

ANNO SEPTIMO

GEORGII IV. REGIS.

****

CAP. XXXII.

An Act to amend an Act for suppressing or regulating certain Offices therein mentioned, so far as relates to the Board of Trade. [5th May 1826.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Twenty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for enabling His Majesty to discharge the Debt contracted upon His Civil List Revenues, and for preventing the same from being in arrear for the future, by regulating the Mode of Payments out of the said Revenues, and by suppressing or regulating certain Offices therein mentioned, which are now paid out of the Revenues of the Civil List: And whereas it is expedient to make Provision for enabling His Majesty to grant a competent Salary to the Person holding the Office of President of the Committee of Council appointed for the Consideration of Matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, in consideration of the Duties and Responsibility attached to the said Office; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by the Lord High Treasurer, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, to order and direct that the President of
