws as may expire within a limited Period.

[5th October 1841.]

'WHEREAS there are divers Laws and Enactments which have lately expired, or will expire at the End of this Session of Parliament, or on some specified Day before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and there may not be sufficient Time during the present Session of Parliament for a particular Examination and due Consideration how far any of the said Laws may be fit to be further continued;' be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Laws and Enactments in force on the Twenty-third Day of June One thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and for the Continuance of which no particular Provision has been made by any Act passed during the present Session of Parliament, and which would expire at the End of this Session of Parliament, or before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-two, shall be and continue in full Force, to all Intents and Purposes, until the Thirty-first

Laws expiring at the End of this Session, or on or before the 1st Jan. 1842, continued till the 31st July 1842.
