12.—(1) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Schedule, where in respect of any week the total remuneration (including holiday remuneration) payable under those other provisions to a full-time worker (as defined in paragraph 22) is less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided under this paragraph, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker for that week shall be that guaranteed weekly remuneration.

Provided that no guaranteed remuneration under this paragraph shall be payable to a worker in respect of any week during which the worker was not throughout his normal working hours (excluding any time allowed to him as a holiday or during which he was absent from work in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph) capable of and available for work.

(2) Subject to sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph, the guaranteed weekly remuneration shall be the remuneration to which the worker would be entitled under paragraph 2, paragraph 3, paragraph 4 or paragraph 5 of this Schedule for work in his usual occupation for the number of hours specified in (a), (b), (c) or (d), as the case may be, of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 13 of this Schedule.

Provided that where the worker normally works for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies for less than 46 hours in the week (or, in the case of a worker under 16 years of age, for less than 44 hours) by reason only of the fact that he does not hold himself out as normally available for work for more than the number of hours he normally works in the week, and the worker has informed the employer in writing that he does not so hold himself out, the guaranteed weekly remuneration shall be the remuneration to which the worker would be entitled (calculated as in paragraph 13 of this Schedule) for the number of hours in the week normally worked by the worker for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies:

(3) Where in any week a worker at his request and with the written consent of his employer is absent from work during any part of his normal working hours on any day (other than a day of annual holiday allowed under Part II of this Schedule or a customary holiday or a holiday allowed to all persons employed in the undertaking or branch of an undertaking in which the worker is employed), the guaranteed weekly remuneration payable in respect of that week shall be reduced in respect of each day on which he is absent as aforesaid by one-sixth where the worker's normal working week is six days or by one-fifth where his normal working week is five days.

BASIS OF REMUNERATION

13.—(1) The minimum remuneration specified in paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this Schedule relates—

(a) in the case of a worker aged under 16 years, to a week of 44 hours exclusive of overtime;

(b) in the case of a worker aged 16 years of age or over, other than a transport worker or a van salesman, to a week of 46 hours exclusive of overtime;

(2) In calculating the remuneration for the purpose of this Schedule recognised breaks for meal-times shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 9, be excluded.

PART II

ANNUAL HOLIDAYS

14.—(1) An employer shall, between the 1st day of April, 1955, and the 31st day of October, 1955, and in each succeeding year between the 1st day of April and the 31st day of October (hereafter in this Schedule referred to as the "holiday season") allow a holiday (hereafter in this Schedule referred to as an "annual holiday") to every worker in his employment to whom this Schedule applies who has been employed by him during the twelve months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday season for any one of the periods of employment (calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 21 of this Schedule) set out in the first column of the table below and the duration of the annual holiday shall in the case of each such worker be related to that period as follows:—

Period of employment	Duration of annual holiday
12 months	12 days
not less than 11 „ but less than 12 months	11 „
„ „ „ 10 „ „ „ „ 11 „	10 „
„ „ „ 9 „ „ „ „ 10 „	9 „
„ „ „ 8 „ „ „ „ 9 „	8 „
„ „ „ 7 „ „ „ „ 8 „	7 „
„ „ „ 6 „ „ „ „ 7 „	6 „
„ „ „ 5 „ „ „ „ 6 „	5 „
„ „ „ 4 „ „ „ „ 5 „	4 „
„ „ „ 3 „ „ „ „ 4 „	3 „
„ „ „ 2 „ „ „ „ 3 „	2 „
„ „ „ 1 month „ „ „ 2 „	1 day

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the last foregoing sub-paragraph—

(a) the number of days of annual holiday which an employer is required to allow to a worker in any holiday season shall not exceed in the aggregate twice the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week;

(b) where before the expiration of any holiday season a worker enters into an agreement in writing with his employer that the annual holiday or part thereof shall be allowed on a specified date or dates after the expiration of the holiday season but before the 1st day of January in the following year, then any day or days of annual holiday so allowed shall for the purposes of this Schedule be treated as having been allowed during the holiday season.

15. Where at the written request of the worker at any time preceding the commencement of the holiday season in any year, his employer allows him any day or days of annual holiday and pays him holiday remuneration in respect thereof calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 18 and 19 of this Schedule, then the annual holiday to be allowed in accordance with paragraph 14 of this Schedule in the holiday season in that year shall be reduced by the day or days of annual holiday so allowed prior to the commencement of that holiday season.

16.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, an annual holiday shall be allowed on consecutive working days, being days on which the worker is normally called upon to work for the employer.

(2) Where the number of days of annual holiday for which a worker has qualified exceeds the number of days constituting his normal working week, the holiday may at the written request of the worker be allowed in two periods of consecutive working days; so however that when a holiday is so allowed, one of the periods shall consist of a number of such days not less than the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph, days of annual holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that a customary holiday on which the worker is not required to work for the employer or a day on which he does not normally work for the employer intervenes.

(4) Where a customary holiday on which the worker is not required to work for the employer immediately precedes a period of annual holiday or occurs during such a period and the total number of days of annual holiday required to be allowed in the period under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, together with any customary holiday, exceeds the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week then, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the duration of that period of annual holiday may be reduced by one day and in such a case one day of annual holiday may be allowed on a day on which the worker normally works for the employer (not being the worker's weekly short day) in the holiday season.

(5) No day of annual holiday shall be allowed on a customary holiday.

(6) A day of annual holiday under this Schedule may be allowed on a day on which the worker is entitled to a day of holiday (not being a customary holiday) or to a half-holiday under any enactment other than the Wages Councils Act, 1945.

17. An employer shall give to a worker not later than the 1st day of April in each year notice of the commencing date or dates and of the duration of his annual holiday. Such notice may be given individually to the worker or by the posting of a notice in the place where the worker is employed.

HOLIDAY REMUNERATION

18.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 19 of this Schedule, a worker qualified to be allowed an annual holiday under this Schedule shall be paid by his employer, on the last pay day preceding such holiday, one day's holiday pay (as defined in paragraph 22 of this Schedule) in respect of each day thereof.

(2) Where an annual holiday is taken in more than one period the holiday remuneration shall be apportioned accordingly.

19. Where any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to the worker (in accordance with paragraph 20 of this Schedule) in respect of employment during the periods referred to in that paragraph, the amount of holiday remuneration payable by the employer in respect of any annual holiday for which the worker has qualified by reason of employment during the said period shall be reduced by the amount of the said accrued holiday remuneration unless that remuneration has been deducted from a previous payment of holiday remuneration made under the provisions of this Schedule.

ACCRUED HOLIDAY REMUNERATION PAYABLE ON TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

20. Where a worker ceases to be employed by an employer after the provisions of this Schedule become effective the employer shall, immediately on the termination of the employment, pay to the worker as accrued holiday remuneration:—

(1) in respect of employment in the twelve months up to and including the 31st day of the preceding March, a sum equal to the holiday remuneration for any days of annual holiday for which he has qualified except days of annual holiday which he has been allowed or has become entitled to be allowed before leaving the employment; and

(2) in respect of any employment since the 31st day of the preceding March, a sum equal to the holiday remuneration which would have been payable to him if he could have been allowed an annual holiday in respect of that employment at the time of leaving it.

CALCULATION OF EMPLOYMENT

21. For the purposes of calculating any period of employment qualifying a worker for an annual holiday or for any accrued holiday remuneration under this Schedule, the worker shall be treated as if he were employed for a month in respect of any month throughout which he has been in the employment of the employer.
