(b) the property consists of the securities of another body corporate."

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This Order may be cited as the Control of Borrowing (Amendment) (No. 2) Order, 1956, and shall come into operation on the second day of August, nineteen hundred and fifty-six.

Dated this first day of August, nineteen hundred and fifty-six.

Martin Redmayne,
Edward Wakefield,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order makes it unlawful, without the consent of the Treasury, for a company to issue securities, except in certain circumstances, in consideration of the transfer of property.

BORSTAL INSTITUTIONS

1956 No. 1987

The Borstal Rules, 1956

Laid before Parliament in draft

Made - - - - 12*th December*, 1956
Coming into Operation 12*th January*, 1957

In pursuance of the powers conferred on me by section forty-seven of the Prison Act, 1952(b), I hereby make the following Rules :—

1. For Rule 22 of the principal Rules as set out in Rule 4 of the Borstal Rules, 1952(c) (which relates to release on parole), there shall be substituted the following Rule :—

" Temporary release

22.—(1) An inmate may be temporarily released from the Borstal by the Commissioners for such time or times and subject to such conditions as may be determined by them either—

(a) for the purpose of engaging in employment or receiving instruction or training, or

(b) in such other circumstances as may be approved by them.

(a) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63. (b) 15 & 16 Geo. 6 & 1 Eliz. 2. c. 52.
(c) S.I. 1952/1406 (1952 I, p. 429).

(2) If the Commissioners are satisfied that an inmate so released has broken any of the conditions on which he was released, they may by order recall him to the Borstal notwithstanding that the time for which he was released has not expired.".

2. For paragraph (2) of Rule 28 of the principal Rules (which provides that the Governor may delegate to an Assistant Governor or Chief Officer such duties as from time to time the Commissioners approve) there shall be substituted the following paragraph :—

"(2) The Governor may delegate to an Assistant Governor or to an officer of a class approved by the Commissioners such duties as from time to time the Commissioners approve.".

3. In paragraph (1) of Rule 37 of the principal Rules as set out in Rule 9 of the Borstal Rules, 1952 (which provides that every offence against discipline shall be reported forthwith, and requires the Governor to investigate any report of such an offence not later than the following day, unless that day is a Sunday or a public holiday), for the words from "not later" to the end of the paragraph there shall be substituted the following words:—

"not later, save in exceptional circumstances, than the following day unless that day is a Sunday or a public holiday".

4. In these Rules the expression "the principal Rules" means the Borstal (No. 2) Rules, 1949(a).

5. These Rules may be cited as the Borstal Rules, 1956, and shall come into operation at the expiration of one month beginning with the day on which they are made.

G. Lloyd-George,

One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
