CHAPTER cxv.

An Act to continue the powers for the making of and to extend the time limited for the completion of certain works authorised by the Bray Township Act 1890 namely the promenade pier and landing stage thereby authorised and for other purposes. [30th July 1900.] A.D. 1900.

WHEREAS by the Bray Township Act 1890 (in this Act called "the Act of 1890") the commissioners acting in and for the township of Bray were empowered amongst other works to make and maintain a promenade pier and landing stage in the said Act specified:

And whereas subsequent to the passing of the said Act of 1890 the Local Government (Ireland) Act 1898 was passed whereby all the powers rights and privileges of the said commissioners were transferred to and are now vested in the Bray Urban District Council (in this Act called "the Council") who are the successors to the said commissioners:

And whereas all the works authorised by the said Act of 1890 have been made save that of the said promenade pier and landing stage:

And whereas owing to financial difficulties and from other causes the said commissioners and their successors have hitherto been unable to make the said promenade pier and landing stage authorised by the said Act of 1890 but have now entered into a contract with the Bray Promenade Pier Company Limited and have granted to them a licence dated the sixteenth October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine to make the said promenade pier and landing stage at the end thereof in all respects as provided by the said Act of 1890 and the said works have already been commenced:

And whereas the said company have recently informed the Council that the time yet unexpired under the Act of 1890 viz.

until the fourth day of August one thousand nine hundred is too short to enable them to complete said promenade pier and landing stage and an extension of time is required therefor :

And whereas the company have requested the Council to apply to Parliament for that purpose and have agreed to pay the costs of and occasioned by the application for and obtaining of an Act extending the time so to make said promenade pier and landing stage as aforesaid :

And whereas it will be of material benefit and advantage to the inhabitants of Bray and the numerous visitors thereto if the said promenade pier and landing stage are made :

And whereas the objects aforesaid cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Bray Urban District Council (Extension of Time) Act 1900.

Extension of time for construction of authorised promenade pier and landing stage.

2. The time limited by the Act of 1890 for the completion of the promenade pier and landing stage thereby authorised to be made is hereby extended for the period of three years from the fourth day of August one thousand nine hundred and the Act of 1890 as amended by this Act shall be read and construed as if the period by this Act limited for the completion of the said promenade pier and landing stage had been the period by that Act limited If the said promenade pier and landing stage be not completed within the extended period by this Act limited for their completion then on the expiration of that period the powers for making and completing the same and otherwise in relation thereto shall cease except as to so much thereof as shall then be completed.

Deposits for future Bills not to be paid out of capital.

3. The Council shall not out of any money which they are by any Act authorised to raise pay or deposit any sum which by any standing order of either House of Parliament now or hereafter in force may be required to be deposited in respect of any application to Parliament for the purpose of obtaining an Act authorising the Council to construct any other pier or to execute any other work or undertaking.

Expenses of Act.

4. All the costs charges and expenses of and incident to the preparing for obtaining and passing of this Act or otherwise in relation thereto shall be paid out of moneys to be received by the Council from the Bray Promenade Pier Company Limited and all such costs charges and expenses shall be paid as taxed and ascertained by the taxing officer of the House of Lords or House of Commons. A.D. 1900.
