Column 1	Column 2
Description of Sale	Maximum Prices
(5) On any sale for which no price is provided above—
(a) in the case of a 14-oz. loaf	3½d. per loaf
(b) in any other case	at the rate of 3d. per 14 oz.

2. No additional charge in respect of transport or delivery shall be made or demanded by the seller on or in connection with any sale of bread by retail.

3. On a sale by retail of bread that is completely wrapped and sealed in either waxed paper or cellulose film, the maximum price may be increased by ¼d. per 14-oz. loaf, ¾d. per 1¾-lb. loaf, and 1½d. per 3½-lb. loaf:

Provided that the seller shall at the time of such sale be able and willing to sell to any buyer, to the extent of that buyer's reasonable requirements, bread that is not so wrapped.

4. Except as aforesaid, no additional charge in respect of wrapping, packing or slicing shall be made or demanded by the seller on or in connection with any sale of bread.

5. On a sale of a pan loaf or pan loaves manufactured in Scotland, the maximum price may be increased at the rate of one farthing per 14 oz. net weight of bread sold.

6. If, on a sale of bread, the maximum price calculated in accordance with the provisions of this Order includes any fraction of a farthing, such fraction shall if equal to half a farthing or more be regarded as one farthing and shall otherwise be disregarded.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order :—

(1) raises the maximum prices of bread on all sales by ¼d. per 14 oz.; and

(2) raises, by ¼d. and ½d. respectively, the permitted increase of the maximum price on retail sales of 1¾-lb. and 3½-lb. loaves that are wrapped and sealed in waxed paper or cellulose film.

Dated the 20th day of June, 1951.

Maurice Webb,
Minister of Food.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order further amends the Bread Order, 1951 by—

(1) changing the permitted weight of baps sold in Northern Ireland from 7 or 3½ ounces to 5 ounces;

(2) abolishing the prohibition of transport or delivery charges on retail sales of bread, and, consequentially, deleting all references to "sparsely populated areas" (for delivery in which special maximum prices were prescribed); and

(3) changing the name of a trade formula which appears in the part of the Order relating to sales free of price-control.
