(2) The said customary holidays are:—

(3) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph, an employer may (except where in the case of a woman or young person such a requirement would be unlawful) require a worker who is otherwise entitled to any customary holiday under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule to work thereon and, in lieu of any customary holiday on which he so works, the employer shall allow to the worker a day's holiday (hereinafter in this Schedule referred to as a "holiday in lieu of a customary holiday") on a week day on which he would normally work for the employer within the period of three weeks next ensuing.

(4) A worker who is required to work on a customary holiday shall be paid:—

Paragraph 4

(1) Annual holidays under this Schedule shall be allowed on consecutive working days, being days on which the worker is normally called upon to work for the employer, and days of annual holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that a customary holiday on which the worker is not required to work for the employer or a holiday in lieu of a customary holiday intervenes.

Provided that where the duration of an annual holiday which an employer is required to allow to a worker exceeds the period constituting the worker's normal working week the said holiday may be allowed in two or more separate periods of such consecutive working days one of which shall be not less than the period of his normal working week.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, any day of annual holiday under this Schedule may be allowed on a day on which the worker is entitled to a day of holiday or to a half holiday under any enactment other than the Wages Councils Act, 1945.

Provided, however, that payment of the said holiday remuneration is subject to the condition that the worker (unless excused by the employer or absent by reason of the proved illness of, or accident to, the worker) presents himself for employment at the usual starting hour on the first working day following the holiday and works his normal hours of work on that day.

(2) The holiday remuneration in respect of any customary holiday shall be paid by the employer to the worker on the pay day on which the wages for the pay week including the first working day following the customary holiday are paid.

(3) The holiday remuneration in respect of any holiday in lieu of a customary holiday shall be paid on the pay day on which the wages for the pay week including the first working day following that holiday in lieu of a customary holiday are paid. Provided that the said payment shall be made immediately upon the termination of the worker's employment in the case where he ceases to be employed before being allowed a holiday in lieu of a customary holiday to which he is entitled, and in that case the condition specified in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall not apply.
